Longfield,1993-11-25 From 1922 to 1936 the Presbyterian Church in the U S A was torn by conflict Fundamentalists led by Clarence E Macartney William Jennings Bryan and J Gresham Machen modernists guided by Henry Sloane Coffin and moderates directed by Charles R Erdman and Robert E Speer struggled over theological questions and their implications for such issues as ordination requirements the role of Princeton Theological Seminary and foreign missions The church managed to maintain its institutional unity at the height of the conflict in the mid 1920s but the struggle resulted in a loosening of the church s doctrinal standards the reorganization of Princeton Seminary the founding of Westminster Theological Seminary and the eventual birth of the Presbyterian Church of America Weaving together the history of this ecclesiastical conflict with biographies of the six leaders Longfield shows that theological concerns though primary were not the only issues in the struggle He demonstrates that social and cultural considerations profoundly contributed to the roles of the leaders and to the outcome of the conflict Finally Longfield traces the current decline of the Presbyterian Church and other mainline denominations back to this period arguing that by embracing doctrinal pluralism they undermined the very foundations of their mission to the world He concludes that renewal can only be based on a biblical and creedal faith distinct from the values and norms of the surrounding culture Among Our Books Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh,1925 Negro Yearbook ,1925 Monthly Bulletin of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh,1925 Presbyterian Survey ,1924 Blind Spots: Experiments in the Self-cure of Race Prejudice Henry Smith Leiper,1944 Library Journal Melvil Dewey,Richard Rogers Bowker,L.
