Showman The Life Of David O Selznick:

Showman David Thomson,1992 A full scale biography of David O Selznick the legendary producer and maker of Gone with the Wind New York Magazine ,1992-11-09 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Charlie Chaplin and His Times Kenneth Schuyler Lynn,1997 With the psychologically penetrating insight that marked his award winning Hemingway Lynn probes beneath the mystique of the Little Tramp the first true worldwide celebrity whose unmatched comic genius masked a complex sometimes tragic life of photos Victor Fleming Michael Sragow,2013-12-10 This definitive biography chronicles the life and work of the legendary director of Gone With the Wind and The Wizard of Oz Victor Fleming was the most sought after director in Hollywood's golden age renowned for his work across an astounding range of genres from gritty westerns to screwball comedies romances boddy pictures and family entertainment Yet this chameleon like versatility has resulted in his relative obscurity today despite his having directed two of the most iconic movies of all time Fleming is best remembered for Gone With the Wind and The Wizard of Oz but he directed more than forty films including classics like Red Dust Test Pilot Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde and Captains Courageous Fleming created enduring screen personas for Clark Gable Spencer Tracy and Gary Cooper as well as for Ingrid Bergman Clara Bow and Norma Shearer who were among his many lovers In this definitive biography Michael Sragow restores the director to the pantheon of great American filmmakers correcting a major oversight in Hollywood history It is the dramatic story of a man at the center of the most exciting period in American filmmaking Made for Each Other Bronwyn Cosgrave,2007-01-01 Presents a behind the scenes look at the preparations and fashion selections of actresses nominated for an Academy Award from the early beginning of the award show in 1928 up to the present Cary Grant Scott Eyman,2020-10-20 Film historian and acclaimed New York Times bestselling biographer Scott Eyman has written the definitive captivating Associated Press biography of Hollywood legend Cary Grant one of the most accomplished and beloved actors of his generation who remains as popular as ever today Born Archibald Leach in 1904 he came to America as a teenaged acrobat to find fame and fortune but he was always haunted by his past His father was a feckless alcoholic and his mother was committed to an asylum when Archie was eleven years old He believed her to be dead until he was informed she was alive when he was thirty one years old Because of this experience Grant would have difficulty forming close attachments throughout his life He married five times and had numerous affairs Despite a remarkable degree of success Grant remained deeply conflicted about his past his present his basic identity and even the public that worshipped him in movies such as Gunga Din Notorious and North by Northwest Drawing on Grant's own papers extensive archival research and interviews with family and friends this is the definitive portrait of a movie immortal “Keep ‘Em in the East” Richard Koszarski, 2021-07-20 The year 1955 was a watershed one for New York’s film industry Elia Kazan’s On the Waterfront took home eight Oscars and more quietly Stanley Kubrick released the low budget classic Killer’s Kiss A wave of films that changed how American movies were made soon followed led by directors such as Sidney Lumet William Friedkin Francis Ford Coppola and Martin Scorsese Yet this resurgence could not have occurred without a deeply rooted tradition of local film production Richard Koszarski chronicles the compelling and often surprising origins of New York’s postwar film renaissance looking beyond such classics as Naked City Kiss of Death and Portrait of Jennie He examines the social cultural and economic forces that shaped New York filmmaking from city politics to union regulations and shows how decades of low budget independent production taught local filmmakers how to capture the city’s grit liveliness and allure He reveals the importance of race films all Black productions intended for segregated African American audiences that not only helped keep the film business afloat but also nurtured a core group of writers directors designers and technicians Detailed production histories of On the Waterfront and Killer’s Kiss films that appear here in a completely new light illustrate the distinctive characteristics of New York cinema Drawing on a vast array of research including studio libraries censorship records union archives and interviews with participants Keep Em in the East rewrites a crucial chapter in the history of American cinema The Brothers Mankiewicz Sydney Ladensohn Stern, 2019-10-02 Winner of the 2020 Peter C Rollins Book Award Longlisted for the 2020 Moving Image Book Award by the Kraszna Krausz Foundation Named a 2019 Richard Wall Memorial Award Finalist by the Theatre Library Association Herman J 1897 1953 and Joseph L Mankiewicz 1909 1993 wrote produced and directed over 150 pictures With Orson Welles Herman wrote the screenplay for Citizen Kane and shared the picture’s only Academy Award Joe earned the second pair of his four Oscars for writing and directing All About Eve which also won Best Picture Despite triumphs as diverse as Monkey Business and Cleopatra and Pride of the Yankees and Guys and Dolls the witty intellectual brothers spent their Hollywood years deeply discontented and yearning for what they did not have a career in New York theater Herman formerly an Algonquin Round Table habitu New York Times and New Yorker theater critic and playwright collaborator with George S Kaufman never reconciled himself to screenwriting He gambled away his prodigious earnings was fired from all the major studios and drank himself to death at fifty five While Herman drifted downward Joe rose to become a critical and financial success as a writer producer and director though his constant philandering with prominent stars like Joan Crawford Judy Garland and Gene Tierney distressed his emotionally fragile wife who eventually committed suicide He wrecked his own health using uppers and downers in order to direct Cleopatra by day and finish writing it at night only to be very publicly fired by Darryl F Zanuck an experience from which Joe never fully recovered For this award winning dual portrait of the Mankiewicz brothers Sydney Ladensohn Stern draws on interviews letters diaries and other documents still in private hands to provide a uniquely intimate behind the scenes chronicle of the lives loves work and relationship between these complex men Walter Wanger Matthew Bernstein,1994 A portrait of the trailblazing film producer whose career spanned five decades Bernstein packs an astonishing amount of solid film history into his lucid chronicle of Wangers whirlwind corporate liaisons A fully realized A line biopic of a fascinating life in the movies Tom Doherty Film Quarterly

Casting Might-Have-Beens Eila Mell,2015-01-24 Some acting careers are made by one great role and some fall into obscurity when one is declined Would Al Pacino be the star he is today if Robert Redford had accepted the role of Michael Corleone in The Godfather Imagine Tom Hanks rejecting Uma Thurman saying that she acted like someone in a high school play when she auditioned to play opposite him in The Bonfire of the Vanities Picture Danny Thomas as The Godfather or Marilyn Monroe as Cleopatra This reference work lists hundreds of such stories actors who didn t get cast or who turned down certain parts Each entry organized alphabetically by film title gives the character and actor cast a list of other actors considered for that role and the details of the casting decision Information is drawn from extensive research and interviews From About Last Night which John Belushi turned down at his brother s urging to Zulu in which Michael Caine was not cast because he didn t look Cockney enough this book lets you imagine how different your favorite films could have been Sam

Spiegel Natasha Fraser-Cavassoni,2003 This biography is the story of how a bankrupt refugee without a studio managed to produce several of the greatest films of all time The African Queen On the Waterfront The Bridge on the River Kwai and Lawrence of Arabia Film credits aside Sam Spiegel led a flamboyant and uncompromising life and the full story has never been told until now of photos Cary Grant, the Making of a Hollywood Legend Mark Glancy,2020 The first biography to be based on Grant s own personal papers Cary Grant The Making of a Hollywood Legend provides a definitive account of the professional and personal life of one of Hollywood s most unforgettable influential stars Frank & Ava John

Brady,2015-10-13 The love story of Frank Sinatra and Ava Gardner has been told piecemeal from one side or the other but has never been fully explored or explained until now The story begins in Hollywood s golden age when Ava ever insecure was emerging as a movie star But she fell in and out of love too easily Mickey Rooney married her as a conquest Artie Shaw treated her like a dumb brunette Neither marriage lasted a year Then after being courted by Howard Hughes and others along came Sinatra who was battling his own insecurities MGM fired him his record company dropped him and no one seemed to want him except Ava Their encounter led to an affair that broke all the rules of the prudish era Frank was married with children Their reputations could be ruined if this got out and it did as Frank left his family and pursued Ava across Europe while she taunted him They married but then came quarrels separations and reconciliations Finally there was a divorce but even afterwards their long hot messy glorious painful romance stretched right to the finish line Thoroughly researched and reported Frank Ava is not another storybook version of a Hollywood romance but a compelling drama of love and emotional war that left two iconic celebrities wounded for life Coming Back to a Theater Near You Brian

Hannan,2016-06-05 In the Silent Era film reissues were a battle between rival studios every Mary Pickford new release in 1914 was met with a Pickford re release For 50 years after the Silent Era reissues were a battle between the studios who considered old movies found money and cinema owners who often saw audiences reject former box office hits In the mid 1960s the return of The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 the second biggest reissue of all time altered industry perceptions and James Bond double features pushed the revival market to new heights In the digital age reissues have continued to confound the critics This is the untold hundred year story of how old movies saved new Hollywood Covering the booms and busts of a recycling business that became its own industry the author describes how the likes of Charlie Chaplin Humphrey Bogart and Alfred Hitchcock won over new generations of audiences and explores the lasting appeal of films like Napoleon 1927 Gone with the Wind 1939 The Rocky Horror Show 1975 and Blade Runner 1982 Without Lying Down Cari Beauchamp,1998-03-24 Draws on personal letters journals and interviews with family members and colleagues to capture the life and times of Frances Marion Spellbound by Beauty Donald Spoto,2008-10-28 The trouble today is that we don't torture women enough Alfred Hitchcock It is remarkable how infrequently over a period of more than fifty years Alfred Hitchcock spoke about the beautiful legendary and talented actresses he directed And when he did his remarks were mostly indifferent and often hostile But his leading ladies greatly enriched his films even as many of them achieved international stardom precisely because of their work for Hitchcock among the dozens of women were Madeleine Carroll Joan Fontaine Grace Kelly and Tippi Hedren Yet he maintained a stony insistent silence about the quality of their performances and their contributions to his art Spellbound by Beauty the final volume in master biographer Donald Spoto's Hitchcock trilogy that began with The Art of Alfred Hitchcock and continued with The Dark Side of Genius The Life of Alfred Hitchcock is the fascinating complex and finally tragic story of the great moviemaker and his female stars the unusual ideas of sex and romance that inform his films and the Hollywood dreams that often became nightmares Rich with fresh revelations based on previously undisclosed tapes new interviews private correspondence and personal papers made available only to the author this thoughtful compassionate yet explosive portrait details Hitchcock's outbursts of cruelty the shocking humor and the odd amalgam of adoration and contempt that time and again characterized Hitchcock's obsessive relationships with women and that also paradoxically fed his genius He insisted for example that Madeleine Carroll submit herself to painful physical demands during the making of The 39 Steps He harbored a poignantly unrequited love for Ingrid Bergman He meticulously and deliberately constructed Grace Kelly's image Finally he stalked harassed and abused Tippi Hedren His treatment of his daughter Pat was certainly unusual while his strange marriage to his sometime collaborator Alma Reville was a union that according to Hitchcock himself was forever chaste after one incident Spellbound by Beauty offers important insights into the life of a brilliant powerful eccentric and tortured artist and it corrects a major gap in movie history by paying tribute at last to those extraordinarily talented actresses who gave so much to his films Outrageous Kliph Nesteroff,2023-11-28 From the preeminent historian of comedy an expansive history of show business and the battles over culture that have echoed through the decades and changed the United States. Outrageous is required reading. An essential book of the social history of the United States with laughs. Steve Martin. There is a common belief that we live in unprecedented times that nobody got offended in the past that people are simply too sensitive today that racism and sexism were once widely accepted without objection. The truth is precisely the opposite. With every step of our cultural history, minorities have pushed back against racist portrayals, women have fought for respect, and people have sought to change the world of entertainment and beyond through a combination of censorship, advocacy, or protest. Likewise, opposing forces have sought to sway public opinion and shape culture through violence and political and economic pressure. Kliph Nesteroff, author of The Comedians and We Had a Little Real Estate Problem, presents a deep dive into the history of show business and illustrates both how our world has changed and how the fierce battlegrounds of today are reflected in our past. Outrageous is a crucial and timeless book filled with surprising details, remarkable anecdotes, and unforgettable characters, including figures we think we know such as Mae West, Roscoe Fatty Arbuckle, and Stan Laurel, who tried to bury his wife alive but still wasn't cancelled, and others readers may never have heard of.

The Classical Hollywood Reader Steve Neale, 2012-11-12. The Classical Hollywood Reader brings together essential readings to provide a history of Hollywood from the 1910s to the mid 1960s. Following on from a Prologue that discusses the aesthetic characteristics of Classical Hollywood films, Part 1 covers the period between the 1910s and the mid to late 1920s. It deals with the advent of feature length films in the US and the growing national and international dominance of the companies responsible for their production, distribution, and exhibition. In doing so, it also deals with film making practices, aspects of style, the changing roles played by women in an increasingly business-oriented environment, and the different audiences in the US for which Hollywood sought to cater. Part 2 covers the period between the coming of sound in the mid 1920s and the beginnings of the demise of the studio system in late 1940s. In doing so, it deals with the impact of sound on films and film production in the US and Europe, the subsequent impact of the Depression and World War II on the industry and its audiences, the growth of unions, and the roles played by production managers and film stars at the height of the studio era. Part 3 deals with aspects of style, censorship, technology, and film production. It includes articles on the Production Code, music, and sound cinematography, and the often neglected topic of animation. Part 4 covers the period between 1946 and 1966. It deals with the demise of the studio system and the advent of independent production. In an era of demographic and social change, it looks at the growth of drive-in theatres, the impact of television, the advent of new technologies, the increasing importance of international markets, the Hollywood blacklist, the rise in art house imports, and in overseas production, and the eventual demise of the Production Code. Designed especially for courses on Hollywood Cinema, the Reader includes a number of newly researched and written chapters and a series of introductions to each of its parts. It concludes with an epilogue, a list of resources for further research, and an extensive bibliography.

1939 Thomas S. Hischak, 2017-06-16. What do Babes in Arms Do? Beau Geste Gunga Din The Hunchback of Notre Dame Only Angels Have Wings and Young Mr Lincoln all have in common They are all classic films released in the same year but none of them received Academy Award nominations for best picture Why In that same year Hollywood produced Dark Victory Goodbye Mr Chips Mr Smith Goes to Washington and Ninotchka as well as two of the most beloved films of all time Gone with the Wind and The Wizard of Oz In 1939 Hollywood created an unprecedented number of great films a year that has yet to be surpassed in cinematic achievement In 1939 Hollywood s Greatest Year Thomas S Hischak looks at the most remarkable 365 days in film history Arranged chronologically from January 1 to December 31 1939 each entry covers one day and features major news events national and international as well as minor curiosities or news items that would prove to be more important in the future The activities on Broadway radio the music business literature and other arts are included as are noteworthy sporting events Most significantly this book provides a full description and commentary on the Hollywood movies that were released on that day All 510 feature films from all the Hollywood studios are included in the book along with notable shorts cartoons newsreels and foreign releases While others have looked at the movie highlights of this momentous year Hischak evaluates Hollywood s entire screen output of 1939 from B pictures and serial installments to the international blockbusters and every film in between 1939 Hollywood s Greatest Year is a captivating look at this phenomenon and will fascinate any film aficionado

Crooked, but Never Common Stuart Klawans, 2023-01-10 In a burst of creativity unmatched in Hollywood history Preston Sturges directed a string of all time classic comedies from 1939 through 1948 The Great McGinty The Lady Eve Sullivan s Travels The Palm Beach Story and The Miracle of Morgan s Creek among them all from screenplays he alone had written Cynical and sophisticated romantic and sexually frank crazily breakneck and endlessly witty his movies continue to influence filmmakers and remain popular to this day Yet despite this acclaim Sturges s achievements remain underappreciated he is too often categorized as a dialogue writer and plot engineer more than a director or belittled as an irresponsible spinner of laughs In Crooked but Never Common Stuart Klawans combines a critic s insight and a fan s enthusiasm to offer deeper ways to think about and enjoy Sturges s work He provides an in depth appreciation of all ten of the writer director s major movies presenting Sturges as a filmmaker whose work balanced slapstick and social critique American and European traditions and cynicism and affection for his characters Tugging at loose threads discontinuities puzzles and allusions that have dangled in plain sight and putting the films into a broader cultural context Klawans reveals structures motives and meanings underlying the uproarious pleasures of Sturges s movies In this new light Sturges emerges at last as one of the truly great filmmakers and funnier than ever
