Thiselton on Hermeneutics Anthony C. Thiselton, 2006 Hermeneutics is an interdisciplinary study of how we interpret texts, especially biblical texts, in the light of theories of understanding in philosophy, meaning in literary theory and of theology. This volume brings together the seminal thought of a leading contemporary pioneer in this field. Thiselton's The Two Horizons was a classic on how horizons of biblical texts engage creatively with the horizons of the modern world. The author's later New Horizons in Hermeneutics explored still more deeply the transforming capacities of biblical texts, while his massive commentary on 1 Corinthians interpreted an epistle. This volume collects many of Anthony Thiselton's more notable writings from some seven books and 70 articles to which he adds his own re-appraisals of earlier work. It uniquely expounds the thought of a major contemporary British theologian through his own words and includes his own critical assessments.

The Development and Symbolism of Passover Tamara Prosic, 2004-11-28 Tamara Prosic gives a new explanation of the origins, development and symbolism of Passover. First she examines Passover from the diachronic perspective, tracing its development from the period before the centralisation of the cult until the second destruction of the temple. Issues with previous scholarship are considered while at the same time she places the study of Passover within the framework of the new paradigm of historical studies of ancient Israel that advocates the indigenous Canaanite origin of Israelites. The second part of the book is synchronic in its approach to Passover and deals with its symbolism. Prosic discusses Passover in biblical legends, arguing that the pre-Yahwistic Passover was essentially a rite of passage. From there the investigation moves to symbolic elements of Passover such as time symbolism, space symbolism and symbolism of the sacrifice. This is volume 414 in the Journal for the Study of the Old Testament Supplement series. Clinical Papers and Essays on Psychoanalysis Karl Abraham, 2018-11-09 This book is a collection of the works of Dr Karl Abraham's writings. Grigorian, 2009 This first comparative study of the Symbolist use of myth in France, Germany and Russia closely examines a selected range of poetic and pictorial works created between c. 1860 and 1910. The focus of the discussion is on a constellation of five artists linked by a complex network of influences: Gustave Moreau, Jos Maria de Heredia and Jean Moras in France; Stefan George in Germany; and Valerii Bryusov in Russia. By analysing myth in painting and poetry, the book gives a new insight into the significance of heroic and aesthetic ideals in late nineteenth and early twentieth century European culture International and interdisciplinary in its comparative approach the study reassesses the distinction between Symbolism and Decadence by shedding new light on the role of myth within the paradoxical interaction of classical and modernist values in Symbolist art In the course of the argument Symbolist mythological art emerges as a significant link between the cultural heritage of classical Greece and the creative agonies of twentieth century European society The book will appeal not only to scholars of literature and art but also to a wider academic public concerned with cross cultural transaction in Europe
