Of Time & Place Thomas Southall, Walker Evans, 1990 Although Evans and Christenberry share many of the same subjects and concerns there is a dramatic difference to the meaning of their work Evans photographed a culture in a state of economic and spiritual crisis while Christenberry's photographs are more like traces of timeless mysterious forces

Walker Evans Judith Keller, 1995-11-02 Walker Evans is widely recognized as one of the greatest American photographers of the twentieth century and the J Paul Getty Museum owns one of the most comprehensive collections of his work including more of his vintage prints than any other museum in the world This lavishly illustrated volume brings together for the first time all of the Museum's Walker Evans holdings Included here are familiar images such as Evans's photographs of tenant farmers and their families made in the 1930s and later published in Let Us Now Praise Famous Men and images that are much less familiar such as the photographs Evans made in the 1940s of the winter quarters of the Ringling Brothers circus or his very late Polaroids made in the 1970s In addition many previously unpublished Evans photographs and variant croppings of classic images appear here for the first time Author Judith Keller has written a lively informative text that places these photographs in the larger context of Evans's life and career and the culture especially the popular culture of the time In so doing she has produced an indispensable volume for anyone interested in the history of photography or American culture in the twentieth century Also included is the most comprehensive bibliography on Walker Evans published to date

The Dream Colony Walter Hopps, Anne Doran, Edward Ruscha, 2017-06-06 Art Forum's Best of the Year List A panoramic look at art in America in the second half of the twentieth century through the eyes of the visionary curator who helped shape it An innovative iconoclastic curator of contemporary art Walter Hopps founded his first gallery in L A at the age of twenty one At twenty four he opened the Ferus Gallery with then unknown artist Edward Kienholz where he turned the spotlight on a new generation of West Coast artists Ferus was also the first gallery ever to show Andy Warhol's Campbell's Soup Cans and was shut down by the L A vice squad for a show of Wallace Berman's edgy art At the Pasadena Art Museum in the sixties Hopps mounted the first museum retrospectives of Marcel Duchamp and Joseph Cornell and the first museum exhibition of Pop Art before it was even known as Pop Art In 1967 when Hopps became the director of Washington's Corcoran Gallery of Art at age thirty four the New York Times hailed him as the most gifted museum man on the West Coast and in the field of contemporary art possibly in the nation He was also arguably the most unpredictable and eccentric genius who was chronically late His staff at the Corcoran had a button made that said WALTER HOPPS WILL BE HERE IN TWENTY MINUTES Erratic in his work habits he was never erratic in his commitment to art Hopps died in 2005 after decades at the Menil Collection of art in Houston for which he was the founding director A few years before that he began work on this book With an introduction by legendary Pop artist Ed Ruscha The Dream Colony is a vivid personal surprising irreverent and enlightening account of his life and of some of the greatest artistic minds of the twentieth century Walker Evans Stephanie Schwartz, 2023-10-15 NO POLITICS whatever Walker Evans made this emphatic declaration in 1935 the year he began work for FDR's Resettlement Administration Evans insisted that his photographs of tenant farmers and their homes breadlines and the unemployed should be treated as pure record The American photographer's statements have often been dismissed In Walker Evans No Politics Stephanie Schwartz challenges us to engage with what it might mean in the 1930s and at the height of the Great Depression to refuse to work politically Offering close readings of Evans's numerous commissions including his contribution to Carleton Beals's anti imperialist tract The Crime of Cuba 1933 this book is a major departure from the standard accounts of Evans's work and American documentary Documentary Schwartz reveals is not a means of being present or being political It is a practice of record making designed to distance its maker from the scene of the crime That crime Schwartz argues is not just the Depression it is the processes of Americanization reshaping both photography and politics in the 1930s Historicizing documentary this book reimagines Evans and his legacy the complexities of claiming no politics The Original Copy Roxana Marcoci, Geoffrey Batchen, Tobia Bezzola, 2010 Since its birth in the first half of the 19th century photography has offered extraordinary possibilities of isolating works of art for study and pleasure Through cropping focus angle of view distance and lighting as well as the ex post facto techniques of dark room manipulation collage montage and assemblage photographers not only interpret the artworks they record but create stunning reinventions The Original Copy Photography of Sculpture 1939 to Today presents a critical examination of the intersections between photography and sculpture Through a selection of nearly 300 outstanding pictures by more than 100 artists from the 19th century to the present The Original Copy explores how one medium has become implicated in the understanding of the other Photographs reproduced in this richly illustrated volume range in subject from inanimate objects to performing bodies and include major works by medium's most influential artists from early modernism to the present Walker Evans Walker Evans, Maria Morris Hambourg, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2000 Mia Fineman is Chester Dale Fellow in the Department of Photographs The Metropolitan Museum of Art The American Humanities Index Stephen H.
