Of Men And Music:

Of Men and Music Deems Taylor, 1945 Making Aboriginal Men and Music in Central Australia Ase

Ottosson, 2020-05-31 This detailed ethnographic study explores the intercultural crafting of contemporary forms of Aboriginal manhood in the world of country rock and reggae music making in Central Australia Focusing on four different musical contexts an Aboriginal recording studio remote Aboriginal settlements small non indigenous towns and tours beyond the musicians homeland the author challenges existing scholarly political and popular understandings of Australian Aboriginal music men and related indigenous matters in terms of radical social cultural and racial difference Based on extensive anthropological field research among Aboriginal rock country and reggae musicians in small towns and remote desert settlements in Central Australia the book investigates how Aboriginal musicians experience and articulate various aspects of their male and indigenous sense of selves as they make music and engage with indigenous and non indigenous people practices places and sets of values Making Aboriginal Men and Music is a highly original intimate study which advances our understanding of contemporary indigenous and male identity formation within Aboriginal Australian society Providing new analytical insights for scholars and students in fields such as social and cultural anthropology cultural studies popular music and gender studies this engaging text makes a significant contribution to the study of indigenous identity formation in remote Australia and beyond The World s Great Men of Music Harriette Brower, 2019-09-25 Reproduction of the original

The World s Great Men of Music by Harriette Brower Men, Masculinity, Music and Emotions Sam de Boise, 2016-04-29 This book looks at the historic and contemporary links between music s connection to emotions and men s supposed discomfort with their own emotional experience Looking at music tastes and distaste it demonstrates how a sociological analysis of music and gender can actually lead us to think about emotions and gender inequalities in different ways Music News, 1928 Men and Popular Music in Algeria Marc Schade-Poulsen, 2010-07-05 Ra music is often called the voice of the voiceless in Algeria a society currently swept by tragic conflict Ra is the voice of Algerian men young men caught between generations and classes in political strife and in economic inequality In a ground breaking study anthropologist Marc Schade Poulsen uses this popular music genre as a lens through which he views Algerian society particularly male society He situates ra within Algerian family life moral codes and broader power relations Schade Poulsen did his research in the 1990s in clubs recording studios at weddings and with street musicians He describes the history of ra which emerged in the late 1970s and spread throughout North Africa at the same time the Islamist movement was growing to become the most potent socio political movement in Algeria Outsiders consider ra to be Western in origin but Schade Poulsen shows its Islamic roots as well The musicians do use Western instruments but the music itself mixes Algerian popular songs and rhythms with the beat of American disco Egyptian modalities Moroccan wedding tunes and the songs of Julio Iglesias The lyrics deal with male female relationships but also with generational relationships and the problems of youth as they struggle to find a place in a conflicted society The study in its innovative approach to music as a template of society helps the reader understand the two major movements among today s Algerian youth one toward the mosque and the other toward the West
