A Symmetry: Poems Ari Baniyas, 2021-10-12 Winner of the 2022 Publishing Triangle Trans and Gender Variant Literature Award A thrilling discursive second collection from a poet for this hour bewildered hopeful and cracklingly alive Mark Doty The poems in Ari Baniyas's thrilling and discursive second collection A Symmetry unsettle the myth of a benevolently ordered reality Through uncanny repetitions and elliptical inquiry Baniyas contends with the inscriptions of nationhood language and ancestral memory in the architectures of daily experience Refusing the nostalgias of classicism and the trap of authenticity these poems turn instead to a Greece of garbage strikes and throwaway tourist pleasures where bad gender means bad grammar and a California coast where mansions offer themselves to be crushed under your thumb A piece of citrus hurled into one poem's apartment window rolls downhill and escapes the narrative altogether in another Farmers destroy their own olive trees strangers mesmerize us as they fold sheets into perfect corners artists who design border wall prototypes are artists who say they leave politics out of it Climate collapse and debt accelerate and desire transforms itself in the ruins From within psychic interiors and iconic sites the museum the strip mall the discotheque the sea A Symmetry attends to the intimate social proportions of our material world and discerns the simmering potential of a present that can be some other way And is

Historical Dictionary of Women in the Middle East and North Africa Ghada Talhami, 2013 The overriding theme of this work is that women's struggles human rights myths and literary expression are indispensable to an understanding of the modern culture and socio political development of the Middle East region The work demonstrates that no aspect of Middle Eastern history and modern evolution was shaped in isolation of women's lives and contributions to society The dictionary covers the biographies and written work of prominent historical female figures in the Middle East and North Africa as well as 20th century feminists both male and female who advanced women's rights over many years The Historical Dictionary of Women in the Middle East and North Africa includes a chronology an introductory essay an extensive bibliography and a dictionary section that has over 400 cross referenced entries on various aspects of Middle Eastern feminism and culture touching upon religious themes such as Sharia laws Islamic marriage divorce and inheritance practices This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the culture and history of women in the Middle East and North Africa

Dictionary Poetics Craig Dworkin, 2020-05-05 The new ways of writing pioneered by the literary avant garde invite new ways of reading commensurate with their modes of composition Dictionary Poetics examines one of those modes book length poems from Louis Zukofsky to Harryette Mullen all structured by particular editions of specific dictionaries By reading these poems in tandem with their source texts Dworkin puts paid to the notion that even the most abstract and fragmentary avant garde literature is nonsensical meaningless or impenetrable When read from the right perspective passages that at first appear to be discontinuous irrational or hopelessly cryptic suddenly appear logically consistent rationally structured and thematically coherent Following a methodology of critical description Dictionary Poetics maps the material surfaces of poems tracing the networks of signifiers that undergird the more familiar representational schemes with which conventional readings have been traditionally concerned In the process this book demonstrates that new ways of reading can yield significant interpretive payoffs open otherwise unavailable critical insights into the formal and semantic structures of a composition and transform our understanding of literary texts at their most fundamental levels Al-Raida ,1997 Who's Who in Contemporary Women's Writing Jane Eldridge
