Sharpiro, 1990-07-24 This critical bibliography of museum studies comprises an organized collection of essays on the various types of museums art natural history history science and technology and folk and on general aspects collections education exhibitions etc that cut across the media Most of the essays are cogent substantial if not comprehensive and clear The editor has taken care to see that they follow a similar format of historical essay followed by a full bibliography of items discussed Library Journal As the number of museums in the United States has grown to more than 6500 in this century the museum profession has experienced similar growth In addition to academic training and accreditation programs in the field an expanding body of literature on museum history philosophy and functions has evolved little of which has received the critical attention it deserves This reference volume serves as an up to date guide to this wealth of literature identifying and evaluating works that introduce the general reader the museum studies student and the beginning professional to the history philosophy and functions of museums The volume presents a series of informative historical outlines and critical bibliographic essays on all aspects of museum history philosophy and functions Contributors treat such subjects as art museums natural history museums science and technology museums history museums collections exhibition education and interpretation and the public and museums Each chapter consists of an introductory historical narrative a survey of sources and a bibliographic checklist that contains cited and additional sources A set of appendices include a geographically organized bibliography of museum directories a guide to archives and special collections and a selective list of museum related periodicals The book concludes with a comprehensive general subject index This work will be an important reference tool for museum professionals and cultural historians as well as for courses in museum studies It will also be a valuable addition to both academic and public libraries Museums in Motion Edward P. Museums in Motion Juilee Decker, 2024-08-06 This book explores the histories and functions of museums while also looking at the current standing of museums and their ongoing efforts toward relevance resiliency and future proofing Section I examines the beginnings of museums with chapters dedicated to art and design museums natural history and anthropological museums science museums museums focused history and the past and gardens zoos and children s museums Emphasis is on museums in the United States with some historical framing beyond the U S Section II explores the primary functions of museums including conservation exhibition interpretation engagement and service Section III examines museums from within by exploring critical issues and contemporary movements facing museums and our society transparency and openness labor and equity belonging and coalition building risk taking and risk aversion and sustainability and empathy Advocating for change rather than death to museums Museums in Motion demonstrates the very premise that museums have been in motion all along as they have shifted from their rather simple form of a treasury storehouse and tomb to something much more complex by deeply considering where museums have come from where they are today and where they are going Entirely new to this edition Section III Museum Aspirations features five new chapters each centered around topics rather than a museum type or museum function Each topic is meant to be a micro narrative and springboard for a conversation about museums today and their sustainability in the future The chapters examine museums from the inside museum workers and their voices especially as well as power held by people and institutions and DEIA without using those individual words as chapter headings On their own or in conjunction with the chapters in the previous sections of this book these chapters serve as vignettes that can help readers to understand where how and why we need to apply critical lenses to institutions and articulate how doing so helps us to understand this historical moment and ultimately how we can realize resiliency and sustainability for museums and those who make their existence possible
