Max Liebermann and International Modernism Marion Deshmukh, Françoise Forster-Hahn, Barbara Gaehtgens, 2011-05 Although Max Liebermann 1847 1935 began his career as a realist painter depicting scenes of rural labor Dutch village life and the countryside by the turn of the century his paintings had evolved into colorful images of bourgeois life and leisure that critics associated with French impressionism During a time of increasing German nationalism his paintings and cultural politics sparked numerous aesthetic and political controversies His eminent career and his reputation intersected with the dramatic and violent events of modern German history from the Empire to the Third Reich The Nazis persecution of modern and Jewish artists led to the obliteration of Liebermann from the narratives of modern art but this volume contributes to the recent wave of scholarly literature that works to recover his role and his oeuvre from an international perspective

Rethinking Luxury Fashion Thomaï Serdari, 2020-09-01 Using the field of material culture as its methodological departure point this Palgrave Pivot explains the strategic advantages that brands can set in place when their executives are fully in command of how to move from strategy to tactics Specifically it studies the brands their products and signature experiences as well as their relationship with the consumer in an attempt to define the greater powers that have pushed fashion labels in and out of fashion It focuses on case analysis of specific luxury fashion brands and attempts to link those to the greater context of material culture while also elaborating on theoretical discussions Bridging theory and practice this book explores the relationship between creative strategy and cultural intelligence A Book of British Etching
