As I sit by my window gazing out over the autumnal park the turning leaves straining in the gusting west wind and a suggestion of morning sun stippling a clump of trees in the near distance my thoughts return to the view from my childhood room on Lutherstrasse a bourgeois cobblestone paved street in Wittenberg lined with neatly spaced lindens How tranquil it all seemed then Like other early childhoods contemplated late in life mine seems idyllic in retrospect A cozy home devoted parents playmates and relatives nearby Who could have predicted then that Wittenberg this ancient town the cradle of the Protestant Reformation would soon like the rest of Germany be swept up in the fanaticism and hysteria of National Socialism When did I first realize that I was not just another German child that I was merely tolerated later reviled and finally cast out How strange it seems now that it took so long for me to comprehend that what was happening to me and my fellow Jews was extraordinary Finally in November 1938 all the accumulated hatred reached critical mass And the dry tinder was ignited by an assassin s bullet The son of Polish Jews enraged by his parents deportation shot an attach at the German Embassy in Paris and this provided a sufficient pretext for what came to be known as Crystal Night Kristallnacht the opening salvo of the Holocaust The official story was that the assassination so outraged the German people that they could not be restrained from seeking revenge The truth is that in a clearly coordinated effort across the entire country synagogues were set afire Jewish shops looted and destroyed and Jewish homes invaded and destroyed A mob mentality nurtured for years had at long last found its focus in action In the late 40s hitchhiking was still a viable option I was now in civilian attire and I knew that drivers even those open to hitchhikers had to decide on a dime whether to stop Most of those who picked me up whizzed past screeched to a halt twenty yards further on and watched me run to catch up Once I got into the car they checked me out and asked a few questions before deciding whether I was a keeper Over the succeeding months I learned a lot about people Because I was a stranger whom they would never see again many shared with me confidences that they could not share with family friends or people in their communities They told me of their addictions their adulteries their sexual proclivities It wasn't because of who I was Out of a deep need they would have shared these confidences with almost anyone And at times it was uncomfortable for me to listen I wanted them to stop talking but I needed the ride and kept my mouth shut Aware that I would have to work part time I answered an ad and landed a job with the Whelan s chain of drugstores as a soda jerker I worked two eight hour shifts one on Wednesdays from four to midnight the other on Saturdays Since I was low man on the totem pole my employers felt free to shift me around from store to store as vacancies occurred Most of my colleagues were unskilled drifters who worked only long enough to save a few bucks few were college students like me But I was soon disabused of any idea that this gave me special status The best I could hope for was the occasional gig at an upscale location

but I was just as likely to be sent to a hellhole like the notorious hangout for pimps and drug dealers at the corner of Eighth Avenue and 42nd Street The pay was lousy the tips few and far between but what I learned about people was a valuable adjunct to what I learned in my college classes Until about 30 years later He was by now a gr Odyssey of a Child

Survivor George David Schwab, 2021-03-15 George David Schwab's life began as a cosseted child leading a charmed and comfortable life in the 1930s He recreates his childhood in pre war Latvia giving it vivid life in detailed memories of an extended accomplished and adventurous family of aunts uncles cousins and delightful descriptions of outings with a child's view of the joy of cafes tennis clubs and swimming in the bracing waters of the Baltic Sea The 1940s brought World War II and Soviet occupation of Latvia followed by the Nazis George relates his and the family's terror and grief when his father a well known gastroenterologist is murdered by the Nazis He his mother a musician and his older brother are shipped with other Latvian Jews to German concentration and work camps in cattle cars George gives a sheltered child's view of his experiences separation death despair cold and hunger with one constant terror Reunited with his mother at the end of the war they emigrate to the United States of America where relatives welcome them Reestablishing their lives they visit relatives George attends high school lifeguards at Coney Island develops a deepening awareness of Jewish culture and what it means to be Jewish becomes involved with the Stern Gang and begins his studies at City College of New York Academic intrigue and politics swirl around his graduate studies at Columbia culminating in the rejection of his Ph D thesis on the controversial German constitutional lawyer and political and legal theorist Carl Schmitt Ultimately George triumphs academically with his second dissertation on neutral countries and nuclear weapons Marriage fatherhood triplet boys family life disproportionate in law issues career association with Hans Morgenthau and the National Committee on American Foreign Policy fill the years In the early 1980s after the death of Morgenthau George takes over the intellectual leadership of the National Committee He recounts the Committee's influence and involvement with many diplomatic initiatives a major triumph is the brokering of peace in Northern Ireland Finally after many years George capitulates to Elie Wiesel's insistence that it is his duty to write his memoirs Odyssey of a Child Survivor From Latvia through the Camps to the United States is George David Schwab's moving witness and testimony to the Holocaust and his renewed life after the horrors he endured

The Aftermath Henry Lilienheim, 1994 A survivor begins an epic search for his wife through post war Europe Here is a memoir of the twentieth century's greatest cataclysm with a profound and illuminating difference Casting light on the little examined period of chaos immediately after World War II it tells how with unflagging courage and perseverance one man and his wife recover freedom and individual dignity The Aftermath was the inspiration for the international award winning documentary Dark Lullabies A Survivor's Secrets Cindy Lambert, Gina Cavallo, 2024-05-01 In a world where darkness can seem impenetrable A Survivor's Secrets emerges as a testament to the indomitable power of the human spirit and the transformative nature of God's love Just as she emerged from years of childhood physical and sexual abuse Gina Cavallo found herself ensnared for nearly three years in the clutches of human traffickers enduring the unspeakable horrors of prostitution After a harrowing escape Gina spent the next three decades shackled by fear shame and a crushing sense of worthlessness as she concealed her painful past even from her husband Her tale is ultimately one of resilience courage and eventual liberation Today Gina is a prominent speaker advocate and mentor for survivors of human trafficking A Survivor's Secrets will increase your understanding of the human trafficking crisis strengthen your resolve for change provide insight into the mechanisms used to lure people and inspire you to advocate for those trapped in bondage You will discover God's astounding power to free anyone of the grip of fear shame and worthlessness that holds so many captive Witnessing Gina's pathway to recovery becomes a guided tour to inviting God's brilliant light to penetrate even the darkest memories and traumas that we or our loved ones have been enduring language physical appearance and pronunciation of Hebrew all of which set them apart from the Ashkenazim They document courageous Sephardic revolts especially those by Greek Jews which involved intricate planning sequestering of gunpowder and complex coordination and communication between Ashkenazi and Sephardic inmates all done in the strictest of secrecy And they follow a number of Sephardic survivors who took refuge in Albania with the benevolent assistance of Muslims and Christians who opened their doors to give sanctuary and traces the fate of the approximately 430 000 Jews from Morocco Algiers Tunisia and Libya from 1939 through the end of the war The author s intention is to include the Sephardim in the shared tragedy with the Ashkenazim and others The result is a much needed accessible and viscerally moving account of the Sephardim s unique experience of the Holocaust Poetry: A Survivor's Guide Mark Yakich,2015-11-19 A provocative and practical guide written for students of creative writing as well as literary studies to an art form that is both loved and feared

The Complete Learning Disabilities Directory Grey House Publishing,2007-09 African American Writers & Classical Tradition William W. Cook,James Tatum,2024-05-31 Constraints on freedom education and individual dignity have always been fundamental in determining who is able to write when and where Considering the singular experience of the African American writer William W Cook and James Tatum here argue that African American literature did not develop apart from canonical Western literary traditions but instead grew out of those literatures even as it adapted and transformed the cultural traditions and religions of Africa and the African diaspora along the way Tracing the interaction between African American writers and the literatures of ancient Greece and Rome from the time of slavery and its aftermath to the civil rights era and on into the present the authors offer a sustained and lively discussion of the life and work of Phillis Wheatley Frederick Douglass Ralph Ellison and Rita Dove among other highly acclaimed poets novelists and scholars Assembling this brilliant and diverse group of African American writers at a moment when our understanding of classical literature is ripe for change the authors paint an unforgettable portrait of our own reception of classic writing especially as it was inflected by American racial politics Love with No Tomorrow Mindelle Pierce,2021-09-15 Love with No Tomorrow shares a spark of light by sharing true love stories of the Holocaust This heart wrenching book uses hundreds of hours of interviews with survivors and their children to present first hand accounts of the relationships that blossomed in extermination camps sparking hope in the darkest of times Confronting the Silence: A Holocaust Survivor's Search for God Walter Ziffer,2019-08-10 In this memoir Walter Ziffer a Holocaust survivor born in Czechoslovakia in 1927 recounts his boyhood experiences the Polish and later German invasions of his hometown the destruction of his synagogue his Jewish community s forced move into a ghetto and his 1942 deportation and ensuing experiences in eight Nazi concentration and slave labor camps In 1945 Ziffer returned to his hometown trained as a mechanic and later emigrated to the US where he converted to Christianity married graduated from Vanderbilt University with an engineering degree worked for General Motors before becoming a Christian minister He taught and preached in Ohio France Washington DC and Belgium He later returned to

Judaism and considers himself a Jewish secular humanist The compelling story of an unfolding life carried by an insatiable search for meaning Mahan Siler retired Baptist minister In Walter Ziffer s beautifully written new book you will learn of Walter s complex life journey and you may experience thanks to his skillfully told story and clearly articulated questions and insights a sense of his presence the presence of a great man who finds in his own story lessons important for the rest of us especially now Richard Chess Director The Center for Jewish Studies at UNC Asheville A powerful and unique addition to the literature of the Holocaust Walter Ziffer s memoir not only recounts his own personal resilience and survival of the camps but also his own unusual spiritual journey in which he both becomes a Christian minister while retaining his quintessential Jewish identity This is a learned well crafted and fascinating new dimension to this literature Michael Sartisky President Emeritus Louisiana Endowment for the Humanities The Holocaust portion of this memoir is as true and chilling as a parent s last words His tale telling prowess makes as strong a mental impression as it makes a factual one Rob Neufeld Asheville Citizen Times
