Navajo Taboos:

Navajo Taboos Ernest L. Bulow, 1982 Navajo Taboos is not some scholarly work by an anthropologist but an insider's look at a body of folk beliefs shared by many Navajos illuminating their cultural priorities. The taboos were collected by Navajo students for their own information and previously published in pamphlet form by the Navajo Tribe as the first volume in their Cultural Series of publications. The taboos have been organized and interpreted by Ernie Bulow who has spent his entire life around Navajos and other tribes of the Southwest as a teacher, writer, and Indian trader. The book is a respectful compilation of Navajo beliefs that set them apart from all other groups while at the same time illustrating the universal fears and concerns found in all cultures. Navajo Taboos Ernie Bulow, 1991 Taboo, 2006 Taboos Fred Goodwin, 2000-08

Taboo, 2006 Taboo, 2006 Navajo Omens and Taboos Franc Johnson Newcomb, 1940 Etiquette and Taboos around the World Ken Taylor, Victoria R. Williams, 2017-10-05 An interesting resource for learning about the cultural differences and characteristics of people across the globe, this encyclopedia covers the do's and don'ts of a breadth of countries and major ethnic groups. Readers of this one-volume reference will gain useful knowledge of what travelers should and shouldn't do when in countries outside of the United States. After a general introduction, approximately 100 alphabetically arranged entries cover topics such as greeting and meeting, appearance and dress, table manners, body language, social situations, and hospitality, verbal communications, business etiquette, religious etiquette, gift giving, and even netiquette regarding social media. Sidebars and images throughout make the text more accessible and engaging, and additional readings at the end of each entry, as well as the bibliography, offer opportunities for further research on the subject. The content also directly supports the National Geography Standards and the AP Human Geography curriculum for high school students as they learn about the cultural differences and characteristics of people in major ethnic groups across the globe. Handbook for Culturally Competent Care Eric A.
