Legacies of the Homeland Paramjeet Singh, 2018-04-07 This book is not intended to provide a list of the 100 best books ever written and published by Punjabi authors. Given the sheer range of books written by Punjabi authors and the unpredictability of individual taste, any such definitive list is quite impossible. Secondly, the choice has been restricted to books that were written by them either in Punjabi, Hindi or Urdu but have been translated into English. Thus, personal choice, restricted by availability, has dictated this selection. The choice of books includes autobiographies, novels, short stories, poems and plays. Research books, religious books and books written originally in English have not been included. From the Introduction, I am amazed at the scholarship, the passion and the love with which Paramjeet Singh has written this book. It will be a reference volume for all times. Nirupama Dutt, Poet, Journalist, Translator. Mr. Singh's effort is commendable as he is making available some of the rarest of gems of Punjabi literature to the non-Punjabi readers. I congratulate Mr. Singh on putting together this selection and hope that non-Punjabi readers of this book would find new horizons of cultural experience opening up before them. Of course, for Punjabi readers, it may be yet another opportunity to experience a sense of genuine pride in their rich legacy of language, literature and culture. Prof. Rana Nayar

Spaces of the Poor Hans-Christian Petersen, 2014-04-15 What do we know about the urban impoverished areas of the world and the living environment of its inhabitants? How did the urban poor cope with their surroundings? How did they interpret and adopt urban space in order to fight against their position at the periphery of society? This volume takes up these questions and investigates how far approaches of cultural sciences can contribute to overcome the exoticization of the ghetto. Loïc Wacquant and instead to look at the heterogeneity and individuality behind the facades. It opens new perspectives for the research of poverty and inequalities that do not stop at collective categories.

A Death in Delhi Gordon C. Roadarmel, 2023-11-15 A Death in Delhi: Modern Hindi Short Stories offers a compelling glimpse into the evolution of contemporary Hindi literature through fifteen carefully selected short stories. Reflecting the anxieties, alienation and transformations of urban middle-class life, these narratives explore themes of estrangement, dislocation and the tension between tradition and modernity. The stories delve into intimate emotions and societal challenges, portraying a world where individuality collides with the forces of a rapidly changing society. Rooted in the unique context of Indian life, the collection also highlights a universal resonance connecting readers to shared human experiences. Spanning the work of writers from the 1950s and 1960s, this anthology captures a pivotal moment in Hindi literature when storytelling shifted toward introspection and realism. The included stories illustrate how modern Hindi authors moved beyond traditional forms to embrace experimental techniques and taboo themes, reflecting a growing sense of skepticism and disillusionment with societal norms. Through vivid translation and a nuanced introduction, this volume introduces readers to the rich tapestry of Hindi short fiction and its relevance in both the Indian and global literary landscapes This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1972
