from advancing the South would require a strong naval force There was only one problem with the strategy The Confederacy had no navy On February 25 1861 Confederate president Jefferson Davis nominated Stephen R Mallory to be secretary of the newly formed Confederate States Navy Mallory faced significant obstacles no shipyards few skilled craftsmen and machinists and a lack of production facilities to process raw materials Mallory was able to overcome the many shortcomings to build a formidable navy but the efforts in the Mississippi theater were hamstrung by a disjointed command structure and interservice bickering Despite these problems the Confederate Navy contested the Union forces at every turn The history of Confederate naval forces on the western waters is a story of desperation intrigue ineptitude and humiliating defeats interspersed with moments of courage innovation resourcefulness and a few hard earned victories Gunboats Down the
