Towards a Sociology of Cancer Caregiving Rebecca E. Olson, 2016-03-09 Once a synonym for death cancer is now a prognosis of multiple probabilities and produces a world of uncertainty for carers Drawing on rich in depth interview data and employing interactionist theories Towards a Sociology of Cancer Caregiving explores carers lived experiences paying close attention to the ways in which spouse carers manage the ambiguity that pervades their orientations to the future their responsibilities and their emotions A detailed exploration of the temporal and emotional journeys of spouse carers of cancer patients this volume raises and responds to new questions about how to conceptualise informal caregiving offering a fresh theorisation of the uncertainty that now characterises cancer As such it will appeal to scholars of the sociologies of emotion time and identity and all those interested in the question of how to support informal carers

General Radiography Christopher M. Hayre, William A.S. Cox, 2020-07-15 With chapters from globally recognized academics General Radiography shows the multifaceted approach to general radiography and how it enhances healthcare delivery Potentially influential to how healthcare delivery is offered it begins with the pertinent chapters examining image acquisition and dose optimization in diagnostic radiography Next chapters reflect and critically discuss aspects central to patient care and imaging within trauma critical care and pediatric situations The final section of this book then explores the learning teaching and education in the field of diagnostic radiography with novel strategies illustrated

The Therapy Industry Paul Moloney, 2013-06-07 Across the world anxiety stress and depression are on the increase a trend which looks set to continue as austerity measures bite The official response tells people that unhappiness is just a personal problem rather than a social one Written by a practising psychologist with nearly thirty years experience in the fields of mental health and learning disabilities The Therapy Industry offers a concise accessible and critical overview of the world of psychological practice in Britain and the USA Paul Moloney argues that much therapy is geared towards compliance and acceptance of the status quo rather than attempting to facilitate social change The Therapy Industry fundamentally challenges our conceptions of happiness and wellbeing Moloney argues that therapeutic and applied psychology have little basis in science that their benefits are highly exaggerated and they prosper because they serve the interests of power

Medical Education for the 21st Century Michael S. Firstenberg, Stanislaw P. Stawicki, 2022-06-01 Medical education has undergone a substantial transformation from the traditional models of the basic classroom laboratory and bedside that existed up to the late 20th century The focus of this text is to review the spectrum of topics that are essential to the training of 21st century healthcare providers Modern medical education goes beyond learning physiology pathophysiology anatomy pharmacology and how they apply to patient care Contemporary medical education models incorporate multiple dimensions including digital information management social media platforms effective teamwork emotional and coping intelligence simulation as well as advanced tools for teaching both hard and soft skills Furthermore this book also evaluates the evolving paradigm of how teachers can teach and how students can learn and how the system evaluates success

Religious Tolerance, Education and the Curriculum Elizabeth Burns Coleman, Kevin White, 2011-10-30 The creation of a secular education system was one of the great social experiments designed to break down religious intolerance within society One element of this design was administrative involving the creation of non denominational schools and another element involved a centralised curriculum In this collection of essays political philosophers lawyers sociologists theologians and educators explore the role of state schools in promoting tolerance within 21st century multicultural religiously pluralistic societies How may different models of liberalism in the secular state have different outcomes in relation to religious tolerance in the education system Does a state education system have a role in teaching values such as tolerance and if so how is this best achieved How are epistemology and truth connected with tolerance How does the ideal of a value free secular education mask the values that the secular state teaches The essays are written from both theoretical and practical perspectives and engage with each other directly to address one of the significant issues of our day This is the fourth volume arising from a series of conferences on the theme of Negotiating the Sacred Previous volumes have included Blasphemy and Sacrilege in a Multicultural Society Blasphemy and Sacrilege in the Arts and Medicine Religion and the Body American Reference Books Annual Bohdan S. Wynar, 2007 1970 issued in 2 vols v 1 General reference social sciences history economics business v 2 Fine arts humanities science and engineering Recovery, Mental Health and Inequality Lynn Tang, 2017-07-06 Mental health has long been perceived as a taboo subject in the UK so much so that mental health services have been marginalised within health and social care There is even more serious neglect of the specific issues faced by different ethnic minorities This book uses the rich narratives of the recovery journeys of Chinese mental health service users in the UK a perceived hard to reach group and largely invisible in mental health literature to illustrate the myriad ways that social inequalities such as class ethnicity and gender contribute to service users distress and mental ill health as well as shape their subsequent recovery journeys Recovery Mental Health and Inequality contributes to the debate about the implementation of recovery approach in mental health services and demonstrates the importance of tackling structural inequalities in facilitating meaningful recovery This timely book would benefit practitioners and students in various fields such as nurses social workers and mental health postgraduate trainees New Directions in Criminological Theory Steve Hall, Simon Winlow, 2012-06-25 This edited collection brings together established global scholars and new thinkers to outline fresh concepts and theoretical perspectives for criminological research and analysis in the 21st century Criminologists from the UK USA Canada and Australia evaluate the current condition of criminological theory and present students and researchers with new and revised ideas from the realms of politics culture and subjectivity to unpack crime and violence in the precarious age of global neoliberalism These ideas range from the micro realm of the personality disorder to the macro realm of global power crime Rejecting or modifying the orthodox notion that crime and harm are largely the products of criminalisation and control systems these scholars bring causes and conditions back into play in an eclectic yet thematic way that should inspire students and researchers to once again investigate the reasons why some individuals and groups elect to harm others rather than seek sociability This collection will inspire new criminologists to both look outside their discipline for new ideas to import and to create new ideas within their discipline to reinvigorate it and further strengthen its ability to explain the crimes and harms that we see around us today This book will be of particular interest to academics and both undergraduate and postgraduate students in the field of criminology especially to those looking for theoretical concepts and frameworks for dissertations theses and research reports

Crime, Genes, Neuroscience and Cyberspace Tim Owen, 2017-09-18 This book applies Owen's unique genetic social framework to the study of crime and criminal behaviour with an emphasis on cybercrime Moving beyond challenges which confront contemporary criminological theorizing such as the stagnation of critical criminology the relativistic nihilism of the cultural turn posthumanism and virtual criminology the author codifies and applies the latest version of the framework to the study of crime both in and out of cyberspace Drawing upon evolutionary psychology behavioural genetics and the philosophy of Heidegger he introduces new terms such as Neuro Agency and notions of Embodied Cognition into criminological theorizing Adopting a soft compatibilist approach to free will and Realist ontology Owen's meta theoretical focus provides a new direction for criminological theorizing in particular in the direction of the conceptualization and prediction of cyber violence Exciting and timely this book will appeal to scholars and advanced students of criminology law sociology social policy psychology philosophy policing and forensic investigation

Responsibilisation at the Margins of Welfare Services Kirsi Juhila, Suvi Raitakari, Christopher Hall, 2016-11-10 The impetus for this book is the shift in welfare policy in Western Europe from state responsibilities to individual and community responsibilities The book examines the ways in which policies associated with advanced liberalism and New Public Management can be identified as influencing professional practices to promote personalisation participation empowerment recovery and resilience In examining the concept of responsibilisation from the point of view of both the responsibilised client and welfare worker the book breaks from the traditional literature to demonstrate how responsibilities are negotiated during multi professional care planning meetings home visits staff meetings focus groups and interviews with different stakeholders The settings examined in the book can be described as on the margins of welfare mental health substance abuse homelessness services and probation work where the rights and responsibilities of clients and workers are uncertain and constantly under review Each chapter approaches the management of responsibilities from a particular angle by combining responsibilisation theory and discourse analysis to examine everyday encounters Taken together the chapters paint a comprehensive picture of the responsibilisation practices at the margins of welfare services and provide an extensive discussion of the implications for policy and practice Drawing upon both the governmentality literature and everyday encounters the book provides a broad approach to a key topic It will therefore be a valuable resource for social policy public administration social work and human service researchers and students and social and health care professionals

The Welfare State in Post-Industrial Society Jason L. Powell, Jon Hendricks, 2009-06-10 In recent years major social forces such as ageing populations social trends migration patterns and the globalization of economies have reshaped social welfare policies and practices across the globe Multinational corporations NGOs and other international organizations have begun to influence social policy at a national and local level Among the many ramifications of these changes is that globalizing influences may hinder the ability of individual nation states to effect policies that are beneficial to them on a local level With contributions from thirteen countries worldwide this collected work represents the first major comparative analysis on the effect of globalization on the international welfare state The Welfare State in Post Industrial Society is divided into two major sections the first draws from a number of leading social welfare researchers from diverse countries who point to the nation state as case studies highlighting how it goes about establishing and revising social welfare provisions The second portion of the volume then moves to a more global perspective in its analysis and questioning of the impact of globalization on citizenship ageing and marketization The Welfare State in Post Industrial Society seeks to encourage debate about the implications of the most pressing social welfare issues in nation states and integrate analyses of policy and practice in particular countries struggling to provide social welfare support for their needy populations

Critical Discourses of Old Age and Telecare Technologies Gizdem Akdur, 2020-04-19 This book makes an enquiry into policies surrounding old age and telecare It contextualises telecare within the wider history of health and social care in England to build the case that there are grand narratives of old age embedded in policies Divided into four sections the book covers Connecting old age with telecare A general review of old age and telecare A critical enquiry into discourses and the identity of old age Conclusions and future directions The author highlights the manifestation of old age discourses in care policies how they have been perpetuated yet also transformed in the context of telecare and what this means about older people The book will be of interest to students and academics in the fields of gerontology sociology old age studies philosophy social policy health and social care policy information systems and critical theoreticians Women, Pain and Death Evy Johanne Håland, 2008 This book is a cross cultural and multidisciplinary collection of articles representing different perspectives and topics related to the general theme Women and Death from different periods and parts of Europe as well as the Middle East and Asia i e areas where through the ages there have been a constant interaction and discourse between a variety of people often with different ethnic backgrounds The studies illustrate many parallels between the various societies and religious groupings despite of many differences both in time and space Publisher
