Sensing the World David Le Breton, 2020-05-31 Sensing the World An Anthropology of the Senses is a highly original and comprehensive overview of the anthropology and sociology of the body and the senses Discussing each sense in turn seeing hearing touch smell and taste Le Breton has written a truly monumental work vast in scope and deeply engaging in style Among other pioneering moves he gives equal attention to light and darkness sound and silence and his disputation of taste explores aspects of disgust and revulsion Part phenomenological part historical this is above all a cultural account of perception which returns the body and the senses to the center of social life Le Breton is the leading authority on the anthropology of the body and the senses in French academia With a repute comparable to the late Pierre Bourdieu his 30 books have been translated into numerous languages This is the first of his works to be made available in English This sensuously nuanced translation of La Saveur du monde is accompanied by a spicy preface from series editor David Howes who introduces Le Breton's work to an English speaking audience and highlights its implications for the disciplines of anthropology sociology and the cross disciplinary field of sensory studies

Alzheimer's, Aromatherapy, and the Sense of Smell Jean-Pierre Willem, 2022-05-17 Cites multiple clinical studies to show how Alzheimer's is critically bound with the sense of smell and how the loss of this sense is often the first symptom of onset Details how to use essential oils to stimulate memory prevent cognitive loss and counter the isolation withdrawal and depression of Alzheimer's patients Reveals the striking results seen in several French hospitals and senior living homes where aromatherapy has been used as a therapy for Alzheimer's While there is still no known cure for Alzheimer's new research and trials from France reveal that it is possible to slow its progression ameliorate some of its effects and improve the quality of life for those suffering from this degenerative condition using the sense of smell Citing years of clinical evidence Jean Pierre Willem M D shows how Alzheimer's is critically bound with the sense of smell He explains how the olfactory system is connected to the limbic area of the brain which holds the keys to memory and emotion and is the area of the brain most severely afflicted by Alzheimer's He reveals how one of the very first signs of Alzheimer's is typically the loss of the sense of smell Sharing the striking results seen in French hospitals and senior living homes where aromatherapy has been used as a therapy for Alzheimer s for more than 10 years Dr Willem details how to use essential oils to stimulate memory prevent cognitive loss and counter the isolation withdrawal and depression these patients are likely to feel He explains how essential oils make a direct connection with the cerebral structures involved in emotion and memory and make it possible for the patient to bring deeply buried memories back to the thinking surface This allows the patient to recover a portion of their identity which can become the foundation for additional healing including regaining the ability to communicate and reducing behavioral issues Tracing the evolutionary links between smell and taste he also explores the effects of diet and nutrition on Alzheimer s and other forms of dementia explaining the benefits of raw foods what foods to avoid and what supplements can help Offering a hands on and medication free way to help those suffering from Alzheimer s this guide provides a way for Alzheimer s patients and their families to recover the joy of living again Du Big bang à la guérison Doriane Dab,2003-10-03 Odeurs prisonnières Michel Gaulier,Marie-Thérèse Esneault,2002 Les parfums de la liberté Marie-Thérèse Esneault,2005 L auteure th rapeute travaille depuis vingt ans en milieu carc ral Elle propose aux d tenus qui le souhaitent une th rapie bas e sur la respiration des parfums et sur le toucher des mati res Dans une relation bas e sur la confiance elle montre comment les prisonniers se r concilient avec leur pass et brisent leur enfermement
