Possession, Power and the New Age Matthew Wood, 2007-01-01 This book provides a new sociological account of contemporary religious phenomena such as channelling holistic healing meditation and divination which are usually classed as part of a New Age Movement Drawing on his extensive ethnography carried out in the UK alongside comparative studies in America and Europe Matthew Wood criticises the view that such phenomena represent spirituality in which self authority is paramount Instead he emphasises the role of social authority and the centrality of spirit possession linking these to participants class positions and experiences of secularisation Informed by sociological and anthropological approaches to social power and practice especially the work of Pierre Bourdieu and Michel Foucault Wood's study explores what he calls the nonformative regions of the religious field and charts similarities and differences with pagan spiritualist and Theosophical traditions

Newport, 1998 John Newport delivers a comprehensive study of the impact of New Age beliefs on contemporary culture and on Christianity itself while also offering an effective biblical antidote to today's worldview crisis After first surveying the historical development of the New Age worldview from ancient times through important tendencies in nineteenth century America to recent Far Eastern influences Newport explores in depth eleven key areas of the New Age worldview and contrasts each area of belief with the traditional biblical worldview Church Michael G. Lawler, Thomas J. Shanahan, 1995 It is taken for granted today among theologians that the principal achievement of the Second Vatican Council was its Dogmatic Constitution on the Church Lumen Gentium It is beginning to be equally taken for granted that the core of this central document is its vision of Church as communion Communion Pope John Paul II has said is the very mystery of the Church Church A Spirited Communion grows out of the ecclesiology of the Council as a systematic treatment of this notion of communion Church A Spirited Communion is not however a book only about the Church It is a book about the God whom Christians confess as Triune who calls the Church into existence and who seeks its commitment in every age It is a book about the Church only to the extent that the Church is in communion with this God To the extent that it is a book which is primarily theological and only secondarily ecclesiological it is a book which adheres to God rather than to men and summons the Church to do the same
