Characters : Narrator, Santa Claus, Elves

Setting : Santa's workshop at the North Pole

(The Elves are walking around the workshop holding placards saying 'No pay, no work'.)

Narrator: This year, Santa will probably not be able to deliver all presents on time because there are some problems at the North Pole. Let's find out what's happening.

Elves (together): No pay, no work! No pay, no work! No pay, no work!

Elf 1 : We, the Elves, are not happy!

Elf 2 : In fact, we are very angry!

Elf 3 : We are working very hard.

Elf 4 : But we don't get paid.

Elf 5 : We want a salary!

Elf 6 : We want paid holidays!

Elf 7 : We want to retire at 45!

Elf 8 : We want free healthcare.

Elf 1 : We want a company sled.

Elf 2 : We want free lunch at work.

Elf 3 : We want 3 months off every year.

Narrator: Look who's coming in. It's Santa. Let's see what he has to say about this.

Santa: Ho, ho, ho! What's going on here? Why aren't you working?

Elf 4 : We want to get paid, Santa.

Elf 5 : And we want a Christmas bonus.

Elf 6 : And free ice cream.

Santa: Wait a minute. I'm Santa. You're working for Santa and I don't charge children for the presents they get. Where would I get money to pay you? I don't make any profit.

Elves (together): No pay, no work! No pay, no work! No pay, no work!

Short Plays:

The Best American Short Plays 2018-2019 John Patrick Bray, 2021-06-01 Pulitzer Prize winning playwright Paula Vogel once said that theater helps us learn how to be comfortable with being uncomfortable with each other. Revolving around the theme of this is who we are, the one act plays in this latest edition of the Best American Short Plays series now in its ninth decade explore the thoughtful ways in which playwrights are wrestling to make sense of our world today. The selected plays reflect how we perform our identities private and public and how we negotiate who we are with others who often have different perspectives, perspectives that make us uncomfortable. The theme of this collection is topical and apt as our country continues to shore up its borders along party lines from pride parades to strict abortion laws from inclusivity in education curricula to children in detention centers at the US Mexico border. Each of the plays presents a clear reflection of who we are and who we aspire to be as individuals and as a nation. The styles of the plays also reflect different approaches to storytelling: two characters, four characters, a single setting, multiple settings, or a utopian nowhere. The rich and compelling characters try to work out their differences and overcome obstacles using humor and a sense of magic that comes with simple moments of human connection. This is who we are: people who are grappling with the desire to be understood, the hope to be loved and accepted, and to allow that hope to shape a larger sense of who we could be if we continue to work and listen. The Best Short Plays 1986 Howard Stein, 2000-02 Applause Books. These are sharp, tightly constructed pieces with small casts as readable as they areactable; just the sort of thing community players and other small ensembles will find practical. Booklist

Twenty-Five Short Plays Dana Coen, 2017-08-15 In the fall of 2011 The Long Story Shorts One Act Festival was launched featuring performances of short plays written by undergraduate students in the Writing for the Screen and Stage minor an interdisciplinary dramatic writing program housed in the Department of Communication at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Marking the first five years of the festival this anthology showcases works written to be performed in ten minutes with a small production budget The festival gives students a unique opportunity to participate in a collaborative developmental environment led by experienced faculty and professional actors and directors and the plays included here rise to the occasion Whether they are humorous poignant powerful or provocative they demonstrate why the short play form has become so popular why this event has become one of the highlights of the university's cultural scene and why the Writing for the Screen and Stage program has thrived Eleven Short Plays William Inge, 1990 THE STORIES TO BOBOLINK FOR HER SPIRIT Short play about the dedicated autograph hunters who lie in wait for celebrities outside of one of New York's famous restaurants 1 man 2 women 2 boys 2 girls PEOPLE IN THE WIND Midnight a bus station Volume 7: Short Plays & Sketches Vijay Padaki, The principle of economy of force applies even at the stage of conceiving a play Many good ideas can be put across on the stage in a short play or a one act play They need not be put on the rack and stretched to a full length script It is cruelty to the audience This is the reason so many full length plays in English in India are bright and attractive in the first half an hour and run out of steam after the intermission Not surprisingly many movie scripts are the same We have avoided the label one act plays preferring to call this compilation short plays One act plays had a historical context in the West and served that context well The context is different today especially in countries like India where the ecosystem of theatre performances makes its own demands on the performers The short play has a legitimate place here A one act play will qualify as a short play but not all short plays are one act plays And then there are the sketches How does one define a sketch Theatre folks have not found a satisfactory definition yet The last sketch in this Volume Ringaling has no spoken word It is done entirely with moves and sound effects a wide variety of ring tones of mobile phones Four Short Plays Jerome Kass, 1967 THE STORIES PRINCESS REBECCA BIRNBAUM In the living room of the Birnbaum's Bronx apartment Rebecca's mother her married sister and her piano teacher wait eagerly for Rebecca's appearance in the dress she has chosen for her first prom When she The Collected Short Plays of Thornton Wilder Thornton Wilder, 1997 Volume One of the collected
