Office Of The Salt Merchant:

Office of the Salt Merchant Harry Clifton, 1979 The Salt Merchants of Tianjin Man Bun Kwan, 2001-01-01 For nearly four hundred years the Changlu salt merchants played a leading role in the urbanization commercial development and social change of the city of Tianjin As early as the fifteenth century this small yet important group of citizens negotiated with the state as revenue farmers developing and defending their businesses and customs while evolving their own urban culture In this the first detailed study in English of the mercantile activities and social role of Tianjin s salt merchants Kwan Man Bun reveals how they helped stabilize the city and assumed many civic responsibilities providing relief charities and other services to their fellow citizenry Although these developments resemble the emergence of an idealized public sphere as in Europe Kwan makes clear that Tianjin s social changes were not grounded on rational discourse but rather drew their strength and continuity from merchant networks based on exclusivity wealth education and kinship Hankow William T. Rowe, 1992-12-01 This is the first volume of a two volume social history of the commercial hub of central China in the nineteenth century The emphasis here is on the dynamism of late imperial commerce the relation of the metropolis to the hinterland and the corporate institutions of the city notably its guilds The second volume Hankow Conflict and Community in a Chinese City 1796 1895 focuses on the people of Hankow China's Second Capital - Nanjing under the Ming, 1368-1644 Jun Fang, 2014-05-23 This book is a study of the dual capital system of Ming dynasty China 1368 1644 with a focus on the administrative functions of the auxiliary Southern Capital Nanjing It argues that the immense geographical expanse of the Chinese empire and the poor communication infrastructure of pre modern times necessitated the establishment of an additional capital administration for effective control of the Ming realm The existence of the Southern Capital which has been dismissed by scholars as redundant and insignificant was the author argues justified by its ability to assist the primary Northern Capital better control the southern part of the imperial land The practice of maintaining auxiliary capitals where the bureaucratic structures of the primary capital were replicated in varying degrees was a unique and valuable approach to effecting bureaucratic control over vast territory in pre modern conditions Nanjing translates into English as Southern Capital and Beijing as Northern Capital Post office directory of Berkshire, Northamptonshire, Oxfordshire, with Bedfordshire, Buckinghamshire, and Huntingdonshire [afterw.] The Post office directory of Northamptonshire, Huntingdonshire, Bedfordshire, Buckinghamshire, Berkshire, and Oxfordshire Kelly's directories, ltd, 1869

State, Market and Salt-Tobacco Road in Modern China (1935-1949) Benmo Jiang, Zhao Zhou, Yujing Tan, Haoqi Meng, 2024-12-16 Through a meticulous analysis of various historical sources the authors of this book have uncovered a wealth of information on the trade of salt and tobacco in Guizhou province southwest of China in the 1930s and 1940s Their findings not only shed light on how commercial networks and the flow of these commodities formed and transformed with the development of wartime state monopoly but also offer a more comprehensive perspective on the role of merchants and entrepreneurs in regulated commodity chains to go beyond the dichotomous state market perspective of socioeconomic analysis Chinese Economic Journal and Bulletin ,1929 The Ch'ing Imperial Household Department Preston M. Torbert,1977-07-01 This is the first full length institutional study of the organization and functions of the Imperial Household Department under Ch ing rule That department constituted the emperor s personal bureaucracy In tracing the complex structure of this organization Preston Torbert has avoided an exhaustive listing of nominal offices and their prescribed duties instead he has described the distinctive social groups that made up the departments total personnel the bondservants the eunuchs and the palace maids The Post Office Directory of Durham and Northumberland ,1879 Salt and State Cecilia Chien,2020-08-06 Salt and State is an annotated translation of a treatise on salt from Song China From its inception in the Han dynasty 206 B C 220 A D the salt monopoly was a key component in the Chinese government s financial toolkit Salt with its highly localized and large scale production was an ideal target for bureaucratic management In the Song dynasty 960 1279 fiscal pressures on the government had intensified with increased centralization and bureaucratization A bloated administration and an enormous standing army maintained against incursions by aggressive steppe neighbors placed tremendous strain on Song finances Developing the salt monopoly seemed a logical and indeed urgent strategy but each actor in this plan the emperor local officials monopoly administrators producers merchants and consumers had his own interests to protect and advance Thus attempts to maximize the effectiveness of the monopoly meant frequent policy swings and led to levels of corruption that would ultimately undo the Song Unlike other contemporary sources the Songshi treatise organizes its subject into an intelligible and detailed narrative elucidating special terminology the bureaucracy and its processes and debates relating to Chinese finance and politics as well as the salt industry itself Professor Chien s extensive annotation relies on parallel histories that corroborate and supplement the Songshi account together providing a comprehensive study of this important institution in China s premodern political economy Kelly's Directory of Merchants, Manufacturers and Shippers ,1897 Merchant Cultures ,2022-01-31 Hans Holbein s Triumphs 1532 1534 commissioned for the headquarters of the Hanseatic League in London and Kano Naizen s The Portuguese namban foreigners painted in 1543 in Japan are representations of worlds of trade where wealth speculation exploitation poverty curiosity encounters and the exotic relate effortlessly These worlds multiplied in Africa the America s Asia and Europe as mercantile cultures met in a globalizing world From these encounters power subjugation and conflict arose as part of the same world as cooperation cross culturalism and cosmopolitanism Understanding early modern merchant cultures is thus paramount to comprehend the sinews of globalization before 1800 Merchants worldwide shared trading interests These interests shaped a panoply of encounters of mercantile cultures across space and time This book sketches the commonalities and underlines the differences of mercantile practices and representations during the Early Modern period Contributors are Laurence Fontaine David Graizbord William Pettigrew Edmond J Smith Radhika Seshan Rila Mukherjee Jurre J A Knoest

The Weekly Notes Frederick Pollock,1873 Kelly's Post Office London Directory ,1891 Making Local China Xue Li ,2018 This book presents a case study on the city of Yangzhou in China from 1853 to 1928 During this time the local society of Yangzhou experienced profound changes towards modernization when the nation state of China gradually took shape at the local level Yangzhou under the Qing was transformed into Yangzhou under modern China The diverse interactions between the Protestant missions and the multiple actors in the local society kept generating new local context and giving special input to the shaping of modernity in the local society This study analyses the changing situations of the local society as well as the role of Protestant Church as part of the local social fabric and tries to achieve a better understanding of how modern China developed out of armed conflicts power play and cooperations among different actors in the local society Post office [afterw.] Kelly's directory of Hampshire, Dorsetshire, Wiltshire (the Isle of Wight, and the Channel Islands). Kelly's directories, ltd,1880 The Post Office London Directory ,1847 The Rise and Fall of a Public Debt Market in 16th-Century China Wing-kin Puk,2015-11-16 During the Ming dynasty 1368 1644 the government invited merchants to deliver grain in return for salt certificates with which merchants drew salt as reward The salt certificate therefore represented a national debt denominated in salt the government thereby owed merchants A speculative market of salt certificates was created in Yangzhou and brought into being powerful financiers in the early 17th century The government financially hard pressed abolished the speculative market of salt certificates by franchising these financiers in return for their hereditary obligation to pay salt certificate surcharge China was therefore deprived of a possibility to develop a public debt market This story is a testimony to Fernand Braudel s argument of the nondevelopment of Capitalism in China
