Salmons Journey And More Northwest Stories:

Salmon's Journey Robert James Challenger, 2011-03-01 This fourth collection of short stories written by Robert James Jim Challenger combines the timeless appeal of Aesop's fables with the oral storytelling traditions of First Nations and other cultures. Each story stimulates conversation about the moral woven within. Go along on Salmon's journey. Learn how Hermit Crab found a new home. Discover why Halibut always looks up. Find out why we should be kind to Snake Eagle's Spirit shows us how our life's energy lives on forever. As appealing to parents and teachers as they are to children, Challenger's stories are a wonderful way to convey values of respect, cooperation, and kindness. Grizzly's Home Robert James

Challenger, 2011-03-01 In this latest collection of beautifully illustrated easy-to-read fables, Robert James Challenger continues to teach children practical moral lessons about life in today's complicated world. Owl shows Grandson that a problem will only go away when each person involved becomes part of the solution. Little Mallard Duck finds out the hard way that things change over time and that even when we think we are not ready, it may be time to move on. Steelhead Trout learns that instead of swimming away from those who are different, it is much better to respect their points of view and help them to understand our own. All of Jim's books are perfect tools to teach children how to live in harmony with others and are widely used by parents and teachers to stimulate children to talk about their experiences. Conveying values of respect, cooperation, and kindness, their wisdom and beauty will leave a lasting impression on readers young and old. Orca's

Family Robert James Challenger, 2011-03-01 This collection of west coast fables combines the approach of Aesop with the oral tradition of First Nations storytellers. Woodpecker shows how to be a true friend. Beaver demonstrates how to achieve dreams through hard work. Rainbow Trout finds that all things in nature have a purpose. Parents, grandparents, and teachers will embrace Robert James Challenger's stories which, like all fables, promote cultural values and respect among generations.

Salmon's Journey Robert James Challenger, 2001 Grade level 4 5 6 7 e i Camping with Kids Jayne Seagrave, 2004 Children have certainly altered my camping life, writes Jayne Seagrave in this latest addition to her popular camping series. She rises to the challenge wonderfully, however, and with this detailed guide in hand, so will many other camping enthusiasts who feel daunted by the prospect of camping with kids. Seagrave covers it all, from camping while pregnant to camping with pre-teens and all age brackets in between. For this guide, she has chosen her favourite family-oriented government-owned campgrounds in B.C. as well as a small selection in Alberta. Each entry provides historical, environmental, and recreational information. As always, Seagrave offers candid first-hand experiences and practical tips on what to bring, what to expect at each campground, how to avoid potential hazards, and the ins and outs of the reservation system. With over 20,000 fans who have bought her camping books and a range of media personnel who have dubbed her their experts, Jayne may know more about B.C. campgrounds than any other mother in the province. Eagle's Reflection Robert James Challenger, 2011-03-01 This collection of short stories is based on traditional values important to us all: respect, cooperation, and kindness. Robert
