The Ether Dome and Other Poems Allen R. Grossman,1991 The Woman on the Bridge Over the Chicago River Allen R. Grossman,1979 The Woman on the Bridge over the Chicago River is Allen Grossman s first collection with New Directions His voice is astonishingly contemporary his often dissociated imagery bordering on the surreal yet one hears in his verse classical and Biblical echoes and on occasion darker medieval undertones The brilliance of his imagination works against a measured eloquence setting up a fine edged tension not unlike the prophetic verse of William Blake the wild dithyrambs of David or the more controlled metrics of Catullus and Villon Without a Map Meredith Hall,2024-04-09 The national best selling memoir about banishment reconciliation and the meaning of family This sobering portrayal of a pregnant teen exiled from her small New Hampshire community is a testament to the importance of understanding and even forgiving the people who have made us who we are O The Oprah Magazine A New York Times Bestseller now with a new epilogue from the author Meredith Hall s moving but unsentimental memoir begins in 1965 when she becomes pregnant at 16 Shunned by her insular New Hampshire community she is then kicked out of the house by her mother Her father and stepmother reluctantly take her in hiding her before they finally banish her altogether After giving her baby up for adoption Hall wanders recklessly through the Middle East where she survives by selling her possessions and finally her blood She returns to New England and stitches together a life that encircles her silenced and invisible grief Her lost son tracks her down when he turns 21 and Hall learns that he grew up in gritty poverty with an abusive father in her own father s hometown Their reunion is tender turbulent and ultimately redemptive Hall s parents never ask for her forgiveness yet as they age she offers them her love Here loss and betrayal evolve into compassion and compassion into wisdom Numa Roumestan.
