Shadows in the Water Series: Books 1 and 2 Kory M. Shrum, 312 Things To Do with a Math Journal Denise Gaskins, 2022-03-14. Are you looking for new ways to help your children learn math? In a math journal, children explore their own ideas about numbers, shapes, and patterns through drawing or writing in response to a question. Journaling encourages students to develop a rich mathematical mindset. They begin to see connections and make sense of math concepts. They grow confident in their ability to think through new ideas. All they need is a piece of paper, a pencil, and a good prompt to launch their mathematical journey. 312 Things To Do with a Math Journal includes number play, prompts, games, math art, story problems, mini essays, geometry investigations, brainteasers, number patterns, research projects, and much more. These activities work at any grade level and most can be enjoyed more than once. It doesn't matter whether your students are homeschooled or in a classroom, distance learning or in person. Everyone can enjoy the experience of playing around with math. Early Reviews from My Journaling Beta Testers: We really enjoyed these. I remember doing pages and pages of dull equations with no creativity or puzzle thinking, but now as a homeschool mom, I'm actually enjoying math for the first time. My daughter's math skills have skyrocketed and she always asks to start homeschool with math Thank you for a great intro to Playful Math All of the kids were excited about their journals My oldest kept going without prompting and did several more pages on his own We had a lot of fun doing your math prompts We had never done any math journaling before but we will certainly integrate this into our weekly routine from now on Pick up a copy of 312 Things To Do with a Math Journal and begin your family's math journaling adventure today

View from the Back Pew Raquel Eldridge, Sha Murdock-Lognion, 2011-05-19 Malone Harris has wanted to leave The Shelter from the Storm Church in Christ for a long time but even more so after she and her best friend Alanna had a falling out regarding Alanna's affair with their pastor As her love for the place begins to diminish she changes her point of view by sitting in the back pew where she does more people watching than lesson learning In silent observation she discovers there is more going on than praise and worship amongst the congregation of the Houston area mega church The young and trendy congregation flock into the sanctuary to see and be seen but it's what the members aren't seeing that is putting their very souls in jeopardy Alanna Crawford makes a hasty retreat from The Shelter after it becomes painfully obvious she can't count on Pastor Wilson McKinney to leave his wife and make her his First Lady like he'd been promising he would for years In search of a new church

a new man and hopefully the new title of First Lady she sets her sights on the handsome new pastor of a newly emerging church in town Her feminine wiles are no match for the nave preacher and soon she'll be well on her way to getting everything she wants but will the freaky skeletons in her closet cause her to lose it all For Malone and Alanna what started as a journey for peace and a spiritual relationship with God ended as a journey through a sinners paradise when they find out they were surrounded by schemers liars and hypocrites and that they were being led by the biggest Charlatan of them all Will they ever find whatever it was they were looking for that fateful day years ago when they joined hands and joined ranks with the worldly masses at The Shelter from the Storm Church in Christ
