OF WIVES AND SUBMARINES

A story of the U.S.S. Razorback, a Guppy II-A submarine, and of the men and women who made her what she was.

Of Wives and Submarines Edward Monroe-Jones, 2003-03-01 An inept young naval officer stumbles onto the cold war submarine Razorback where his spirit invades members of the crew and their wives on shore Women in the United States Armed Forces Darlene M. Iskra, 2010-03-23 This handbook provides the reader with an historical and contemporary overview of the service by women in all branches of the U S military tracing the causes and effects of evolving policies issues structural barriers and cultural challenges on the record and in the future of the accomplishments by women warriors Women in the United States Armed Forces A Guide to the Issues covers over a century of accomplishments of military women from the Civil War to the current wars in the Middle East Readers will learn for example that during World War II 565 women in the Women s Army Corps stationed in the Pacific theater received combat decorations proving that women had the courage strength and stamina to perform in a combat environment They will also learn that perhaps surprisingly it wasn t until the mid to late 1970s that women had their first opportunities to serve at sea and as aviators crew as well as pilots albeit on noncombatant ships and aircraft The book s final four chapters discuss the issues that continue to plague women in the military including sexual harassment noting that women s performance in America s two front wars in Iraq and Afghanistan have made a positive difference in attitudes The handbook closes with an epilogue that is at once a summary of the issues and a call for action From Yeomanettes to Fighter Jets Randy Carol Goguen, 2024-03-06 From Yeomanettes to Fighter Jets addresses a major element of twenty first century sea power the integration of women into all military units of the U S Navy Randy Goguen delineates the cultural economic and political conditions as well as the technological changes that shaped this movement over the course of a century Starting with the establishment of the Yeomen F in World War I and continuing through today to address the current arguments over the registration of women for Selective Service and the reform of the military justice system Goguen describes how changes in civilian society affected the U S Navy and the role of Navy women She highlights the contributions of key women and men in the military and civilian spheres who were willing to challenge convention and prejudice to advance the integration of women and make the U S Navy a stronger institution Today women in the U S Navy have proven themselves essential to the mission success of the service They are forward deployed around the world sharing the same risks as their male counterparts Some have commanded logistics and combatant ships including aircraft carriers They fly and maintain combat and patrol aircraft and serve as crew members on ships and submarines Some hold major commands ashore and have risen to the highest echelons of navy leadership Integrating women into the U S Navy has been a long and often contentious process as women strived to overcome resistance imposed by prevailing cultural and institutional norms and patriarchal prejudices Goguen a retired naval reserve officer who holds a PhD in military history from Temple University has written a comprehensive and up to date history of women s integration into the Navy She argues that throughout the process the decisive force driving progress was exigency That exigency took various forms two world wars communist expansionism in the Cold War the ending of the draft and the establishment of the All Volunteer Force as well as the political pressures posed by social change especially the mid twentieth century feminist and contemporary Me Too movements Despite a deeply ingrained institutional resistance cultivated within an insular often misogynist sea going subculture today s U S Navy could not meet its mission requirements without women Goguen asserts Exigency is the mother of integration Women in Combat United States. Congress. House. Committee on Armed Services. Military Forces and Personnel Subcommittee,1994 Hearings Before and Special Reports Made by Committee on Armed Services of the House of Representatives on Subjects Affecting the Naval and Military Establishments ,1994
