Designed to aid adults parents teachers librarians in selecting from the best of recent children's literature this guide provides 1 400 reviews of books published between 1979 and 1984 This volume carries on the tradition established by Zena Sutherland's two earlier collections covering the periods from 1966 to 1972 and 1973 to 1978 Her 1973 edition of The Best in Children's Books was cited by the American School Board Journal as one of the outstanding books of the year in education

Employed Mothers and Their Children Jacqueline V. Lerner, Nancy L. Galambos, 2021-04-14 In 1969 the author wrote a letter to Science protesting the unfair treatment of academic mothers who were expected to work full time Her problem with balancing work and family life was typical of the problems of most young parents in the United States More than 20 years later the same problems have not been solved even though more than twice as many families are headed by a fully employed parent or parents In this volume the authors survey the many problems of employed parents and their children Documenting problems by sound research and pointing to the future solutions is a valuable contribution to the psychological literature

Reading Programs for Young Adults Martha Seif Simpson, 2015-11-16 School and public libraries often provide programs and activities for children in preschool through the sixth grade but there is little available to young adults For them libraries become a place for work the place to research an assignment or find a book for a report but the thought of the library as a place for enjoyment is lost So how do librarians recapture the interest of teenagers This just might be the answer Here you will find theme based units such as Cartoon Cavalcade Log On at the Library Go in Style Cruising the Mall Space Shots Teens on TV and 44 others that are designed for young adults Each includes a display idea suggestions for local sponsorship of prizes a program game to encourage participation 10 theme related activities curriculum tie in activities sample questions for use in trivia games or scavenger hunts ideas for activity sheets a bibliography of related works and a list of theme related films The units are highly flexible allowing any public or school library to adapt them to their particular needs Current

Topics in Early Childhood Education, Volume 5 Lilian G. Katz, 1984-01-01 The chapters in this volume are divided into three sections In the first section the authors provide a framework for the reader by setting ethnography in context Chapters cover definitions of ethnography its basic underlying principles and propose ways in which it can be useful to education The second section presents a range of ethnographic studies The research presented defines by illustration some essential characteristics of ethnography Chapters in the third section reflect on the different themes issues and concerns of the field of ethnography and education in general and of the articles in the volume in particular The central themes are continuity vs discontinuity in children's lives the role of folklore in education researcher educator collaboration and micro vs macro levels
