The Relation of Time and Eternity John McTaggart Ellis McTaggart, 1908

Time and Eternity Brian Leftow, 2018-09-05 Brian Leftow makes an important contribution to the longstanding debate among philosophers and theologians about the nature of God's eternity The author develops a powerful and original defense of the notion that God is eternal in that he exists timelessly that is that though God exists he does not exist at any time Leftow defends the claim that a timeless God can be an object of human experience and he attempts to delineate the extent of such a God's omniscience Finally the author pays special attention to the relation between the claim that God is timeless and the claim that God is metaphysically simple

God Realization Glen C. Cutlip, 2001-07-24 Have you ever wondered how it might be that God is to walk with the people of God Have you really contemplated how that God is the all in all in you all Have you ever wondered how God can manifest Himself in an infinite number of places at the same time Just as the peace of God passeth all understanding and the love of Christ passeth knowledge the realization of God passeth the understanding and the knowledge of the dual mind Accordingly the understanding and the knowledge of the dual mind must cease as it were before the realization of God can manifest itself as it is not just as it might appear to be That is the part as it were must be done away in order for the whole to manifest itself The realization of God is the outcome of realizing the Christ Consciousness that dwells at the Core of all being for we know that at the appearing of the Lord we shall like unto the Lord for we shall see the Lord as is not just as the Lord might appear to be We can now see how that the Christ dwells within all whether it is realized or not for to realize the Christ that dwells at the Core of all being is to realize that it has always been there Therefore the realization of God is the realization that God has been is and shall forever be right where you are the all in all in you all Thus God is ever walking with the people of God It is a matter of realizing how that might be Now is the time for that realization Time in the Philosophy of Gabriel Marcel

Helen Tattam, 2013 Gabriel Marcel 1889 1973 stands outside the traditional canon of twentieth century French philosophers Where he is not simply forgotten or overlooked he is dismissed as a relentlessly unsystematic thinker or following Jean Paul Sartre s lead labelled a Christian existentialist a label that avoids consideration of Marcel s work on its own terms How is one to appreciate Marcel s contribution especially when his oeuvre appears to be at odds with philosophical convention Helen Tattam proposes a range of readings as opposed to one single interpretation a series of departures or explorations that bring his work into contact with critical partners such as Henri Bergson Paul Ricoeur and Emmanuel Levinas and offer insights into a host of twentieth century philosophical shifts concerning time the subject the other ethics and religion Helen Tattam s ambitious study is an impressively lucid account of Marcel s engagement with the problem of time and lived experience and is her first monograph since the award of her doctorate from the University of Nottingham Embracing the Ivory Tower and Stained Glass Windows Jennifer Baldwin, 2015-12-17 This book brings together contributions from scholars from Europe and the United States to honor the theological work of Antje Jackelén the first female Archbishop of the Church of Sweden In Archbishop Antje Jackelén s installation homily she identifies the strength of the Church as a global network of prayer threads This book is an honorary and celebratory volume providing a global network of prayerful essays by contributors from a variety of academic disciplines to creatively engage reflect and illuminate the theological work of Archbishop Jackelén Prior to her tenure in the Church of Sweden as Bishop of the Diocese of Lund and now the Archbishop of the Church of Sweden Jackelén served as professor of Systematic Theology Director of the Zygon Center and President of European Society for the Study of Science and Religion ESSSAT While each essay intentionally embraces the theological and ministerial work of Jackelén during her academic tenure they also venture into areas as diverse as climate change media studies human uniqueness hermeneutics time ethics Christian theological tradition and history traumatology politics and society As the first diverse explication of the theological thinking of Archbishop Jackelén by her theological colleagues this text provides scholars with an expansion of the scope of Archbishop Jackelén s theological thinking and initiates laity into the impact of Jackelén thinking that combines with grace and precision the traditions of the Church the challenges and gifts of the sciences and the needs and longings of society and the world Keeping Time Tim Gorringe, 2022-07-01 A fresh account of the liturgical year and how it shapes our lives as Christian disciples The Holy Spirit as Communion I. Leon Harris, 2017-09-26 In The Holy Spirit as Communion Leon Harris examines the pneumatologies of Colin Gunton and Frank Macchia For both theologians the doctrine of the Holy Spirit is foundational to understanding their doctrine of God Christology and ecclesiology Drawing on the theme of communion The Holy Spirit as Communion expresses the concept that the Holy Spirit is the person who perfects the divine nature and personhood of the Father and Son It is the Holy Spirit who perfects the eternal communion within the divine Trinity which is the source of the divine action that also perfects the communion in creation as an expression of the Father's will through Jesus Christ The Holy Spirit as Communion explores the essentiality of the Holy Spirit through a unique approach to Spirit Christology Gunton is represented by a radicalized version of Chalcedon Christology and Macchia formulates his account through the overarching metaphor of Spirit baptism Therefore the doctrine of God Christology ecclesiology and eschatology cannot be construed without a proper account of pneumatology that takes into consideration the eschatological perfecting work of the third person of the Trinity who perfects creation's koinonia as a gift from the Father through the grace of Jesus Christ Hope for the Earth Ernst M. Conradie, 2005-05-18 Hope for the Earth explores the viability of an eschatological approach to an ecological theology spirituality and praxis in the South African context The basic intuition of such an eschatological approach is that an environmental praxis can only be empowered on the basis of an adequate understanding of Christian hope Despair in the face of environmental destruction will inevitably lead to a spirit of resignation Where then can a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth be found The author proposes a road map for eschatology based on the observation that eschatology has traditionally responded to three aspects of the human predicament namely 1 the evil effects of sin 2 the problem of finitude and transience and 3 the limitations of human power and knowledge in space Part A This analysis is used to fathom the depths of despair as a result of environmental destruction Part B The Biblical roots and subsequent history of Christian eschatology are discussed briefly Part C Recent contributions in Christian eschatology ecological theology cosmology and South African expressions of hope are explored in depth in search of a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth itself Part D The eschatological road map is used to develop a vision of hope for the earth on the basis of a theology of life life amidst death and destruction life beyond death and eternal life in the presence of God Part E Finally the implications of this vision for an ecological ethos spirituality and praxis in the South African context are indicated Part F Trinity and Humanity Uche Anizor, 2018-02-27 Colin Gunton is regarded by many as one of the most important English theologians of the twentieth century A prolific writer and creative thinker Gunton taught at King's College London for over thirty years until his untimely death in 2003 In this first single authored introduction to Gunton's theology Uche Anizor traces the key theological themes major contributors and criticisms of his work Each chapter provides a synthesis and overview of Gunton's thought on a particular doctrine or set of doctrines calling attention to the Trinitarian shape of his theology In Trinity and Humanity Anizor provides a handy entrance into the corpus of this major thinker Creator Peter J. Leithart, 2023-12-05 Discussion about God's work of creation are often overwhelmed by questions such as the age of the earth and the relationship between divine creation and evolution Without completely ignoring these issues this rigorously grounded theological interpretation of Genesis 1 engages thinkers like Plato Martin Luther and Karl Barth Kierkegaard's The Sickness Unto Death Jeffrey Hanson, Sharon Krishek, 2022-07-21 Presents new approaches to one of Kierkegaard's most important texts shedding light on themes such as selfhood despair and sin Encyclopedia of Time Samuel L. Macey, 2013-04-11 In this encyclopedia some 200 international scholars in 360 articles explore subjects such as physics archeoastronomy astronomy mathematics time's measurements and divisions as well as covering other scientific and interdisciplinary areas biology economics and political science horology history medicine geography geology and telecommunications The Importance of Time L.N. Oaklander, 2013-03-09 The Philosophy of Time Society grew out of a National Endowment for the Humanities Summer Seminar on the Philosophy of Time offered by George Schlesinger in 1991 The members of that seminar wanted to promote interest in the philosophy of time and Jon N Turgerson offered to become the first Director of the society with the initial costs underwritten by the Drake University Center for the Humanities Thus the Philosophy of Time Society PTS was formed in 1993 Its goal is to promote the study of the philosophy of time from a broad analytic perspective and to provide a forum as an affiliated group with the American Philosophical Association to discuss the issues in and related to the philosophy of time The society held its first meeting during the Eastern Division of the APA in Atlanta Georgia in December 1993 In 1997 I began my tenure as Executive Director of PTS and with my term ending in 2000 I decided to put together a volume of selected papers read at PTS meetings over the years The result is the present volume It contains some of the latest developments in the field including discussions of recent books by Michael Tooley Time Tense and Causation and D H Mellor Real Time II and much more The main issue in the philosophy of time is and remains the status of temporal becoming and the passage of time

Transformations of Time and Temporality in Medieval and Renaissance Art Simona Cohen, 2014-03-10 Although studies of specific time concepts expressed in Renaissance philosophy and literature have not been lacking few art historians have endeavored to meet the challenge in the visual arts This book presents a multifaceted picture of the dynamic concepts of time and temporality in medieval and Renaissance art adopted in speculative ecclesiastical socio political propagandist moralistic and poetic contexts It has been assumed that time was conceived in a different way by those living in the Renaissance as compared to their medieval predecessors Changing perceptions of time an increasingly secular approach the sense of self determination rooted in the practical use and control of time and the perception of time as a threat to human existence and achievements are demonstrated through artistic media Chapters dealing with time in classical and medieval philosophy and art are followed by studies that focus on innovative aspects of Renaissance iconography Body and Hope

Johanne Stubbe Teglbjaerg Kristensen, 2013-11-19 In this book Johanne S Teglbjaerg Kristensen analyses the relationship between body and hope She critically investigates the eschatologies of Paul Tillich Jurgen Moltmann and Wolfhart Pannenberg from the perspective of the phenomenology of the body represented by Maurice Merleau Ponty By focusing on the eschatological challenge of the body through a thematization of the issue of continuity the author constructively interprets the classic eschatological themes of death resurrection judgement and the Second Coming She shows how the classic eschatological issues of the relationship between time and eternity as well as of the relationship between the individual and the community require new conceptions By taking the phenomenology of the body into consideration Teglbjaerg Kristensen suggests both a new eschatological approach and a new conception of eschatology The Westminster Handbook to Karl Barth Richard Burnett, 2013-08-02 Featuring essays from renowned scholars this volume in the Westminster Handbooks to Christian Theology series provides an insightful and comprehensive overview of the theology of Karl Barth 1886 1968 This volume offers concise descriptions of Barth s key terms and concepts while also identifying the intricate connections within Barth s theological vocabulary Masterfully compiled and edited this volume features the largest team of Barth scholars ever gathered to interpret Barth s theology The result is a splendid introduction to the most influential theologian of the modern era Contributors include Clifford B Anderson Michael Beintker Eberhard Busch Timothy Gorringe Garrett Green Kevin Hector I John Hesselink George Hunsinger J Christine Janowski Paul Dafydd Jones Joseph L Mangina Bruce L McCormack Daniel L Migliore Paul D Molnar Adam Neder Amy Plantinga Pauw Gerhard Sauter Katherine Sonderegger John Webster and many others
