Cinema Under National Reconstruction Hye Seung Chung,2024 Drawing upon primary documents from the Korean Film Archive s digitized database and framing South Korean film censorship from a transnational perspective Cinema Under National Reconstruction redefines censorship as a productive feedback system where both state regulators and filmmakers played active roles in shaping the new narrative or sentiment of the nation on the big screen

Fictions of Dissent Sigrid Anderson Cordell,2015-10-06 Fin de si cle fiction by British female aesthetes and American women regionalists stages moments of rebellion when female characters rise up and insist on the right to maintain control of their creations Cordell asserts that these revolutionary acts constitute a transatlantic conversation about aesthetic practice and creative ownership Balboa Films Jean-Jacques Jura,Rodney Norman Bardin II,2015-08-13 From 1913 through 1918 Long Beach California was home to the largest independent film company in the world the largely forgotten Balboa Studio Founder Herbert M Horkheimer bought the studio from Edison Company in 1913 and by 1915 Balboa s expenses exceeded 2 500 a day and its output hit 15 500 feet of film per week Bert Bracken Fatty Arbuckle Henry King Baby Marie Osborne Thomas Ince and William Desmond Taylor began their careers with the studio In 1918 Horkheimer stunned the industry by declaring bankruptcy shutting down Balboa and walking away from moviemaking The closing of the studio effectively ended Long Beach s runs as a major film location and left many wondering about the true reasons behind Horkheimer s decision Most of Balboa s films have been lost and little has until now been written about the studio This book first explores the history of filmmaking in Long Beach and then fully details the story of Balboa The extensive filmography includes length copyright date when available cast and credits and a plot summary Celebrating Women Choi Chatterjee,2012-02-07 The first International Women s Day was celebrated in Copenhagen in 1910 and adopted by the Bolsheviks in 1913 as a means to popularize their political program among factory women in Russia By 1918 Women s Day had joined May Day and the anniversary of the October Revolution as the most important national holidays on the calendar Choi Chatterjee analyzes both Bolshevik attitudes towards women and invented state rituals surrounding Women s Day in Russia and the early Soviet Union to demonstrate the ways in which these celebrations were a strategic form of cultural practice that marked the distinctiveness of Soviet civilization legitimized the Soviet mission for women and articulated the Soviet construction of gender Unlike previous scholars who have criticized the Bolsheviks for repudiating their initial commitment to Marxist feminism Chatterjee has discovered considerable continuity in the way that they imagined the ideal woman and her role in a communist society Through the years Women s Day celebrations temporarily empowered women as they sang revolutionary songs acted as strong protagonists in plays and marched in processions carrying slogans about gender equality In speeches state policies reports historical sketches plays cartoons and short stories the passive Russian woman was transformed into an iconic Soviet Woman one who could survive improvise and prevail over the most challenging of circumstances Library Manual Marie Antoinette Toser,1964 Public Pages Marcy Schwartz,2018-05-02 Public reading programs are flourishing in many Latin American cities in the new millennium They defy the conception of reading as solitary and private by literally taking literature to the streets to create new communities of readers From institutional and official to informal and spontaneous the reading programs all use public space distribute creative writing to a mass public foster collective rather than individual reading and provide access to literature in unconventional arenas The first international study of contemporary print culture in the Americas Public Pages reveals how recent cultural policy and collective literary reading intervene in public space to promote social integration in cities in Colombia Argentina Brazil Mexico and Chile Marcy Schwartz looks at broad institutional programs such as UNESCO World Book Capital campaigns and the distribution of free books on public transportation as well as local initiatives that produce handmade books out of recycled materials known as cartoneras and display banned books at former military detention centers She maps the connection between literary reading and the development of cultural citizenship in Latin America with municipalities cultural centers and groups of ordinary citizens harnessing reading as an activity both social and literary Along with other strategies for reclaiming democracy after decades of authoritarian regimes and political violence as well as responding to neoliberal economic policies these acts of reading collectively in public settings invite civic participation and affirm local belonging
