Soo-Young Chin,Dora Yum Kim,1999 The first biography of an American born Korean woman Doing What Had to Be Done is on the surface the life story of Dora Yum Kim But telling more than one woman s story author Soo Young Chin offers more than an unusual glimpse at the shaping of a remarkable community activist In addition as she questions her subject introduces each chapter and reflects on how Dora s story relates to her own experience as a Korean American who immigrate to this country as an adult she carves around Dora s compelling story and courageous life story a story of her own and one of all Korean Americans Born in 1921 Dora as she tells Chin her story chronicles the shifting salience of gendered ethnic identity as she journeys through her life Traveling through time and place she moves from San Francisco s Chinatown where Koreans were a minority within a minority to suburban Dewey Boulevard where Dora and her family attempt to integrate into mainstream America and where she becomes a social worker in the California State Department of Employment As the Korean immigrant community grows in the late 1960s Dora becomes deeply involved in community service She remembers teaching English to senior citizens and preparing them for their naturalization exams finding jobs for the younger Koreans and founding a community center and meals program for seniors A detailed and inspiring lens through which to view Korean American history Dora s life journey echoes the changing spaces of the American social landscape And the grace and ease with which Dora just does what has to be done shows us the importance of everyday acts in making a difference Picnic at Hanging Rock Anna Backman Rogers,2022-10-06 Peter Weir s haunting and allusive Picnic at Hanging Rock 1975 set in 1900 tells the story of the mysterious disappearance of three schoolgirls and their teacher on a trip to a local geological formation The film is widely hailed as a classic of new Australian cinema seen as exemplary of a peculiarly Australian style of heritage filmmaking Anna Backman Rogers study considers Picnic from feminist psychoanalytic and decolonialising perspectives exploring its setting in a colonised Australian bushland in which the Aboriginal people are a spectral presence in a landscape stolen from them in pursuit of the white man s terra nullius She delves into the film s production history addressing director Weir s influences and preoccupations at the time of its making its reception and its lasting impact on visual culture more broadly Rogers addresses the film s treatment of the young schoolgirls and their teachers seemingly as embodiments of an archetype of the eternal feminine as objects of the male gaze and in terms of ideas about female hysteria as a protest against gender norms She argues that Picnic is in fact highly subversive a film that requires its viewers to read its seductive surfaces against the grain of the image in order to uncover its psychological depths
