All We Know Lisa Cohen, 2024-06-04 Esther Murphy was a brilliant New York intellectual who dazzled friends and strangers with an unstoppable flow of conversation But she never finished the books she was contracted to write a painful failure and yet a kind of achievement The quintessential fan Mercedes de Acosta had intimate friendships with the legendary actresses and dancers of the twentieth century Her ephemeral legacy lies in the thousands of objects she collected to preserve the memory of those performers and to honor the feelings they inspired An icon of haute couture and a fashion editor of British Vogue Madge Garland held bracing views on dress that drew on her feminism her ideas about modernity and her love of women Existing both vividly and invisibly at the center of cultural life she like Murphy and de Acosta is now almost completely forgotten In All We Know Lisa Cohen describes these women s glamorous choices complicated failures and controversial personal lives with lyricism and empathy At once a series of intimate portraits and a startling investigation into style celebrity sexuality and the genre of biography itself All We Know explores a hidden history of modernism and pays tribute to three compelling lives All We Know is one of Publishers Weekly s Top 10 Best Books of 2012      Creative Writing Jane Yeh,2013-12-19 Creative Writing is a complete writing course that will jump start your writing and guide you through your first steps towards publication Suitable for use by students tutors writers groups or writers working alone this book offers a practical and inspiring section on the creative process showing you how to stimulate your creativity and use your memory and experience in inventive ways in depth coverage of the most popular forms of writing in extended sections on fiction poetry and life writing including biography and autobiography giving you practice in all three forms so that you might discover and develop your particular strengths a sensible up to date guide to going public to help you to edit your work to a professional standard and to identify and approach suitable publishers a distinctive collection of exciting exercises spread throughout the workbook to spark your imagination and increase your technical flexibility and control a substantial array of illuminating readings bringing together extracts from contemporary and classic writings in order to demonstrate a range of techniques that you can use or adapt in your own work Creative Writing A Workbook with Readings presents a unique opportunity to benefit from the advice and experience of a team of published authors who have also taught successful writing courses at a wide range of institutions helping large numbers of new writers to develop their talents as well as their abilities to evaluate and polish their work to professional standards These institutions include Lancaster University and the University of East Anglia renowned as consistent producers of published writers      Metabiography Caitríona Ní Dhúill,2020-03-09 This book explores the contradictions of biography It charts shifting approaches to the writing and reading of biographies from post hagiographical attitudes of the Enlightenment heroic biographies of Romanticism and irreverent modernist portraits through to contemporary experiments in politically committed and hybrid forms of life writing The book shows how biographical texts in fact destabilise the models of historical visibility cultural prominence and narrative coherence that the genre itself seems to uphold Addressing the fraught relationships between genre and gender private and public image and text life and narrative that play out in the modern biographical tradition Metabiography suggests new possibilities for reading writing and thinking about this enduringly popular genre      Encyclopedia of Women Social Reformers Helen Rappaport,2001-12-06 The first comprehensive guide to women activists from every part of the world illuminating the broad range of women's struggles to reform society from the 18th century to the present. Despite being marginalized, disenfranchised, impoverished and oppressed, women have always stepped forward in disproportionate numbers to lead movements for social change. This two-volume encyclopedia documents the visions, struggles and lives of women who have changed the world. This encyclopedia celebrates the lives and achievements of nearly 300 women from around the globe, women who have bravely insisted that the way things are is not the way they have to be. Nadeshda Krupskaya, the wife of Lenin, spearheaded the drive against illiteracy in post-revolutionary Russia. American Dorothy Day founded the Catholic worker movement. Begum Rokeya Hossain organized a girls' school in Calcutta in 1911. Rachel Carson launched the modern environmental movement with her book Silent Spring. The stories of these women and the hundreds of others collected here will restore missing pages to our history and inspire a new generation of women to change the world.

Philip Larkin: Art and Self M. Rowe, 2011-02-08 Exploring the complex relationship between aesthetic experience and personal identity in Larkin's work, this book gives close and original readings of three major poems: Home, Living and Aubade, and two neglected but important themes: Larkin and the supernatural, Larkin and Flaubert.

The Life of the Author: Nathaniel Hawthorne Dale Salwak, 2022-11-15 The first major Hawthorne biography to be published in two decades featuring original scholarship on both unpublished and published sources. The Life of the Author: Nathaniel Hawthorne presents a rich and nuanced portrait of one of America's greatest writers, exploring the thoughts and ideas of a man whose profound insights about the human condition continue to resonate in the modern day. Accessible to those with little knowledge of Hawthorne, this unique volume uses a new biographical approach based on exhaustive primary research that provides readers with a better understanding of the artist and his work. Author Dale Salwak challenges the presumption that Hawthorne was a reclusive, eccentric and alienated man whose relevance to modern times is diminishing. Drawing from his forty-five years' experience reading, studying and teaching Hawthorne, the author reveals a more approachable Hawthorne. In depth and reflective chapters explore topics such as the circumstances that led Hawthorne to become a writer, the influence of Sophia Hawthorne on her husband's work, the theory of the unfulfilled homoerotic relationship between Hawthorne and Herman Melville, and more. Offers a fresh reading of Hawthorne's life and work from birth to death. Provides new perspectives on Hawthorne and stories surrounding his work. Draws from a wide variety of sources including novels, tales, children's books, notebooks and personal letters to and from Hawthorne. Suggests new strategies for teaching Hawthorne to today's students. Includes a detailed index and comprehensive introductory and concluding chapters highlighting Hawthorne's special contributions to American literature. The Life of the Author: Nathaniel Hawthorne is essential reading for scholars, lecturers and college students taking courses including Literary History, American Literature and History of the Novel, as well as anyone interested in biography, literature and creativity. Dale Salwak has assimilated vast amounts of scholarship on Hawthorne and his circle, and he's crafted a highly readable and brilliant biography The lines in Hawthorne's astonishing life have never been more clearly drawn A wonderful book highly recommend Jay Parini author of Robert Frost A Life and Borges and Me      An American Family Reid Buckley, 2008-05-13 Written by one of his children this book offers an unprecedented insider's view of oilman Will Buckley and his wife and chronicles how the Buckley family have become the mainstays of American conservatism in politics and culture b w photos

Postmortem Postmodernists Laura E. Savu, 2009 This book scrutinizes the genre of the author as character with respect to three broad issues authorship the posthumous and cultural revisionism that arise in reading such works from a contemporary perspective Late twentieth century fiction postmodernizes romantic and modern authors not only to understand them better but also to understand itself in relation to a past literary tradition aesthetic paradigms cultural formations etc that has not really passed Penelope Fitzgerald's The Blue Flower Peter Ackroyd's The Last Testament of Oscar Wilde and Chatterton Peter Carey's Jack Maggs Michael Cunningham's The Hours Colm Toibin's The Master and Geoff Dyer's Out of Sheer Rage Wrestling with D H Lawrence the mighty dead Harold Bloom are brought back to life reanimated and bodied forth in new textual bodies that project a post modern understanding of the author as a historically and culturally contingent subjectivity constructed along the lines of gender sexual orientation class and nationality Laura E Savu is a lecturer at the University of Bucharest      Staging Memory and Materiality in Eighteenth-Century Theatrical

Biography Amanda Weldy Boyd, 2017-12-15 Staging Memory and Materiality in Eighteenth Century Theatrical Biography examines theatrical biography as a nascent genre in eighteenth century England This study specifically focuses on Thomas Davies 1780 memoir of David Garrick as the first moment of mastery in the genre's history the three way war for the right to tell Charles Macklin's story at the turn of the century and James Boaden's theatrical biography spree in the 1820s and 1830s including the lives of John Philip Kemble Sarah Siddons Dorothy Jordan and Elizabeth Inchbald This project investigates the extent to which biographers envisioned themselves as artists inheriting the anxiety of impermanence and correlating fear of competition that plagued their thespian subjects It traces a suggestive but not determinative outline of generic development noting the shifting generic features that emerge in context of a given work's predecessors Drawing heavily on primary sources then contemporary reviews and archival material in the form of extra illustrated or scrapbooked editions of the biographies this text is invested in the ways that the increasing emphasis on materiality was designed to consolidate but often challenged the biographer's authority This turn to materiality also authorized readerly participation allowing readers to co author biographies through the use of material insertions asserting their own presence in the texts about beloved thespians      Bookforum ,1998
