NGOs in Foreign Policy Andreas Werner, 2016 NGOs are seen as important actors of international relations and foreign policy by many scholars However such a perspective has rarely been empirically examined This book therefore takes a look at the access granted to NGOs by the state to the planning and decision making processes in foreign and security policy By applying the theoretical concept of security governance the author takes a look at frameworks such as the German Action Plan Civil Crisis Prevention the Coordination Committee Humanitarian Aid the Dutch PSD Network and the National Action Plan 1325 In conclusion a comparison between Germany and the Netherlands reveals where NGOs can gain more access to foreign security policy It eventually enables the author to argue how big or small the role of these non state actors really is and what consequences this implies for both the empirical and theoretical side of foreign policy Andreas Werner M A studied Political Science International Relations Philosophy as well as Peace and Conflict Studies at the University of Marburg and at the Mount Allison University Canada He successfully defended his PhD thesis at the University of Münster in 2015 He currently works as a research associate at the German Police University
