Psychiatry Jessica Wright, 2024-12-12 Is psychiatry a distinctively modern approach to mental difference and distress or is it a continuation of ancient Greek ideas in the realm not only of medicine consider melancholia but also of philosophy source of the idea of therapeutics of the soul and tragic drama inspiration for among other concepts the Oedipus complex This volume examines how psychiatry psychoanalysis and psychotherapy have been shaped by classical antiquity and ideas about antiquity and it explores the stories told about what this relationship between the psy disciplines and ancient Greece might mean Taking as a starting point the debate about what exactly mental illnesses might be Jessica Wright explores how contemporary tensions and debates reflect efforts to smooth over inconsistencies and discontinuities between ancient and modern ideas about illnesses affecting the mind The volume goes on to investigate key concepts that bridge classical antiquity and modern psychiatry showing how these ideas have been adapted and repurposed for new circumstances analysing how they are deployed to negotiate the legitimacy of current theories and demonstrating how the roles they play in psychiatry reshape our understandings of antiquity itself What emerges above all is how the process of examining the connections between modern psychiatry and classical antiquity whether historical constructed or imagined can illuminate modern ideas about mental illness approaches to treating it and its place in contemporary society and culture      Madness in Experience and History Hannah Lyn Venable, 2021-11-01 Madness in Experience and History brings together experience and history to show their impact on madness or mental illness Drawing on the writings of two twentieth century French philosophers Maurice Merleau Ponty and Michel Foucault the author pairs a phenomenological approach with an archaeological approach to present a new perspective on mental illness as an experience that arises out of common behavioral patterns and shared historical structures Many today feel frustrated with the medical model because of its deficiencies in explaining mental illness In response the author argues that we must integrate human experiences of mental disorders with the history of mental disorders to have a full account of mental health and to make possible a more holistic care Scholars in the humanities and mental health practitioners will appreciate how such an analysis not only offers a greater understanding of mental health but also a fresh take on discovering value in diverse human experiences      Histories and Narratives of Music Analysis Milena Medić, Miloš Zatkalik, 2013-11-26 This volume offers a cross section of current directions in the broad field of music analysis as practiced by a transnational community of scholars Music analysis is presented as a vibrant multi faceted field of research which constantly re examines its own postulates while also establishing dialogues with a large number of other disciplines      The Beauty of Baudelaire Roger Pearson, 2021-09-16 This book offers the first comprehensive close reading in any language of the complete works of Charles Baudelaire 1821 1867 Taking full account of his critical writings on literature and the fine arts it provides fresh readings of Les Fleurs du Mal and Le Spleen de Paris It situates these works within the context of nineteenth century French literature and culture and reassesses Baudelaire's reputation as the father of modern poetry Whereas he is traditionally considered to have rejected the public role of the writer as moralist educator and political leader and to have dedicated himself instead to the exclusive pursuit of beauty in art this book contends not only that he rejected Art for Art's sake but that he saw in beauty defined not as an inherent quality but as an effect of harmony and rich conjecture an alternative ethos with which to resist the tyrannies of ideology and conformism Contrarian in his thinking and provocatively innovative in his poetic practice Baudelaire fell foul of the law when six poems in Les Fleurs du Mal 1857 were banned for obscenity In the second edition 1861 substantially recast and enlarged the poet as alternative lawgiver made plainer still his resistance to the orthodoxies of his day In a series of major critical articles he proclaimed the government of the imagination while from 1855 until his death he developed an alternative literary form the prose poem a thing of beauty and an invitation to imagine the world afresh to make our own rules

The Loss of Sadness Allan V. Horwitz, Jerome C. Wakefield, 2007-06-18 Publisher Description

The Unmaking of Home in Contemporary Art Claudette Lauzon, 2017-04-24 In a world where the notion of home is more traumatizing than it is comforting artists are using this literal and figurative space to reframe human responses to trauma Building on the scholarship of key art historians and theorists such as Judith Butler and Mieke Bal Claudette Lauzon embarks upon a transnational analysis of contemporary artists who challenge the assumption that home is a stable site of belonging Lauzon's boundary breaking discussion of artists including Krzysztof Wodiczko Santiago Sierra Doris Salcedo and Yto Barrada posits that contemporary art offers a unique set of responses to questions of home and belonging in an increasingly unwelcoming world From the legacies of Colombia's dirty war to migrant North African workers crossing the Mediterranean The Unmaking of Home in Contemporary Art bears witness to the suffering of others whose overriding notion of home reveals the universality of human vulnerability and the limits of empathy

Ethics and Time in the Philosophy of History Natan Elgabsi, Bennett Gilbert, 2023-01-12 This interdisciplinary volume connects the philosophy of history to moral philosophy with a unique focus on time Taking in a range of intellectual traditions cultural and geographical contexts the volume provides a rich tapestry of approaches to time morality culture and history By extending the philosophical discussion on the ethical importance of temporality the editors disentangle some of the disciplinary tensions between analytical and hermeneutic philosophy of history cultural theory meta ethical theory and normative ethics The ethical and existential character of temporality reveals itself within a collection that resists the methodological underpinnings of any one philosophical school The book's distinctive cross cultural approach ensures a wide range of perspectives with contributions on life and death in Japanese philosophy ethics and time in Maori philosophy non traditional temporalities and philosophical anthropology as well as global approaches to ethics These new directions of study highlight the importance of the ethical in the temporal inviting further points of departure in this burgeoning field

Time, Doubt and Wonder in the Humanities Prasanta Chakravarty, 2021-12-30 Time Doubt and Wonder in the Humanities addresses a serious lacuna in humanities studies It affirms our commitment to wonder and adventure in living by confronting the subtext that lies within the manifold worldly social and political vicissitudes and tribulations The essays in this volume speak to our times and make sense of the idea of temporality in general by using wonder as an inclusive metaphor which engulfs fortitude anguish joy providence submission precariousness and revulsion Wonder could lead to curiosity to inspiration to doubt to questioning to indignation to seeking of justice The book offers a benchmark in thinking about why we must take literature and art seriously in times of great political turmoil It affirms that the shape and contour of literary studies shall depend on how the coming generation maintains a delicate balance among inspiration doubt and faith

Time, Tide and History Brigid Rooney, Fiona Morrison, 2024-06-01 Time Tide and History Eleanor Dark's Fiction is the first book length edited collection of scholarly essays to treat the full span of Eleanor Dark's fiction advancing a recent revival of critical and scholarly interest in Dark's writing This volume not only establishes a new view of Dark's fiction as a whole but also reflects on the ways in which her fiction speaks to our present moment in the context of a globally fraught post pandemic Anthropocene era Above all the revisiting of Dark's fiction is mandated by a desire to recognise the ways in which it anticipates vital debates in Australian literary and national culture today about settler colonialism and its legacies and with regard to the histories condition and status of Australia's First Nations people This volume interweaves varied topical themes from formal debates about modernism historical realism and melodrama to questions about modernity's time and space about gender and cultural difference and about the specifics of built and natural environments Time Tide and History intentionally loosens the conventions of literary scholarship by including other kinds of work alongside critical and scholarly readings a written dialogue between two contemporary historians about Dark's legacy and a biographical piece on the life and role of Eleanor Dark's husband Eric Payten Dark Bringing together the interwar fiction's feminist and modernist dimensions with the historical turn of The Timeless Land trilogy the essays in Time Tide and History collectively pursue ethical and political questions while teasing out the distinctive thematic formal and aesthetic features of Dark's fiction

The Philosophical Progress of Hume's Essays Margaret Watkins, 2019-01-03 For those open to the possibility that philosophical thought can improve life David Hume's Essays Moral Political and Literary have something to say In the first comprehensive study of the Essays Margaret Watkins engages closely with these neglected texts and shows how they provide important insights into Hume's perspective on the breadth and depth of human life arguing that the Essays reveal his continued commitment to philosophy as a discipline that can promote both social and individual progress Addressing topics such as politics war slavery the priesthood the development of industry aesthetics emotional disorders
