Another Japan Is Possible Jennifer Chan,2008 This book looks at the emergence of internationally linked Japanese nongovernmental advocacy networks that have grown rapidly since the 1990s in the context of three conjunctural forces neoliberalism militarism and nationalism It connects three disparate literatures on the global justice movement on Japanese civil society and on global citizenship education Through the narratives of fifty activists in eight overlapping issue areas global governance labor food sovereignty peace HIV AIDS gender minority and human rights and youth Another Japan is Possible examines the genesis of these new social movements their critiques of neoliberalism militarism and nationalism their local regional and global connections their relationships with the Japanese government and their role in constructing a new identity of the Japanese as global citizens Its purpose is to highlight the interactions between the global and the local that is how international human rights and global governance issues resonate within Japan and how in turn local alternatives are articulated by Japanese advocacy groups and to analyze citizenship from a postnational and postmodern perspective

In This Together Danielle Metcalfe-Chenail,2016-04-12 What is real reconciliation This collection of essays from both Indigenous and non Indigenous contributors from across Canada welcomes readers into a timely healing conversation one we ve longed for but before now have had a hard time approaching These reflective and personal pieces come from journalists writers academics visual artists filmmakers city planners and lawyers all of whom share their personal light bulb moments regarding when and how they grappled with the harsh reality of colonization in Canada and its harmful legacy Without flinching they look deeply and honestly at their own experiences and assumptions about race and racial divides in Canada in hopes that the rest of the country will do the same Featuring a candid conversation between CBC radio host Shelagh Rogers and Chief Justice Sinclair this book acts as a call for all Canadians to make reconciliation and decolonization a priority and reminds us that once we know the history we all have the responsibility and ability to make things better The Journal of Education ,1941 Special Report ,1986
