Archiving Creole Voices Marl'ene Edwin, 2024-12-10 Archiving Creole Voices Representations of Language and Culture begins with a re reading of selected texts by female Caribbean writers specifically Joan Anim Addo Olive Senior and Merle Collins and proclaims that literary fiction can and does function as a creolised archive Marl ene Edwin argues that historic marginalisation which has barred Caribbean scholars from entering formal archival spaces has created an alternative discourse Consequently Caribbean writers have chosen the imagined landscapes of literature a new archival space for the Caribbean within which to document and preserve Caribbean cultural traditions Fiction allows for the safeguarding of traditions so how then should Caribbean literature be read The combination of a physical and a virtual archive questions the literary and linguistic interface that such a mingling entails in a preservation of Caribbean culture Edwin argues for an appreciation of orality as performance as well as the reading of texts as creolised archive

Re-temporalising the Cultural in India Ritwick Bhattacharjee, Srinjoyee Dutta, 2025-02-18 The book looks at the different ways the temporal features in the existential exigencies of the human located within the definitive boundaries of Indianness This has been done through an interrogation of different cultural artefacts that have been produced across the space and time of the Indian nation to look not only at representations of Time but how time as the temporal actually finds a play in them Each act of the cultural becomes in a sense a relation of the very action of time This way the volume wishes to think in a very pointed manner how this play of the temporal defines the Indian Being and allow narratives of different kinds and forms to become Each chapter in the volume seek to read the temporal action inside the contemporaneity of India s existence since for better or for worse the west has taken a hold in The global interaction that India has had to go through either as a British colony or a world post colony has allowed a meshing in of the western philosophical conceptualisations of time with and within the Indian ones The changes that it has wrought then become as important as those that have been rooted in a historical functioning of the nation
