International Perspectives on Children's Play Jaipaul Roopnarine, Michael Patte, James Johnson, David

Kuschner, 2015-01-16 This book provides an analysis of children's play across many different cultural communities around the globe. Each chapter discusses children's play as an activity important for formal and informal education, mental health and childhood well-being, and children's hobbies and pastimes. Traditional, modern, and postmodern play forms are discussed and probed for their meaning within a contemporary global community. Authors address the functions that this phenomenon serves for indigenous cultures and the problems that arise due to the globalization of educational and social resources. Issues that are covered include the importance of conceptualizing the relationship between play and culture, how play varies both within and between cultures, children's non-play activities in relation to play activities, how play is learned, and how adults, parents, and teachers, as well as older peers and siblings, are all important influences on the play of children. Questions that are raised include: Is it fair to emphasize the importance of certain kinds of play, such as social pretend play? Is this ethnocentric? Is the mastery of certain forms of play, e.g., socio-dramatic play during the early years, critical in the acculturation process? How are different cultures incorporating literacy props in play or otherwise developing early educational programmes that use play educationally to foster literacy acquisition? These and many other questions or issues are taken up in this volume. At the heart of the book is a focus on human rights, in particular the Child's Right to Play as stated in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child. The book is committed to the principle of all children reaching their full potential and the enhancement of their families, communities, and cultures through play. Drama Teachers' Association of California.

Bulletin, 1929 10-Minute Mini Play Collection, 2014 WHAT IT IS This fun and hilarious collection of musical plays helps you teach the standards while bringing your classroom to life. Easy to do, play comes with script, audio CD, and teacher's guide. NO music or drama experience is required; you don't have to sing or play a note. Go big and perform on stage, keep it simple with a classroom performance, or simply do reader's theater in class. No fancy sets, costumes, or performance spaces are needed, so it's all up to you. Flexible casting for 8-40 students and permission to edit the script and songs make it easy to tailor the play to the needs of your class and community. Your purchase of one copy per teacher includes permission to photocopy the script for students. WHAT IT TEACHES These short plays give teachers a fun, memorable, and time-efficient way to supplement or review a specific area of the curriculum. This collection contains five different mini plays: Conservation, Saving Energy and Water, Geometry, Polygons, Map of the World, Why Pirates Sailed to Kansas, Martin Luther King Jr., Overcoming Segregation, and Noun and Verb Grammar. Under the Big Top, 50 minutes total, grades 3-7. WHAT IT DOES The 10 Minute Mini Play Collection is a great complement to your curriculum resources in social studies, language arts, math, and science. And like all Bad Wolf Press plays, this show can be used to improve reading comprehension, vocabulary, performance, and speaking skills, class camaraderie, and teamwork, and school engagement and parental involvement, all while enabling students to be part of a truly fun and creative experience they will never forget. Sounds of Music George Odam, Joan
