SIDDHARTHA, New Edition Hermann Hesse,2015-02-06 In the shade of the house in the sunshine of the riverbank near the boats in the shade of the Sal wood forest in the shade of the fig tree is where Siddhartha grew up the handsome son of the Brahman the young falcon together with his friend Govinda son of a Brahman The sun tanned his light shoulders by the banks of the river when bathing performing the sacred ablutions the sacred offerings In the mango grove shade poured into his black eyes when playing as a boy when his mother sang when the sacred offerings were made when his father the scholar taught him when the wise men talked For a long time Siddhartha had been partaking in the discussions of the wise men practising debate with Govinda practising with Govinda the art of reflection the service of meditation He already knew how to speak the Om silently the word of words to speak it silently into himself while inhaling to speak it silently out of himself while exhaling with all the concentration of his soul the forehead surrounded by the glow of the clear thinking spirit He already knew to feel Atman in the depths of his being indestructible one with the universe Joy leapt in his father s heart for his son who was quick to learn thirsty for knowledge he saw him growing up to become great wise man and priest a prince among the Brahmans Bliss leapt in his mother s breast when she saw him when she saw him walking when she saw him sit down and get up Siddhartha strong handsome he who was walking on slender legs greeting her with perfect respect Love touched the hearts of the Brahmans young daughters when Siddhartha walked through the lanes of the town with the luminous forehead with the eye of a king with his slim hips But more than all the others he was loved by Govinda his friend the son of a Brahman He loved Siddhartha s eye and sweet voice he loved his walk and the perfect decency of his movements he loved everything Siddhartha did and said and what he loved most was his spirit his transcendent fiery thoughts his ardent will his high calling Govinda knew he would not become a common Brahman not a lazy official in charge of offerings not a greedy merchant with magic spells not a vain vacuous speaker not a mean deceitful priest and also not a decent stupid sheep in the herd of the many No and he Govinda as well did not want to become one of those not one of those tens of thousands of Brahmans He wanted to follow Siddhartha the beloved the splendid And in days to come when Siddhartha would become a god when he would join the glorious then Govinda wanted to follow him as his friend his companion his servant his spear carrier his shadow Siddhartha was thus loved by everyone He was a source of joy for everybody he was a delight for them all But he Siddhartha was not a source of joy for himself he found no delight in himself Walking the rosy paths of the fig tree garden sitting in the bluish shade of the grove of contemplation washing his limbs daily in the bath of repentance sacrificing in the dim shade of the mango forest his gestures of perfect decency everyone s love and joy he still lacked all joy in his heart Dreams and restless thoughts came into his mind flowing from the water of the river sparkling from the stars of the night melting from the beams of the sun dreams came to him and a restlessness of the soul fuming from the sacrifices breathing forth from the verses of the Rig Veda being infused into him drop by drop from the teachings of the old Brahmins Siddhartha had started to nurse discontent in himself he had started to feel that the love of his father and the love of his mother and also the love of his friend Govinda would not bring him joy for ever and ever would not nurse him feed him satisfy him
