black and white the other color across two Americas nearly 60 years apart Magnum photographer and former Magnum president Thomas Hoepker born 1936 was 27 years old when he set out on his ambitious journey across the United States one that took him from coast to coast and back again over the course of three months and resulted in thousands of photos The year was 1963 and Hoepker had been commissioned by the German magazine Kristall to discover America through his camera The photo reportages he made published in five issues of the magazine across dozens of pages revealed Hoepker's complex skeptical and sometimes melancholy view of the American everyday in big cities small towns and all in between His was an unromanticized vision in which the decadent existed alongside the desolate the glitter with the grit As much as Hoepker recognized that the problematic American dream could go unfulfilled he was fascinated with the country settling in New York in 1976 and in 2020 at the age of 84 and after a successful career as a photojournalist and president of Magnum Photos he once again set out on a road trip throughout the US The Way It Was Road Trips USA juxtaposes Hoepker's color photographs from this trip with his original black and white images taking us on a journey both through his changing sense of America and through time ROAD TRIP., 1989 Mexico 1953: the Road Trip Roger Hagan, 2005-12 Two young photographers explore Mexico in a Frazer car a half century ago 170 pages 332 photos with extensive captions telling the story Some of the photographs also appear in the author's Mexico 1953 A Book of Photographs The Enthusiast's Guide to Travel Photography Jordana Wright, 2018-03-29 If you're a passionate photographer and you're ready to take your work to the next level The Enthusiast's Guide book series was created just for you Whether you're diving head first into a new topic or exploring a classic theme Enthusiast's Guides are designed to help you quickly learn more about a topic or subject so that you can improve your photography The Enthusiast's Guide to Travel Photography 55 Photographic Principles You Need to Know teaches you what you need to know in order to shoot great images when you're on the road Chapters are broken down into numbered lessons with each lesson providing all you need to improve your photography Photographer and author Jordana Wright covers planning your journey the gear and equipment you'll need and how to shoot great shots of landscapes details portraiture wildlife urban environments food and more Lessons include Written in a friendly and approachable manner and illustrated with examples that drive home each lesson The Enthusiast's Guide to Travel Photography is designed to be effective and efficient friendly and fun Read an entire chapter at once or read just one topic at a time With either approach you'll quickly learn a lot so you can head out with your camera to capture great shots The American Roadside in Émigré Literature, Film, and Photography Elsa Court, 2020-01-06 The American Roadside in migr Literature Film and Photography 1955 1985 traces the origin of a postmodern iconography of mobile consumption equating roadside America with an authentic experience of the United States through the postwar road narrative a narrative which Elsa Court argues has been shaped by and through white male migr narratives of the American road in both literature and visual culture While stressing that these narratives are limited in their understanding of the processes of exclusion and unequal flux in experiences of modern automobility the book works through four case studies in the American works of European born authors Vladimir Nabokov Robert Frank Alfred Hitchcock and Wim Wenders to unveil an early phenomenology of the postwar American highway one that anticipates the works of late twentieth century spatial theorists Jean Baudrillard Michel Foucault and Marc Aug and sketches a postmodern aesthetic of western mobility and consumption that has become synonymous with contemporary America

MTV Road Trips U.S.A. John Vorwald, Dara Bramson, Kelsy Chauvin, Maya Kroth, Nick Honachefsky, Ashley Marinaccio, 2007-06-05 Roadtripping across the country has been a rite of passage for generations From Jack Kerouac and Neal Cassady's On the Road to Easy Rider to Thelma and Louise the journey is the destination and in Frommer's MTV US Roadtrips the old school travel guides and cutting edge authors combine their talents and resources for 10 eclectic rides Maya Kroth pursues the cue from Austin to Charlotte in a Southern BBQ Roadtrip Ethan Wolff visits the Desert Southwest on the trail of the first Americans Ashley Marinaccio stays at haunted hotels in search of the unexplained and paranormal in the Weird Northeast Our other authors go everywhere from Down the Shore through the Urban Heartland and on a tour of West Coast Underground Rock Clubs

Ilf and Petrov's American Road Trip Илья Ильф, Евгений Петров, 2007 In 1935 well into the era of Soviet communism Russian satirical writers Ilya Ilf and Evgeny Petrov came to the U S as special correspondents for the Russian newspaper Pravda They drove cross country and back on a ten week trip recording images of American life through humorous texts and the lens of a Leica camera When they returned home they published their work in Ogoniok the Soviet equivalent of Time magazine and later in the book Odnoetazhnaia Amerika Single Storied America This wonderful lost work filled with wry observations biting opinions and telling photographs is now collected in Ilf and Petrov's American Road Trip the first English translation From Ilf and Petrov's American Road Trip The word America has well developed grandiose associations for a Soviet person for whom it refers to a country of skyscrapers where day and night one hears the unceasing thunder of surface and underground trains the hellish roar of automobile horns and the continuous despairing screams of stockbrokers rushing through the skyscrapers waving their ever falling shares We want to change that image A Cabinet Book published by Princeton Architectural Press

Photography and Collaboration Daniel Palmer, 2020-09-14 Photography and Collaboration offers a fresh perspective on existing debates in art photography and on the act of photography in general Unlike conventional accounts that celebrate individual photographers and their personal visions this book investigates the idea that authorship in photography is often more complex and multiple than we imagine involving not only various forms of partnership between photographers but also an astonishing array of relationships with photographed subjects and viewers Thematic chapters explore the increasing prevalence of collaborative approaches to photography among a broad range of international artists from conceptual practices in the 1960s to the most recent digital manifestations Positioning contemporary work in a broader historical and theoretical context the book reveals that collaboration is an overlooked but essential dimension of the medium's development and potential

Encountering Difference: New Perspectives on Genre, Travel and Gender Gigi Adair, Lenka Filipova, 2020-03-03 This edited collection poses crucial questions about the relationship between gender and genre in travel writing asking how gender shapes formal and thematic approaches to the various generic forms employed to represent and recreate travel While the question of the genre of travel writing has often been debated is it a genre a hybrid genre a sub genre of autobiography and recent years have been much attention to travel writing and gender these have rarely been combined This book sheds light on how the gendered nature of writing and reading about travel affect the genre choices and strategies of writers as well as the way in which travel writing is received It reconsiders traditional and frequently studied forms of travel writing both European and non European In addition it pursues questions about the connections between travel writing and other genres such as the novel and films minor forms including journalism and blogging and new sub genres such as the new nature writing focusing in particular on the political ramifications of genre in travel writing The collection is international in focus with discussions of works by authors from Europe Asia Australia and both North and South America consequently it will be of great interest to scholars and historians in those regions
