Forged Genealogies Carol Rigolot, 2001 According to Carol Rigolot reading the work of Nobel Prize winning poet Saint John Perse 1887 1975 is not unlike eavesdropping on a telephone conversation in which only one side is audible His poems are antiphonal and even polyphonic works where int      Temporality in Life As Seen Through Literature Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2007-05-09 Temporality pervades the dynamic joint of existence and the human being as such As human beings unfold through onto-poiesis each move of which punctuates the temporality of life they whose life experience deliberation planning reflection and dreaming are permeated by temporal motivations and concerns feel that they are engaged in the spinning of a common thread Attributing to that involvement universal laws constant existential validity and power they absolutise hypostasise its rule as a cosmic human factor time Yet today technologies are transforming the temporality of our existence by accelerating intensifying expanding our partaking in the world of life Human communal and social involvement is being challenged in its personal significance to the core of our being What happens to time A basic reinvestigation of the nature of temporality is called for Human creative endeavor especially literature may initiate it Having the human subject the creator at its center literature is essentially engaged in temporality whether that of the mind or of the world of life through the creative process of writing stage directing or the reader's and viewer's reception Out of the cross motivations that the creative mind filters in its temporal synthesis in touch with all the perspectives of existence there surges the deepest significance of life in humanity and culture But first of all life comes to light as timing itself in its logos Tymieniecka

Modernité de Saint-John Perse? Catherine Mayaux, 2001      Quête ésotérique et création poétique dans Anabase de Saint-John Perse Laurent Fels, 2009 Le poème Anabase 1924 constitue une réflexion approfondie sur la création poétique de Saint John Perse dont le présent ouvrage essaie de retracer les différentes tapes Autour de cette exploration des tendues d'un continent que l'on ne saurait localiser avec précision mais aussi d'un inconscient où germent les vers d'une poésie de l'ambiguïté se dégage un véritable rituel poétique que vient enrichir le goût pour cette nouvelle science apparue la fin du XIXe siècle qui est la psychanalyse Le poème qui tire son originalité de ses richesses soteriques philosophiques psychanalytiques et scientifiques devient un véritable lieu de rencontre d'inspirations et de savoirs divers L'étude que voici se donne un double objectif analyser le parcours soterique du poète c'est dire partir de l'anabase extérieure chevaucher et traverser un continent puis destruction des terres par la violence et finalement création d'une nouvelle ville pour aboutir cette anabase intérieure qui mène au Moi profond du poète c'est le point sensible du front où le poème s'inscrit Quelle importance faut-il accorder la dimension psychanalytique lorsque nous lisons Saint John Perse Le poème peut-il être fini comme un miroir de l'inconscient Voilà quelques-unes des interrogations qui ont guidé l'auteur du présent livre dans sa lecture intéressante et originale de cette œuvre extrêmement riche      Orphan Narratives Valérie Loichot, 2007 In Orphan Narratives Valérie Loichot investigates the fiction and poetry of four writers who emerged from the postslavery plantation world of the Americas William Faulkner USA douard Glissant Martinique Toni Morrison USA and Saint John Perse Guadeloupe to show how these descendants from slaves and from slaveholders wrote both in relation and in resistance to the violence of plantation slavery She uses the term orphan narrative to capture the ways in which this violence severed the child the text and history from a traceable origin Black or white male or female Antillean or American these writers share a common inheritance and transnational connection through which their texts maintain familial temporal and narrative patterns without having any central authority figure The author specifically cites Saint John Perse s loges 1911 Faulkner s Light in August 1932 Morrison s Song of Solomon 1977 and Glissant s La Case du commandeur 1981 as postslavery texts Where the actual family is dismembered these narrative accounts invent new familial links Reciprocally biological family ties endure despite the literal and discursive violence inflicted upon them Breaking new ground in trans American studies by juxtaposing texts from the francophone Lesser Antilles and the U S South Orphan Narratives will be a valuable addition to Caribbean American and postcolonial studies not to mention its appeal to scholars and students of Faulkner Glissant Morrison and Saint John Perse

French Prose in 2000 , 2021-10-18 French Prose in 2000 stems in some important measure from work presented in September 1998 at the International Colloquium on French and Francophone Literature in the 1990 s held at Dalhousie University A good number of papers given at that time and since revisited in the light of exchanges join here certain others specifically written for the purposes of this book Together they constitute a wide ranging and modally varied interrogation of the current state of French and francophone prose writing its multifaceted manners its richly divergent fascinations its many theoretical or philosophical groundings The book thus ceaselessly moves its attention from fictional biography to the roman noir from the writing of Glissant and Chamoiseau to that of the tonnants voyageurs from the powerful discourse of women such as Chawaf or Cond Ernaux or Germain Sallenave or Kristeva to that of writers as diverse in their modes as Le Clézio and Quignard Duras and Renaud Camus All chapters focus however in near exclusive measure on the prose production of the last ten or twelve years Le répertoire du conteur Félix Modock. James Arnold, 1997-08-15 Cross Cultural Studies is the culminating effort of a distinguished team of international scholars who have worked since the mid 1980s to create the most complete analysis of Caribbean literature ever undertaken Conceived as a major contribution to postcolonial studies cultural studies cultural anthropology and regional studies of the Caribbean and the Americas Cross Cultural Studies illuminates the interrelations between and among Europe the Caribbean islands Africa and the American continents from the late fifteenth century to the present Scholars from five continents bring to bear on the most salient issues of Caribbean literature theoretical and critical positions that are currently in the forefront of discussion in literature the arts and public policy Among the major issues treated at length in Cross Cultural Studies are The history and construction of racial inequality in Caribbean colonization The origins and formation of literatures in various Creoles The gendered literary representation of the Caribbean region The political and ideological appropriation of Caribbean history in creating the idea of national culture in North and South America Europe and Africa The role of the Caribbean in contemporary theories of Modernism and the Postmodern The decentering of such canonical authors as Shakespeare The vexed but inevitable connectedness of Caribbean literature with both its former colonial metropolises and its geographical neighbors Contributions to Cross Cultural Studies give a concrete cultural and historical analysis of such contemporary critical terms as hybridity transculturation and the carnivalesque which have so often been taken out of context and employed in narrowly ideological contexts Two important theories of the simultaneous unity and diversity of Caribbean literature and culture propounded by Antonio Benitez Rojo and douard Glissant receive extended treatment that places them strategically in the debate over multiculturalism in postcolonial societies and in the context of chaos theory A contribution by Benitez Rojo permits the reader to test the theory through his critical practice Divided into nine thematic and methodological sections followed by a complete index to the names and dates of authors and significant historical figures discussed Cross Cultural Studies will be an indispensable resource for every library and a necessary handbook for scholars teachers and advanced students of the Caribbean region

Modernism after Postcolonialism Mara de Gennaro, 2020-11-24 A polemical reaction against a trend in global modernist studies which still privileges European and Anglophone texts Existing studies of literary modernism generally read Anglophone Atlantic texts through the lens of critical theories emanating from Europe and North America In Modernism after Postcolonialism Mara de Gennaro undertakes a comparative Anglophone Francophone study invoking theoretical frameworks from Gayatri Spivak douard Glissant Fran oise Verg s Michel Rolph Trouillot Dipesh Chakrabarty and others Examining transnational poetics of comparison that contest the comparative practices of colonialist racist and ethno nationalist discourses the book treats these poetics as models for a creolist critical method of reading one that searches out unpredictable mutually generative textual relations obscured by geographic and linguistic divides In each chapter de Gennaro pairs a canonical English language modernist writer Gertrude Stein T S Eliot E M Forster Virginia Woolf with a postcolonial writer Aim Cesaire Glissant Patrick Chamoiseau J M Coetzee Edwidge Danticat interpreting major works of prewar and interwar modernism in light of postcolonial and Francophone literature cultural theory and historiography Read together these texts suggest a turn sometimes subtle or conflicted in earlier Atlantic modernist texts while usually more overt in later Caribbean and postcolonial texts toward comparative forms marked by irresolution and a wavering sense of authority With the rise of world literature and global modernist studies it becomes all the more pressing to examine how comparative forms can alert us to unspoken and misrecognized relations while also confronting us with the difficulty of representing the Other By bringing into relation these ostensibly unconnected often discrepant texts de Gennaro challenges entrenched territorial habits of literary meaning An aspirationally nonterritorial comparative literature she argues diverges not only from Eurocentric formalist approaches but also from global comparatisms that emphasize incommensurabilities to the point of eliding significant textual and contextual connections Drawing on interdisciplinary postcolonial efforts especially in the social sciences to deterritorialize categories of identity culture and community Modernism after Postcolonialism dispenses with outdated modernist and postcolonial paradigms to reveal how the anxious inconclusive comparisons of transnational modernist poetics can call us to imagine new solidarities across bounded territories      Saint-John Perse Roger Little,1976      Writing Across Worlds John Connell,Russell King,Paul White,2002-11-01 International migration has long been a dominant feature of world literature from both post industrial and developing countries The increasing demands of the global economic system and continued political instability in many of the world s region have highlighted this shifting map of the world s peoples Yet political concern for the larger scale economic and social impact of migration has effectively obscured the nature of the migratory nature of the migratory experience itself the emotions and practicalities of departure travel arrival and the attempt to rebuild a home Writing Across Worlds explores an extraordinary range of migration literaturesm from letters and diaries to journalistic articles autobiographies and fiction in order to analyse the reality of the migrant s experience The sheer range of writings Irish Friulian Italian Jewish and South Asian British Gastarbeiter literature from Germany Pied noir French Algerian and French West Indian writing Carribbean novels Slovene emigrant texts Japanese Canadian writing migration in American novels narratives from Australia South Africa Samoa and others illustrate the diversity of global migratory experience and emphasise the social context of literature The geographic and literary range of Writing Across Worlds makes this collection an invaluable analysis of migration giving voice to the hope pain nostalgia and triumph of lives lived in other places      La transgression des couleurs Roger Toumson,1985-01-01
