found to be significant but its magnitude is reduced when the spurious bias stemming from OLS is controlled for. The fact that tenure remains considerably large unaffected of productivity but is simultaneously mitigated due to job match specific effects is in harmony with incentive and matching arguments.

Joachim Prinz, born 1971, studied economics at the University of Trier, Copenhagen Business School, and American University, Washington D.C. From 1999-2001, he was a scientific co-worker at the University of Greifswald, Department of Economics. Since 2001, he is at the University of Witten/Herdecke.
