Genocide in Libya Ali Abdullatif Ahmida,2020-08-06 Winner of the L Carl Brown AIMS Book Prize in North African Studies 2022 This original research on the forgotten Libyan genocide specifically recovers the hidden history of the fascist Italian concentration camps 1929 1934 through the oral testimonies of Libyan survivors This book links the Libyan genocide through cross cultural and comparative readings to the colonial roots of the Holocaust and genocide studies Between 1929 and 1934 thousands of Libyans lost their lives directly murdered and victim to Italian deportations and internments They were forcibly removed from their homes marched across vast tracks of deserts and mountains and confined behind barbed wire in 16 concentration camps It is a story that Libyans have recorded in their Arabic oral history and narratives while remaining hidden and unexplored in a systematic fashion and never in the manner that has allowed us to comprehend and begin to understand the extent of their existence Based on the survivors testimonies which took over ten years of fieldwork and research to document this new and original history of the genocide is a key resource for readers interested in genocide and Holocaust studies colonial and postcolonial studies and African and Middle Eastern studies The Changing World of a Bombay Muslim Community, 1870 - 1945 Salima Tyabji,2023-07-09 Muslims formed a disparate and unwieldy community in Bombay in the nineteenth century The Islam that was professedly held in common by various groups could barely provide a sense of unity or cohesion to people so widely diverse in terms of language customs and also of forms and practices of belief By the middle of the nineteenth century a class of wealthy ship owners ship builders and merchants belonging to the varied communities that constituted the city of which Muslims formed an important part had emerged This class was outward looking modern and generally reformist in outlook Gujarati or Maharashtrian its goals of social reform education as well as political awareness were gradually beginning to be perceived as goals held across communities and increasingly across different regions The questions that were being raised in the social turmoil of the period amongst Hindus were over issues of female education the age of marriage widow remarriage and female seclusion These issues were not foreign to the Muslim community and the part played by Muslim leaders in Bombay in discussing and negotiating them was not an insignificant one taking into account the size and relative backwardness of the community Within this context this book traces the evolving identity of a Bombay family and its changing social and political views in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries using three main sources their family journals an individual memoir journal and letters written home from Europe
