

"Blind" / "The Blind Seer of Ambon" / "On His Blindness"

Fatima Naoos / W.S. Merwin / Jorge Luis Borges

Analogy

An analogy is a way of comparing two things to explain something complex or unfamiliar by likening it to something more familiar. It's like saying, "This is similar to that," to help people understand the concept better. For example, explaining how a cell works by comparing it to a factory, where different parts of the cell are like different parts of the factory.

Directions: Answer the following questions about analogies found in the poems using complete sentences.

1. In "Blind," the speaker talks about a "dimmed memory" in certain parts of the poem. What memory is this, and how does the speaker use this idea to think about being blind?
2. In the beginning of "The Blind Seer of Ambon," the speaker talks about coming from a "different language." Trying to "find words" explains the speaker mean by this "different language"? And how does this poem help us understand what it's like to be blind?
3. In "On His Blindness," the speaker talks about a "bright mist" that "surrounds me all the time, making everything seem the same without color or shape." Does the speaker mean by this "bright mist," and why does he say it's "bright" if everything look the same without any color or shape?

Word Choice

Sensory details are words and descriptions that help you experience things more fully—like what you can see, hear, smell, taste, or feel. They make writing more vivid by painting a picture in your mind. For example, instead of just saying "the flower," sensory details might describe the flower as "fragrant" or "soft with a sweet fragrance."

Imagery involves using sensory details in words and phrases to create a picture in the mind of the reader.

Juxtaposition means putting two different things next to each other to show how they're different or similar. One way to do this is by using an oxymoron, which is when you put two words together that mean opposite things of each other. For instance, "open secret" is an oxymoron because a secret is something that is both hidden and known at the same time.

Directions: Underline the sensory details in the following excerpts from the poems that are juxtaposed. Then, what ideas are being juxtaposed.

1. "When she danced with Lania/On the hillside,/he told her that the soul can travel with the eye/ freed from the retina."
2. "I may have seemed somewhat strangulating in my own time for living things/with no value that we know/languages wash over them one wave at a time."
3. "The elemental vast night and the day/heaving with people have become that fog/of constant, tentative light that does not fog,/and lies in wait at dawn."

Blindness and Writing Heather Tilley, 2018 In this innovative and important study Heather Tilley examines the huge shifts that took place in the experience and conceptualisation of blindness during the nineteenth century and demonstrates how new writing technologies for blind people had transformative effects on literary culture Considering the ways in which visually impaired people used textual means to shape their own identities the book argues that blindness was also a significant trope through which writers reflected on the act of crafting literary form Supported by an illuminating range of archival material including unpublished letters from Wordsworth's circle early ophthalmologic texts embossed books and autobiographies this is a rich account of blind people's experience and reveals the close and often surprising personal engagement that canonical writers had with visual impairment Drawing on the insights of disability studies and cultural phenomenology Tilley highlights the importance of attending to embodied experience in the production and consumption of texts years experience of teaching poetry in primary and secondary schools Robert Hull presents a detailed account of the process of writing poetry in the classroom The reader is invited almost in confidence to be witness to a skilled teacher s planning recognition and definition of children s emergent understanding and expertise The author adopts a non behaviourist model which stresses difficulty and uncertainty rejecting a simplistic assumption of linear progression predictability of outcome and short term results The many examples of poems written by the children demonstrate in a very vivid and impressive way the value of this approach All teachers not just of poetry will find this a fascinating and informed study and an inspiration for their own work in the classroom
