Reading Greek Australian Literature through the Paramythi Anna Dimitriou, 2024-06-04 This is a comparative textual analysis of a body of relatively neglected works by Greek Australian writers Dimitris Tsaloumas Antigone Kefala Stylianos Charkianakis Dean Kalimnios Christos Tsiolkas Fotini Epanomitis and Helen Koukoutsis The focus is on reading their texts as a bridge between multiculturalism and world literature given each writer identifies in various ways with peripheral cosmopolitanism as they merge high brow literary forms with the quotidian paramythi or the storytelling oral tradition The different ways they do this registers the writers ambivalent relationship with their origins through their transculturally mediated expression Discovering new possibilities in literary texts which have oral traces becomes a productive way to look at the question of translatability as posed by scholars of multiculturalism and world literature such as Sneja Gunew Emily Apter and Pheng Cheah      Imagining Global Amsterdam Marco de Waard, 2012-01-01 Imagining Global Amsterdam gaat over het beeld van Amsterdam in film literatuur visuele kunst en in het moderne stedelijke discours in het bijzonder in de context van de mondialisering De essays gaan onder andere dieper in op Amsterdam als een lieu de mmoire van de vroeg moderne wereldhandel Wat betekent deze herinnering in de hedendaagse cultuur Waarom verwijzen zo veel contemporaine films en romans naar dit verleden terug Ook het internationale imago van Amsterdam als een multicultureel en ultra tolerant %x global village %x komt aan bod Waarom is dit beeld zo persistent en hoe heeft het zich in de loop van de laatste decennia ontwikkeld Tot slot wordt ingegaan op de vraag hoe mondialiseringsprocessen ingrijpen in de stadscultuur zoals in het prostitutiegebied op de Wallen en via de erfgoedindustrie Hoe manifesteert de mondialisering zich in de stad en welke rol speelt beeldvorming daarbij Deze bundel vormt een rijk geschakeerd onderzoek naar de relatie tussen Amsterdam mondialisering en stedelijke beeldvorming Marco de Waard is als docent literatuurwetenschap verbonden aan het Amsterdam University College      Japanese Cultural Nationalism Roy Starrs, 2021-10-01 Based on the premise that

Caton, 2007-12-25 Using romantic theories Caton analyzes America's contemporary novel Organized through the two sections of Theory and Practice Reading American Novels and Multicultural Aesthetics begins with a study of aesthetic form only to have it reveal the content of politics and history This presentation immediately offers a unified platform for an interchange between multiple cultural and aesthetic positions Romantic theory provides for an integrated examination of diversity one that metaphorically fosters a solid inclusive and democratic legitimacy for intercultural communication This politically astute cosmopolitan appreciation will generate an intriguing cross over audience from ethnic studies to American studies and from literary studies to romantic studies this book will interest a range of readers

Reading for Evidence and Interpreting Visualizations in Mathematics and Science Education Stephen P. Norris, 2012-09-17 CRYSTAL Alberta was established to research ways to improve students understanding and reasoning in science and mathematics To accomplish this goal faculty members in Education Science and Engineering as well as school teachers joined forces to produce a resource bank of innovative and tested instructional materials that are transforming teaching in the K 12 classroom Many of the instructional materials cross traditional disciplinary boundaries and explore contemporary topics such as global climate change and the spread of the West Nile virus Combined with an emphasis on the use of visualizations the instructional materials improve students engagement with science and mathematics Participation in the CRYSTAL Alberta project has changed the way I think about the connection between what I do as a researcher and what I do as a teacher I have learned how to better translate scientific knowledge into language and activities appropriate for students thereby transforming my own teaching I also have learned to make better connections between what students are learning and what is happening in their lives and the world thereby increasing students interest in the subject and enriching their learning experience

Reading Practices, Postcolonial Literature, and Cultural Mediation in the Classroom Ingrid Johnston, Jyoti Mangat, 2012-03-24 In this book Johnston and Mangat consider ways in which particular postcolonial and multicultural literary texts are able to provide a space of cultural mediation for readers from various backgrounds The studies described in the five chapters of the book explore the spaces of convergence of identity culture and literature with students and teachers in high school contexts and undergraduates in university settings In each study readers are responding to texts that are culturally distant from their own literary and experiential histories An objective of each study was to consider the nature of the cultural locations of the reader and the text and the interstitial spaces between these locations The book interrogates readers attempts to negotiate cultural difference in literary contexts and questions how this negotiation requires reading practices traditionally ignored in North American classrooms The book will offer educators at the secondary and post secondary levels rich material to draw upon for a rethinking of the school curriculum and will be of interest to scholars of postcolonial and literary studies      Multicultural Issues in Literacy Research and Practice Arlette Ingram Willis, Georgia Earnest Garcia, Rosalinda B. Barrera, Violet J. Harris, 2014-04-04 This volume brings together researchers and participants from diverse groups reflecting the different ways in which the field of multicultural literacies has been interpreted A common theme across the chapters is attention to the ways in which elements of difference race ethnicity gender class and language create dynamic tensions that influence students literacy experiences and achievement The hope of the editors is that readers will build on the experiences and findings presented so that the field of multicultural literacies will have a greater impact of literacy research policy and practice      Reading, Writing, and Justice James W. Fraser, 1997-07-24 Fraser argues that advocates of the public schools must recapture and redefine democracy so that it becomes both the purpose of public education and the model on which schools are structured Defending an inclusive understanding of democracy in which every citizen s contribution is essential to the health of the whole Fraser responds to mean spirited attacks on multicultural education on school funding and on progressive education itself Finally he explores the democratic and antidemocratic potential in increased use of computers in schools and in the reform of teacher education This is a book for teachers parents and other concerned citizens who care about public education who want schools to be democratic in the best sense and who seek ammunition for defending schools and for placing school issues in the larger context of the long struggle for a more just and humane society
