Saharan Boy:

Saharan Boy Richard Bellamy, 2002-11-01 NULL      Young People's Daily Mobilities in Sub-Saharan Africa Gina Porter, Kate Hampshire, Albert Abane, Alister Munthali, Elsbeth Robson, Mac Mashiri, 2016-11-26 This book explores the daily mobilities and immobilities of children and young people in sub-Saharan Africa. The authors draw on findings from rural and urban field research extending over many years culminating in a 24 site study across three African countries: Ghana, Malawi and South Africa. Wider reflections on gender relationality, the politics of mobility and field methodology frame the study. By bringing together diverse strands of a complex daily mobilities picture from journeys for education, work, play, leisure and health to associated experiences of different transport modes, road safety and the virtual mobility now afforded by mobile phones, the book helps fill a knowledge gap with crucial significance for development policy and practice.

Christian-Muslim Relations. A Bibliographical History Volume 19. Sub-Saharan Africa and Latin America (1800-1914), 2022-06-20 Christian Muslim Relations a Bibliographical History 19 CMR 19 covering Sub-Saharan Africa, Latin America and the Caribbean in the period 1800-1914 is a further volume in a general history of relations between the two faiths from the 7th century to the early 20th century. It comprises a series of introductory essays and the main body of detailed entries. These treat all the works surviving or lost that have been recorded. They provide biographical details of the authors, descriptions and assessments of the works themselves and complete accounts of manuscripts, editions, translations and studies. The result of collaboration between numerous new and leading scholars, CMR 19 along with the other volumes in this series is intended as a basic tool for research in Christian-Muslim relations. Section Editors: Ines Aeri, Todd Clinton Bennett, Luis F. Bernabé Pons, Jaco Beyers, Emanuele Colombo, Lejla Demiri, Martha Frederiks, David D. Grafton, Stanisław Grodzki, Alan Guenther, Vincenzo Lavenia, Arely Medina, Diego Melo Carrasco, Alain Messaoudi, Gordon Nickel, Claire Norton, Reza Pourjavady, Douglas Pratt, Charles Ramsey, Peter Riddell, Umar Ryad, Cornelia Soldat, Charles Tieszen, Carsten Walbiner, Catherina Wenzel.      A Son of the Sahara Louise Gerard, 2021-04-25 In A Son of the Sahara Louise Gerard immerses readers in the stark yet profound landscapes of the Sahara Desert, weaving a rich tapestry of personal discovery and cultural dialogue. Through lyrical prose, Gerard explores themes of identity, belonging and resilience against the backdrop of breathtaking vistas and the harsh realities of desert life. The narrative combines elements of magical realism with a poignant coming-of-age story, reflecting both the geographical and emotional landscapes that shape the protagonist's journey toward self-understanding. Gerard's nuanced character development is emblematic of contemporary literature's exploration of place and its profound impact on the human experience. Louise Gerard, known for her sensitivity to diverse cultures and her deep appreciation for the natural world, draws on her extensive travels and personal experiences in North Africa to craft this evocative narrative. With a background in anthropology, she adeptly intertwines historical and cultural insights, offering a perspective that honors the complexities of life in desert communities. These elements fuel her exploration of existential questions as she deftly examines the relationships between individuals and their environments A Son of the Sahara is a compelling read for those who seek an exploration of identity amid the vastness of the human experience Gerard s evocative storytelling invites readers to lose themselves in its pages prompting reflections on their own journeys and the cultures that shape them This book will resonate with fans of literary fiction who appreciate the intersection of place and personal narrative A Family Living Under the Sahara Sun Ruth Long,2011-07-07 Here we have the story of a father and mother who went to Niger West Africa with two small children in 1950 and over the next nine years had four more children Roland was number one Lance followed and then there were Cheryl John Suzanne and Pamela All six children were raised on the southern edge of the Sahara desert with dad and mom Dr Burt and Ruth Long Galmi Niger West Africa was their home One by one they left to go to our SIM missionary kids school in Jos Nigeria but always came home to Galmi for the holidays Dr Long was the founder and first doctor of the Galmi Hospital in Niger You will read about early struggles and later victories The text was taken from letters sent home to family and kept by Ruth s sister Frances who saved them all and returned them to us when we retired The last few chapters deal with our return trips to West Africa in our retirement years There were two trips to ELWA Liberia one trip to Chad three trips to Nigeria and three trips back home to Galmi Niger Sahara Unveiled William Langewiesche,2011-04-20 It is as vast as the United States and so arid that most bacteria cannot survive there Its loneliness is so extreme it is said that migratory birds will land beside travelers just for the company William Langewiesche came to the Sahara to see it as its inhabitants do riding its public transport braving its natural and human dangers depending on its sparse sustenance and suspect hospitality From his journey which took him across the desert s hyperarid core from Algiers to Dakar he has crafted a contemporary classic of travel writing In a narrative studded with gemlike discourses on subjects that range from the physics of sand dunes to the history of the Tuareg nomads Langewiesche introduces us to the Sahara s merchants smugglers fixers and expatriates Eloquent and precise Sahara Unveiled blends history and reportage anthropology and anecdote into an unforgettable portrait of the world s most romanticized yet most forbidding desert

Sierra Leone International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2020-04-17 This Selected Issues paper on Sierra Leone shows that boosting education and its quality for all children yields substantial macroeconomic gains While investments in the sector will take time to yield results the potential gains provide ample motivation for sustained multi pronged policy interventions along the lines highlighted in the following paragraphs Equalizing access to education emerges as a critical goal for prosperity that is shared fairly across the population Attaining free secondary education for all is a critical long run objective With limited fiscal space and vast challenges in the sector evidence based prioritizing sequencing and targeting of policies is critical Careful monitoring of education spending and its impacts will help reassess programs and priorities going forward Enhancing the governance of the sector to ensure that spending is well aligned with needs in the various levels is also important Tackling the education challenge will require coordinated work to overcome hurdles in several sectors Several factors currently within and beyond the education sector constrain efforts that could effectively reap the economic benefits from education. The results indicate the macroeconomic benefits of education could be substantial in the order of up to 40 percent of gross domestic product in the long run.

Mathematics Teaching and Professional Learning in sub-Saharan Africa Kakoma Luneta, 2021-12-09. The book represents a crop of wide ranging research conducted by renowned scholars in sub-Saharan Africa revolving around mathematics teaching and professional development programs for mathematics teachers. The research based proposals and actual how to conduct professional development initiatives that enhance effective mathematics instruction are rooted in teacher input and informed by learners errors and misconceptions. The book provides a comprehensive snapshot on mathematics teaching learning and effective professional development programmes for mathematics teachers in sub-Saharan Africa. It is the only research output that advances and disseminates issues of mathematics education and research in the region with input from South Africa, Kenya, Rwanda, Uganda, Malawi, Namibia, Lesotho, Ethiopia and Zimbabwe.

International Handbook of Comparative Education Robert Cowen, Andreas M. Kazamias, 2009-08-22. A big project like this Handbook means that you incur debts and not only to your authors and your publisher. As editors we along with our colleague Elaine Unterhalter who edited the section on postcolonialism would like to thank most warmly those authors who delivered on time and who did not fuss but just got on and did a rate job. We would also like to thank all authors who did deliver which was almost everyone we asked. We know that some of our authors worked in very different private circumstances as they were finishing their chapters and we hope the publication of the Volumes will later be for them a happy reminder of difficulties and disasters overcome. The only sad theme is that some very close colleagues with whom we were working and for whom we had the greatest respect and liking became very ill and died while the volumes were being prepared. We decided to ask for copyright permissions to publish something of theirs. These permissions were graciously given by two major journals and with the agreement also of our publishers Springer, Roland Paulston and Terry McLaughlin have examples of their writing in this Handbook.

Intransitive Predication Leon Stassen, 2003. This book investigates cross linguistic variation in one of the core domains of all natural languages. Leon Stassen views this domain as a cognitive space the topography of which is the same for all languages. It is assumed to consist of four subdomains which correspond to a four way distinction between the semantic classes of event predicates, property predicates, class predicates and locational predicates. The book offers a typology of the structural manifestations of this domain in terms of the nature and number of the formal strategies used in its encoding. The author discusses a number of abstract principles which can be employed in explaining the cross linguistic variation embodied by the typology. In the final chapter he brings together the research results in a universally applicable model which can be read as a flow chart for the encoding of intransitive predications in different language types.

Invoking the Invisible in the Sahara Erin Pettigrew, 2023-01-26. In this innovative new history Erin Pettigrew utilizes invisible forces and entities esoteric knowledge and spirits to show how these forms of knowledge and unseen forces have shaped social structures religious norms and political power in the Saharan West Situating this ethnographic history in what became la Mauritanie under French colonial rule and later the Islamic Republic of Mauritania Pettigrew traces the changing roles of Muslim spiritual mediators and their Islamic esoteric sciences known locally as l j b over the long term history of the region By exploring the impact of the immaterial in the material world and demonstrating the importance of Islamic esoteric sciences in Saharan societies she illuminates peoples enduring reliance upon these sciences in their daily lives and argues for a new approach to historical research that takes the immaterial seriously

The Boy's Own Annual ,1886 Through Spain to the Sahara Matilda Betham-Edwards,2019-12-18 In Through Spain to the Sahara Matilda Betham Edwards crafts a vivid travelogue that intertwines personal reflections with keen observations of the landscapes cultures and peoples she encounters The book is suffused with a lyrical prose style rich in descriptive detail and imbued with the romantic sensibilities of the late 19th century Betham Edwards navigates the historical and cultural tapestry of Spain and North Africa offering readers a nuanced portrayal of the regions through a pioneering female perspective which was notably rare at the time of publication Matilda Betham Edwards was an influential Victorian author whose extensive travels informed her writing As a woman navigating the societal constraints of her era her journeys across Europe and into North Africa became a means of both personal exploration and social commentary Her experiences profoundly shaped her narratives leading her to capture not only the physical landscapes but also the shifting cultural dynamics of a post colonial world a theme that resonates throughout this work Through Spain to the Sahara is a compelling read for those intrigued by travel literature and historical insights Betham Edwards keen observations and evocative style offer valuable perspectives on cultural encounters making this book an essential addition for readers who appreciate the intersection of travel and literary artistry
