civilized authority and informed our geographical imagination of the international This relationship of domination over nature shaped three core IR concepts central to the emergence of early international order the territorial sovereign state imperial hierarchies and international organizations The book contributes to environmental politics and international relations by highlighting how the relationship between society and nature is not a peripheral concern but one at the heart of international politics

The Grand Tour in the Eighteenth Century William Edward Mead, 1914

Our Majestic Rivers: Nature's Lifelines Part-1 Amrahs Hseham, 2024-01-05 The tales woven into the fabric of this collection span the continents from the ancient cradle of Mesopotamia where the Tigris and Euphrates once whispered to Sumerian poets to the expansive waterways of the Amazon where the rainforest hums with the secrets of the mighty river We delve into the mythologies of the Ganges sacred and revered carrying the spiritual aspirations of millions within its gentle ripples The Nile with its storied past whispers echoes of pharaohs and pyramids a testament to the ingenuity of ancient civilizations In the heart of North America the Mississippi River tells tales of exploration trade and the clash of cultures Further west the Columbia River winds through the rugged landscapes of the Pacific Northwest a witness to the struggles and triumphs of indigenous peoples and pioneers alike Across the Atlantic the Thames bears witness to the ebb and flow of London's history from Shakespearean theaters to modern financial districts

Geography: Journeys in distant lands and United States and Canada Harlan Harland Barrows, Edith Putman Parker, Margaret Terrell Parker, 1930

The Greening Of Literary Scholarship Steven Rosendale, 2005-04 A collection of thirteen original essays by leaders in the emerging field of ecocriticism The Greening of Literary Scholarship is devoted to exploring new and previously neglected literatures theories and methods in environmental literary scholarship Each essay in this impressive collection challenges the notion that the study of environmental literature is separate from traditional concerns of criticism and each applies ecocritical scholarship to literature not commonly explored in this context New historicism postcolonialism deconstructionism and feminist and Marxist theories are all utilized to evaluate and gain new insights into environmental literature at the same time Percy Bysshe Shelley Upton Sinclair Leslie Marmon Silko and Susan Howe are studied from an ecocritical perspective At its core The Greening of Literary Scholarship offers a practical demonstration of how articulating traditional and environmental modes of literary scholarship can enrich the interpretation of literary texts and most important revitalize the larger fields of environmental and literary scholarship

Parasite and Disease Spread by Major Rivers on Earth Heinz Mehlhorn, Sven Klimpel, 2019-11-12 This book focuses on waterborne pathogens and significant diseases occurring along major rivers around the globe including key examples like the Amazonas Mekong River and Nile Written by leading international experts it offers unique insights into local riverine infection risks in times of global warming and addressing these through advances in diagnosis health management and the development of simple but effective control measures It also sheds light on why former societies collapsed due to transmitted diseases during periods of climate change droughts and floods to help establish effective preventive measures for the future The book appeals to a wide readership from scientists in the field of parasitology infectious diseases and epidemiology to healthcare managers and general readers with an interest in pathogen spread along the largest rivers on earth It particularly highlights past and current control mechanisms in times of global warming and assesses potential future health hazards

Stories of Our Great Rivers Part-1 Amrahs Hseham, 2025-01-18 Rivers are not mere geographical features they are conduits of history carriers of culture and architects of ecosystems From the towering peaks of the Himalayas to the sprawling deltas of the Amazon each river has carved its narrative etching indelible stories into the geographies it traverses As we embark on this literary exploration let us navigate the currents of time immersing ourselves in the narratives that have unfolded along the banks of the great rivers of our world The tales woven into the fabric of this collection span the continents from the ancient cradle of Mesopotamia where the Tigris and Euphrates once whispered to Sumerian poets to the expansive waterways of the Amazon where the rainforest hums with the secrets of the mighty river We delve into the mythologies of the Ganges sacred and revered carrying the spiritual aspirations of millions within its gentle ripples The Nile with its storied past whispers echoes of pharaohs and pyramids a testament to the ingenuity of ancient civilizations
