Showing Off, Showing Up Laurie Frederik, Kimberley Bell Marra, Catherine A. Schuler, 2017-05-18 The interdisciplinary essays in Showing Off Showing Up examine acts of showing a particular species of performance that relies on competition and judgment active spectatorship embodied excess and exposure of core values and hidden truths Acts of showing highlight those dimensions of performance that can most manipulate spectators and consumers often through over the top heightening and skewing of presentation Many forms of showing and of heightened performance however operate more enigmatically and covertly while still profoundly affecting the social world even if our reactions to them are initially flippant or unconcerned because it's just a show Examining a wide range of examples from dog shows to competitive dancing to carnivals to striptease the essays illuminate how such events variously foster competition exaggerate a characteristic and reveal hidden truths There is as much to be learned about the power of showing through subtlety and underlying intentionality as through overt display The book's theoretical introduction and 12 essays by leading scholars reveal how diverse particularly efficacious genres of showing are theoretically connected and why they merit more concerted attention especially in the 21st century

Venetian-English English-Venetian Lodovico Pizzati,2007 Hard not to be florid about this book Devoured in snippets or read straight through It presents amazing experiences and skills Because Marc Charles Nicolas has a brilliantly delicate appreciation for the idea of a sentence in a poem the juxtapositions of segments in these pages appear essentially to construct entire topics for mediation Examined along and the dawns increase and multiply inspirations love feelings locations events hitherto isolated are now all hooks and eyes into each other And because Marc Charles gets his inspiration from the muse you feel the exquisiteness and beauty buried in shattered phrases about the universality of poetry As a poet he belongs to a life larger

Feathers,2013-09 It had been almost a year since Todd and I decided to go our separate ways It was a mutual decision to break up We had simply grown apart We still loved each other very much but we just couldn't seem to get past the differences that grew between us the last year that we were together It wasn't an easy decision for either one of us We did however remain friends through the break up We still talked to each other all the time and in the first few months after the breakup I found it hard to talk to him and not ask if he wanted to try and work things out only because I didn't want to be alone I was learning firsthand what the word lonely really meant There were a couple of other boyfriends before Todd but I knew that they weren't going to last They had simply been someone to hang out with and have fun with someone to go out to dinner with or a movie I had no intentions of getting too serious with them like I had with Todd I had always thought that Todd was the one for me my true and everlasting soul mate He made me feel special and he didn't obsess over me or what I did I felt that I could be myself a free spirit with him He was soft and loving toward me he was protective but not overbearing He made me feel safe I knew that I didn't have to worry about anyone hurting me Todd would stand back and let things happen till he sees that I needed his help Then he would step in and take over No one messed with me while I was with Todd
