Natures Secret For Health And Beauty:

Nature's Secret for Health and Beauty Minoo Golnazar, 1998 Nature's Secrets for Health and Beauty is a comprehensive guide to alternative medicines health and beauty. It is designed for both professionals and individuals who desire a practical guide for the use and application of herbs in addition to offering a general introduction and brief history of herbal remedies. Its author Minoo Golnazar is the creator of the herbal based facial products known as Minoo's Natural Skin Care located in Oakland California. Minoo is able to draw from her rich Middle Eastern heritage and upbringing to portray how people currently use herbs to improve well being. She has compiled her years of intense experience and training into a readable format that illustrates the advantages herbs have in treating various disorders. Not only does she give the reader a reference manual that covers over 200 different herbs in depth, Minoo continues on to discuss how these plants can work to aid every organ system of the body in achieving optimal functioning and how the power of biochemical contents in herbs and plants directly interact with body chemistry to produce a physiological effect and influence on human body in achieving optimal functioning and also to heal physical and emotional pains as well as to cure illnesses and disorders. Minoo delightfully rounds out the book with teas and main dishes, recipes, skin care instruction on facial and acupressure massage techniques, aromatherapy, nutrition, and outlines on how to harvest and utilize extracts for various drug-free remedies. Nature's Secrets for Health and Beauty is a must-read for anyone who is serious about actively working with the world of plants to naturally refine and sustain their looks as well as their health.
