Nelson,2014-08-15 Across the political spectrum unwed fatherhood is denounced as one of the leading social problems of today Doing the Best I Can is a strikingly rich paradigm shifting look at fatherhood among inner city men often dismissed as deadbeat dads Kathryn Edin and Timothy J Nelson examine how couples in challenging straits come together and get pregnant so quickly without planning The authors chronicle the high hopes for forging lasting family bonds that pregnancy inspires and pinpoint the fatal flaws that often lead to the relationship's demise They offer keen insight into a radical redefinition of family life where the father-child bond is central and parental ties are peripheral Drawing on years of fieldwork Doing the Best I Can shows how mammoth economic and cultural changes have transformed the meaning of fatherhood among the urban poor Intimate interviews with more than 100 fathers make real the significant obstacles faced by low income men at every step in the familial process from the difficulties of romantic relationships to decision making dilemmas at conception to the often celebratory moment of birth and finally to the hardships that accompany the early years of the child's life and beyond

Essentially a Mother Jennifer Hendricks, 2023-05-09 Essentially a Mother argues that the law of pregnancy and motherhood has been overrun by sexist ideology As Jennifer Hendricks documents courts have shockingly held over the past half century that a pregnant woman's nine months of gestation hardly count in her claim to parent the child she bears and that a man's brief moment of ejaculation matters more than a woman's labor Armed with such dubious arguments courts have stripped women of the right to an abortion treated surrogate mothers as mere vessels with no moral rights to their offspring and handed biological fathers even those who became fathers through rape automatic rights over women and their children The law of pregnancy is now infected with a misogyny that has brought tragedy to innumerable women and even to many men who don't meet the traditional definition of a father In this incisive and groundbreaking book Hendricks argues that feminists must work to overthrow this skewed value system that subordinates women devalues caregiving and strips many of us of one of our most fundamental rights the right to parent
