Salon Des Artistes Independants :

Salons of the "Indépendants," 1892-1895 Société des artistes indépendants (Paris, France), 1981 Rivals and Conspirators Fae Brauer, 2014-07-08 Once the State run Salon in Paris closed an array of independent Salons mushroomed starting with the French Artists Salon and Women s Salon in 1881 followed by the Independent Artists Salon National Salon of Fine Arts and Autumn Salon Offering an unparalleled choice of art identities and alliances together with undreamed of opportunities for sales commissions prizes and art criticism these great Salons guaranteed the centripetal and centrifugal power of Paris as the modern art centre Lured by the prospect of being exhibited annually in Salons the size of Biennales today a huge number and national diversity of artists from the Australian Rupert Bunny to the Spaniards Pablo Picasso and Juan Gris flocked to Paris Yet by no means were these Salons equal in power nor did they work consensually to forge this modern art centre Formed on the basis of their different cultural politics constantly they rivalled one another for State acquisitions and commissions exhibition places and spaces awards and every other means of enhancing their legitimacy By no means were the avant garde salons those that most succeeded Instead as this cultural political history demonstrates the French Artists and National Fine Art Salons were the most successful with the genderist French Artists Salon being the most powerful and official Despite the renown today of Neo Impressionism Art Nouveau Fauvism Cubism and Orphism the most powerful artists in this modern art centre were not Sonia Delaunay mile Gall Paul Signac Henri Matisse or even Picasso but such Academicians as L on Bonnat William Bouguereau Fernand Cormon Edouard Detaille Gabriel Ferrier Jean Paul Laurens Luc Oliver Merson and Aim Morot who exhibited at the official Salon supported by the machinery of the State In its exposure of the rivalry conflict and struggle between the Salons and their artists this is an unprecedented history of dissension It also exposes how just below the welcoming internationalist veneer of this modern art centre intense persecutionist paranoia lay festering Whenever France s civilizing mission seemed culturally commercially or colonially threatened it erupted in waves of nationalist xenophobia turning artistic rivalry into bitter enmity In exposing how rivals became transmuted into conspirators ultimately this book reveals a paradox resonant in histories that celebrate the international triumph of French modern art that this magnetic centre which began by welcoming international modernists ended by attacking them for undermining its cultural supremacy contaminating its civilizing mission and politically persecuting the very modernist culture for which it has received historical renown Exhibiting Abstraction Christina Bartosch, 2025-05-20 The time around 1910 has entered art history as the moment when abstraction was invented However where and when works of non figurative art became present in the public eye has been afforded little attention to date Exhibiting Abstraction is the first publication to be devoted entirely to the presentation of abstract art between 1908 and 1915 It uncovers strategies for the dissemination of early abstract painting in exhibitions with the aid of a register of exhibited works by Giacomo Balla Umberto Boccioni Wassily Kandinsky Frantisek Kupka Kazimir Malevich Piet Mondrian and Francis Picabia shown to the public within this period and an analysis of the artists exhibition activities The key role played by art exhibitions in the works introduction and dissemination is highlighted

Academics, Pompier, Official Artists and the Arrière-garde Natalie Adamson, Toby Norris, 2020-06-12 Academics Pompier Official Artists and the Arrière-garde Defining Modern and Traditional in France 1900 1960 is a collection of eight essays and a scholarly introduction by established and emerging scholars that challenges the continuing modernist slant of twentieth century art history The intention is not to perpetuate the vulgar opposition between avant garde and reactionary art that characterized early twentieth century discourse and has marked much subsequent historical writing but rather to investigate the complex relationship that both innovative and conservative artists had to the concept of tradition How did artists and art critics conceive of tradition in relation to modernity What was the role of an artist's institutional positioning in determining expectations for his or her art What light is thrown on the structure of the French art world by considering artists from abroad who worked in Paris How did the war alter modernist and avant garde paradigms and force crucial changes upon art production in the postwar period to 1960 Particular attention is paid to the terms academic pompier official and arrière-garde originally used to situate the more conservative artists and works as second rate or as the negative foil to the assumed radicalism of the avant garde By re-evaluating the work of artists pushed to the historical margins by such polemical descriptors and by proposing alternative understandings of the aesthetic economic institutional and political factors that drive our ideas of avant gardism and the modernist narrative in France this collection of essays offers new routes to explore the terrain of twentieth century art in France

No Man's Land Kathryn A. Young, Sarah M. McKinnon, 2017-10-13 What force of will and circumstance drove a woman from a comfortable life painting china tea services to one of hardship and loneliness in the battle zones of France and Belgium following the Great War For western Canadian artist Mary Riter Hamilton 1868 1954 art was her life's passion Her tale is one of tragedy and adventure from homestead beginnings to genteel drawing rooms in Winnipeg Victoria and Vancouver to Berlin and Parisian art schools to Vimy and Ypres and finally to illness and poverty in old age No Man's Land is the first biographical study of Hamilton whose work can be found in galleries and art museums throughout Canada Young and McKinnon's meticulous research in unpublished private collections brings to light new correspondence between Hamilton and her friends revealing the importance of female networks to an artist's well-being Her letters from abroad in particular bring a woman's perspective into the immediate post war period and give voice to trying conditions Hamilton's career is situated within the context of her peers Florence Carlyle Emily Carr and Sophie Pemberton with whom she shared a Canadian and European experience

French Women Orientalist Artists, 1861-1956 Mary Kelly, 2021-07-26 This book is the first full length study dedicated to French women Orientalist artists Mary Kelly has gathered primary documentation relating to seventy two women artists whose works of art can be placed in the canon of French Orientalism between 1861 and 1956 Bringing these artists together for the first time and presenting close contextual analyses of works of art attention is given to artists cross cultural interactions with painted sculpted representations of the Maghreb particularly in Algeria Tunisia and Morocco Using an interdisciplinary open platform of discussion approach Kelly builds on established theory which places emphases on the gendered gaze This entails a discussion on women's painted perspectives of and contacts with Muslim women as well as various Maghrebi cultures and land all the while remaining mindful of the subject position of the French artist and the problematic issues which can arise when discussing European made ethnographic scenes Kelly argues that French women's perspectives of the Maghreb differed from the male gaze and were informed by their artistic training and social positions in Europe In so doing French women's socio-cultural modernity is also examined Moreover executed between 1861 and 1956 the works of art presented show influences of Modernism therefore this book also pays close attention to progressive Realism and Naturalism in art and the Orientalist shift into Modernist subject matter and form Through this research into French women Orientalists Kelly engages with important discussions on the crossing view of the historical female other with the cultural other artistic hybridity and influence in art as well as the postcolonial response to French activities in colonial Algeria and the protectorates of Tunisia and Morocco On giving focus to women's art and the impact of cross cultural interchanges this book rethinks Orientalism in French art This

Jewish Dealers and the European Art Market, c. 1860–1940 Silvia Davoli,Tom Stammers,2025-01-23 Before the tragedy of the Holocaust many of the leading art and antiques dealers across Europe were Jewish establishing dynamic cross Channel international and transatlantic networks Aside from a few famous examples however we are only at the beginning of exploring the diversity of Jewish dealers commercial and cultural worlds and reflecting on the particular conditions that made possible their dramatic expansion within the profession Adopting a wider geography than any previous study this book brings together a team of distinguished international contributors to consider Jewish art dealers as an interconnected cohort tied together by common strategies and a shared vulnerability After an extended historiographical introduction the volume presents case studies and trends from 1860 1940 including Jewish family businesses in Western Europe the role of Jews as mediators of art from East Asia the antisemitism and suspicion faced by Jewish dealers Jews as theorists exhibition makers and promoters of modern art and the geographical mobility and professional reinvention of Jewish dealers in times of economic and political crisis With a wide variety of illustrations including paintings decorative arts historic photographs and archival material the volume adopts a mix of methodological approaches to analyse a key chapter in Jewish cultural history and in the history of the international art market Includes Afterword by Charles Dellheim author of Belonging and Betrayal How Jews Made the Art World Modern 2021

Pablo Picasso Dr Enrique Mallen,2023-03-18 Exactly when Matisse and Picasso first met is open to debate Their earliest encounter may have taken place during the Matisse retrospective at Galerie Druet right before the 1906 Salon des Indépendants The latter marked the first time all the Fauves exhibited together The centerpiece was Matisse s monumental Le bonheur de vivre Leo Stein bought the painting while the Salon was still running regarding it as the most important work of our time This opinion undoubtedly annoyed Picasso Jealousy of the other man s success goaded him to greater innovations In his view the new art would have to match the sense of endless discovery that science and technology were offering The 1900 Exposition Universelle had already shown the latest marvels in engineering If painting wanted to keep the public's attention instead of merely reproducing what the eye saw it had to generate its own reality on the surface of the canvas a reality more vivid than and bearing only the most cursory resemblance to anything found in nature Matisse was also a catalyst in that he was the one who introduced Picasso to African sculptures Max Jacob recalls Matisse took a black wooden statuette from a table and showed it to Picasso It was the first piece of Negro wooden art Picasso held onto it all evening The next morning when I arrived at the studio the floor was strewn with sheets of paper and on each sheet was drawn the head of a woman all of them were more or less the same one eye an oversized nose attached to the mouth and a lock of hair on the shoulders Cubism was thus born cited in Janine Warnod Washboat Days New York Grossman Publishers Warnod 1972 p 128 "Painting, Politics and the Struggle for the ?ole de Paris, 1944?964 " Natalie Adamson, 2017-07-05 Painting Politics and the Struggle for the ole de Paris 1944 1964 is the first book dedicated to the postwar or nouvelle ole de Paris It challenges the customary relegation of the ole de Paris to the footnotes not by arguing for some hitherto hidden merit for the art and ideas associated with this school but by establishing how and why the ole de Paris was a highly significant vehicle for artistic and political debate The book presents a sustained historical study of how this school was constituted by the paintings of a diverse group of artists by the combative field of art criticism and by the curatorial policies of galleries and state exhibitions By thoroughly mining the extensive resources of the newspaper and art journal press gallery and government archives artists writings and interviews with surviving artists and art critics the book traces the artists exhibitions and art critical debates that made the ole de Paris a zone of aesthetic and political conflict Through setting the ole de Paris into its artistic social and political context Natalie Adamson demonstrates how it functioned as the defining force in French postwar art in its defence of the tradition of easel painting as well as an international point of reference for the expansion of modernism In doing so she presents a wholly new perspective on the vexed relationships between painting politics and national identity in France during the two decades following World War II Latin Quarter ,

The Joy of Life Margaret Werth, 2002-11-05 Werth weaves together complex analyses of these paintings and others by Manet Gauguin Seurat Cezanne and less well known artists with a consideration of their critical reception literary parallels and the social and cultural milieu She moves from artistic concerns with tradition and avant gardism decoration and social art composition and figuration to contemporary debates over human origins and social organization BOOK JACKET A Private Passion Stephan Wolohojian, Anna Tahinci, 2003 For the Winthrop collection's international debut exhibition curators at the Fogg Art Museum of the Harvard University Art Museums headed by Stephan Wolohojian organized the selection and invited more than sixty specialists to write on artworks in their particular area of expertise Works include such highlights in their creator's oeuvre as Jacques Louis David's sketchbooks for The Coronation of Napoleon and the Crowning of Josephine Theodore Gericault's Mutiny on the Raft of the Medusa Vincent van Gogh's The Blue Cart Jean Auguste Dominique Ingres's Odalisque with the Slave William Blake's illustrations for the Divine Comedy Dante Gabriel Rossetti's

Blessed Damozel and James Abbott McNeill Whistler's Nocturne in Blue and Silver In addition an essay by Wolohojian provides a fascinating and informative description of Winthrop and the growth of his collection BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Resisting Abstraction Gordon Hughes,2014-11-25 The first English language study of the influential French painter Robert Delaunay to appear in thirty years Delaunay has long been appreciated as one of the leading Parisian artists of the early twentieth century And art historians have consistently viewed his vibrantly colored paintings starting in 1912 as early experiments in abstraction Hughes however tautly argues that Delaunay was not just one of the earliest artists to work in pure abstraction but the earliest one to do so The colorful optically driven canvases that Delaunay produced set him apart from the more ethereal abstraction of Kandinsky Mondrian Malevich and Kupka with whom he is often clubbed and whose spiritual motivations he rejected Delaunay's paintings were grounded in material sensation and reflected the modern optical science of his time They had nothing in common with the idealism that drove Kandinsky and the others As a result his work set the stage not only for the kind of abstraction that would come to dominate painting in the mid twentieth century Pollock Stella Still Kline it also inspired the critics who theorized and elevated that particular strain of modernist practice Consuming Painting Allison Deutsch,2021-02-01 In Consuming Painting Allison Deutsch challenges the pervasive view that Impressionism was above all about visual experience Focusing on the language of food and consumption as they were used by such prominent critics as Baudelaire and Zola she writes new histories for familiar works by Manet Monet Caillebotte and Pissarro and creates fresh possibilities for experiencing and interpreting them Examining the culinary metaphors that the most influential critics used to express their attraction or disgust toward painting Deutsch rethinks French modern life painting in relation to the visceral reactions that these works evoked in their earliest publics Writers posed viewing as analogous to ingestion and used comparisons to food to describe the appearance of paint and the painter's process The food metaphors they chose were aligned with specific female types such as red meat for sexualized female flesh confections for fashionably made up women and hearty vegetables for agricultural laborers These culinary figures of speech Deutsch argues provide important insights into both the fabrication of the feminine and the construction of masculinity in nineteenth century France Consuming Painting exposes the social politics at stake in the deeply gendered metaphors of sense and sensation Original and convincing Consuming Painting upends traditional narratives of the sensory reception of modern painting This trailblazing book is essential reading for specialists in nineteenth century art and criticism gender studies and modernism Causeries en France Edith Elting Pattou,1914
