Sideways in Neverland William Etling, 2005-07 The Neverland Valley Welcome sign depicts a little boy bending over to talk to a troll Peter Pan was playing at the packed eighty seat 7 000 square foot theatre Popcorn and drinks were dished up gratis to the mobs at the concession stand On screen Captain Hook had ten wide eyed children bound and gagged about to be fed to the crocodile Nearby amid the rides a band was taking a break Beat It thumped loudly from hidden speakers A circus like tent houses the bumper cars where jubilant lads faces flushed with excitement rammed each other with enthusiasm I freely admitted there was no doubt that allegations of child molestation had hurt Jackson in this community Where wouldn't such charges resonate Sodom and Gomorrah What do Michael Jackson's neighbors really think of him or the other famous residents of the rural California wine country made famous by Sideways Just two hours from Los Angeles the honorable Old West lives on with cowboys and Indians a Danish village stars surfers Michael Jackson and more William Etling has the soul of an explorer and the wit of a jester Lucky for us he also has a pen Michelle Schlegel The collected Santa Ynez Notebook of a Santa Barbara News Press writer Etling's delightful bi weekly editorial dishes on all things Santa Ynez Valley an area of tiny towns near Santa Barbara Calif This compilation of almost three years of work covers a wide variety of topics including community events regional history locals both famous Michael Jackson anyone and not so and the author's personal life The column's buoyant tone and warm voice make for a charming read I still love the beach If I had a tail I'd wag it when I'm near the water As a teenager Etling moved to the area with his family and it's clear that he has adored the area ever since More than just a love letter to his hometown however Sideways provides affecting reading for all Etling is all over the board from what happens when a small town kid goes to war to the peril of navigating a highway crossed frequently by deer to a Hollywood invasion when suddenly everyone's an extra on the set of Seabiscuit Fruitful subject matter a likable host and evocative writing make for an enjoyable guide to this nook of California Kirkus Discoveries Blood From a Stone Adam S. McHugh, 2022-10-11 This is the story of how wine brought me back from the dead Join Adam McHugh as he ends one career and discovers a new life in wine among the grapevines of the Santa Ynez Valley of California This memoir takes you on Adam's journey toward new life and healing through the good gifts of wine friendship and a sense of place The Other Air Force Matt Sienkiewicz, 2016-10 As it seeks to win the hearts and minds of citizens in the Muslim world the United States has poured millions of dollars into local television and radio programming hoping to generate pro American currents on Middle Eastern airwaves However as this fascinating new book shows the Middle Eastern media producers who rely on these funds are hardly puppets on an American string but instead contribute their own political and creative agendas while working within U S restrictions The Other Air Force gives readers a unique inside look at television and radio production in Afghanistan and the Palestinian territories from the isolated villages of the Afghan Panjshir Valley to the congested streets of Ramallah Communications scholar Matt Sienkiewicz explores how the U S takes a soft psy approach to its media efforts combining soft methods of encouraging entertainment programming such as adaptations of The Voice and The Apprentice with more militaristic psy ops approaches to information control Drawing from years of field research and interviews with everyone from millionaire executives to underpaid but ever resourceful cameramen Sienkiewicz considers the perspectives of the Afghan and Palestinian media workers trying to forge viable broadcasting businesses without straying outside American set boundaries for acceptable content As it carefully examines the interplay of U S military and economic might with the capacity for local ingenuity and resistance the book also analyzes the intriguingly complex programming that emerges from this tension Combining eyewitness reportage with cutting edge scholarship The Other Air Force reveals the remarkable creative output that can emerge even from the world s tensest conflict zones Film Review ,2005 People's Republic of Neverland Robb Johnson,2020-10-01 There once was a time when teachers and communities were able to exercise democratic control over their schools Now that power has been taken away both centralised and privatised under the guise of reform There is a forgotten history of the time before reform and within it a bright horizon is visible reachable only if educators and society at large can learn the lessons of the past Robb Johnson entered the classroom as a new teacher in the 1980s and has spent a lifetime alongside his pupils encouraging both creativity and a healthy distrust of authority This book is both memoir and polemic a celebration of children s innate desire to learn share cooperate and play as well as a critique of bureaucratic interference Johnson details how we ended up with the contemporary mass education systems and why they continually fail to give children what they need Combining practical experience as a teacher with detailed pedagogical knowledge and a characteristic playful style Johnson is both court chronicler and jester imparting information and creatively admonishing the self important figureheads of the reform agenda This book considers how schools and education relate to the wider society in which they are located and how they relate to the particular needs and abilities of the people who experience them It shows that schools and education are contested spaces that need to be reclaimed from the state and turned into places where people can grow not up not old but as individuals It offers alternative ways of running classrooms schools and perhaps even society New York ,2005 Your Movie Sucks Roger Ebert,2007-03-01 A collection of some of the Pulitzer Prize winning film critic s most scathing reviews from Alex Emma to the remake of Yours Mine and Ours From Roger s review of Deuce Bigalow European Gigolo 0 stars The movie created a spot of controversy in February 2005 According to a story by Larry Carroll of MTV News Rob Schneider took offense when Patrick Goldstein of the Los Angeles Times listed this year s Best Picture nominees and wrote that they were ignored unloved and turned down flat by most of the same studios that bankroll hundreds of sequels including a follow up to Deuce Bigalow Male Gigolo a film that was sadly overlooked at Oscar time because apparently nobody had the foresight to invent a category for Best Running Penis Joke Delivered by a Third Rate Comic Schneider retaliated by attacking Goldstein in full page ads in Daily Variety and the Hollywood Reporter In an open letter to Goldstein Schneider wrote Well Mr Goldstein I decided to do some research to find
