Luckily Derek is so enthralled by going the rounds of the courts and Inns of Court with a British solicitor friend he feels guilty for leaving her on her own to go sightseeing. She manages to defeat the criminals without tipping off Derek and enjoy three whole days of honeymoon. T Price admires her ability to meet all her objectives. Consumer Culture Theory in Asia Yuko Minowa, Russell Belk, 2021-12-27

We live in times of increasing world uncertainty. Consumer culture in Asia has embodied such precariousness with their unprecedented states of both prosperity and vulnerability. Works in this volume examine the consumer cultures that exist in today's precarious Asia. They do this through culturally oriented critical consumer research. How deeply has the consumer precariousness in Asia been intertwined with the sociohistorical patterning of consumption including class, gender and other social categories? How do these problematics affect consumers' identity projects, consumer rituals and marketplace cultures? How is consumer precariousness aggravated by the governmentality of the superpower? How does the changing landscape of inter-Asian and global popular culture impact consumer culture in these nations? Together the authors in this volume attempt to answer these questions through consumer research within the paradigm known as consumer culture theory (CCT). Since most CCT inquiry has been in Western contexts this volume augments the existing knowledge. It presents the most current critical historical and material consumer studies focused on Asia. This volume will be of interest to seasoned CCT researchers and academics for anyone new to CCT and for postgraduate students interested in CCT or writing a consumer culture related thesis. Racial Asymmetries Stephen Hong Sohn, 2014-01-17
