Show And Tell Identity As Performance In U S Latino A Fiction:

Show and Tell Karen Christian, 1997 What elements are present for a body of writing to be considered Latina o Through the analysis of nine recent Latina o novels Karen Christian melds the theory of performativity with the latest scholarship on ethnicity and ethnic literature to create a framework for viewing identity as a continuous process that cannot be reduced to static categories Chicana/o and Latina/o Fiction Ylce Irizarry, 2016-02-15 In this new study Ylce Irizarry moves beyond literature that prioritizes assimilation to examine how contemporary fiction depicts being Cuban Dominican Mexican or Puerto Rican within Chicana o and Latina o America Irizarry establishes four dominant categories of narrative loss reclamation fracture and new memory that address immigration gender and sexuality cultural nationalisms and neocolonialism As she shows narrative concerns have moved away from the weathered notions of arrival and assimilation Contemporary Chicana o and Latina o literatures instead tell stories that have little if anything to do with integration into the Anglo American world The result is the creation of new memory This reformulation of cultural membership unmasks the neocolonial story and charts the conscious engagement of cultural memory It outlines the ways contemporary Chicana o and Latina o communities create belonging and memory of their ethnic origins An engaging contribution to an important literary tradition Chicana o and Latina o Fiction privileges the stories Chicanas os and Latinas os remember about themselves rather than the stories of those subjugating them NACCS Book Award National Association for Chicana and Chicano Studies 2018 MLA Prize in United States Latina and Latino and Chicana and Chicano Literary and Cultural Studies Modern Language Association 2017 Latin American Fiction Phillip Swanson, 2008-04-15 This book introduces readers to the evolution of modern fiction in Spanish speaking Latin America Presents Latin American fiction in its cultural and political contexts Introduces debates about how to read this literature Combines an overview of the evolution of modern Latin American fiction with detailed studies of key texts Discusses authors such as Mario Vargas Llosa Gabriel Garc a M rquez Jorge Luis Borges and Isabel Allende Covers nation building narratives modernismo the New Novel the Boom the Post Boom Magical Realism Hispanic fiction in the USA and more Intersections of Harm Laura Halperin, 2015-07-13 In this innovative new study Laura Halperin examines literary representations of harm inflicted on Latinas minds and bodies and on the places Latinas inhabit but she also explores how hope can be found amid so much harm Analyzing contemporary memoirs and novels by Irene Vilar Loida Maritza P rez Ana Castillo Cristina Garc a and Julia Alvarez she argues that the individual harm experienced by Latinas needs to be understood in relation to the collective histories of aggression against their communities Intersections of Harm is more than just a nuanced examination of the intersections among race ethnicity class gender and sexuality It also explores the intersections of deviance and defiance individual and collective and mind body and place Halperin proposes that ironically the harmful ascriptions of Latina deviance are tied to the hopeful expressions of Latina defiance While the Latina protagonists defiance feeds into the labels of deviance imposed on them it also fuels the protagonists ability to resist such harmful treatment In this analysis Halperin broadens the parameters of literary studies of female madness as she compels us to shift our understanding of where madness lies She insists that the madness readily attributed to individual Latinas is entwined with the madness of institutional structures of oppression and she maintains that psychological harm is bound together with physical and geopolitical harm In her pan Latina study Halperin shows how each writer's work emerges from a unique set of locales and histories but she also traces a network of connections among them Bringing together concepts from feminism postcolonialism illness studies and ecocriticism Intersections of Harm opens up exciting new avenues for Latina studies

A History of American Literature Richard Gray, 2011-09-23 Updated throughout and with much new material A History of American Literature Second Edition is the most up to date and comprehensive survey available of the myriad forms of American Literature from pre Columbian times to the present The most comprehensive and up to date history of American literature available today Covers fiction poetry drama and non fiction as well as other forms of literature including folktale spirituals the detective story the thriller and science fiction Explores the plural character of American literature including the contributions made by African American Native American Hispanic and Asian American writers Considers how our understanding of American literature has changed over the past thirty years Situates American literature in the contexts of American history politics and society Offers an invaluable introduction to American literature for students at all levels academic and general readers

Ethnic Literary Traditions in American Children's Literature M. Stewart, Y.

Atkinson, 2009-11-23 Esteemed contributors expand the range of possibilities for reading understanding and teaching children's literature as ethnic literature rather than children's literature in this ambitious collection

Embodying Difference Linda Saborío, 2012 Embodying Difference offers a fresh perspective on the current theoretical debates about the role of Latinas in today's multicultural society and globalization's impact on cultural attitudes toward femininity Saborío's interdisciplinary approach links feminist and gender discourse cultural studies and theatrical performances as a means of exploring many dynamic forms of cultural productions

Postethnic Narrative Criticism Frederick Luis Aldama, 2009-09-15 Magical realism has become almost synonymous with Latin American fiction but this way of representing the layered and often contradictory reality of the topsy turvy late capitalist globalizing world finds equally vivid expression in U S multiethnic and British postcolonial literature and film Writers and filmmakers such as Oscar Zeta Acosta Ana Castillo Julie Dash Hanif Kureishi and Salman Rushdie have made brilliant use of magical realism to articulate the trauma of dislocation and the legacies of colonialism that people of color experience in the postcolonial multiethnic world This book seeks to redeem and refine the theory of magical realism in U S multiethnic and British postcolonial literature and film Frederick Aldama engages in theoretically sophisticated readings of Ana Castillo's So Far from God Oscar Zeta Acosta's Autobiography of a Brown Buffalo Salman Rushdie's Midnight's Children Shame The Satanic Verses and The Moor's Last Sigh Julie Dash's Daughters of the Dust and Stephen Frears and Hanif Kureishi's Sammy and Rosie Get Laid Coining the term magicorealism to characterize these works Aldama not only creates a postethnic critical methodology for enlarging the contact zone between the genres of novel film and autobiography but also shatters the interpretive lens that traditionally confuses the transcription of the real world where truth and falsity apply with narrative modes governed by other criteria Double crossings Mario Martín Flores, Carlos Von Son, 2001 Naming the Father Eva Paulino Bueno, Terry Caesar, William Hummel, 2000-01-01 Naming the Father is a collection of essays on the subject of fatherhood its enduring power its secret ruses its unsettling provocations Despite the considerable critical attention devoted to motherhood in literature and despite the late twentieth century focus on patriarchy there is surprisingly no comparable collection on fatherhood This volume was born of the conclusion that critics of modern and contemporary literature may comprehend the father too little for presuming to have comprehended patriarchy so much Naming the Father begins with a series of nonfiction essays that attempts to locate the missing father in the individual experiences of three scholars at various stages of their careers The following thematically grouped sections recover and discuss fatherhood in fields ranging from Caribbean fiction to African American drama and in the work of authors as diverse as Rebecca West Anzia Yezierska William Burroughs and Stephen Wright as well as Henry James and James Joyce A variety of critical approaches from biographical to deconstructive activate and engage with the cultural national and global implications of fatherhood for the family and for the future of literary studies Scholars and students of contemporary literature cultural studies and gender studies will find this book a fascinating and invaluable collection

New Strangers in Paradise Gilbert H. Muller, 2014-07-11 New Strangers in Paradise offers the first in depth account of the ways in which contemporary American fiction has been shaped by the successive generations of immigrants to reach U S shores Gilbert Muller reveals how the intersections of peoples regions and competing cultural histories have remade the American cultural landscape in the aftermath of World War II Muller focuses on the literature of Holocaust survivors Chicanos Latinos African Caribbeans and Asian Americans In the quest for a new identity each of these groups seeks the American dream and rewrites the story of what it means to be an American New Strangers in Paradise explores the psychology of uprooted peoples and the relations of culture and power addressing issues of race and ethnicity multiculturalism and pluralism and national and international conflicts Examining the groups of immigrants in the cultural and historical context both of America and of the lands from which they originated Muller argues that this fourth wave of immigration has led to a creative flowering in modern fiction The book offers a fresh perspective on the writings of Vladimir Nabokov Saul Bellow William Styron Maxine Hong Kingston Amy Tan Oscar Hijuelos Jamaica Kincaid Bharati Mukherjee Rudolfo Anaya and many others Latina/o Communication Studies Bernadette Marie Calafell, 2007 This is the first book within the field of communication studies to map the terrain of Latina o performance Using rhetorical criticism and performance ethnography the book examines performance from a variety of perspectives from identity and community in everyday life to how it intersects with popular culture Discussions from Ricky Martin to Chicana feminist pilgrimages to issues of diaspora contribute to the book's argument that the relationship between rhetorical scholarship and emerging performance work has largely been ignored. Latina/o Communication Studies aims to challenge this split by creating a more complex and less Eurocentric understanding of rhetoric. This rich and informative book contributes to a more nuanced understanding of race and ethnicity and attests to the importance of Latina/o studies in the field of communication.

Gay Latino Studies Michael Hames-García, Ernesto Javier Martínez, 2011-04-13 A collection of essays that explores the lives and cultural contributions of gay Latino men in the United States and analyzes the political and theoretical stakes of gay Latino studies.

Latinidad at the Crossroads, 2021-04-26 In Latinidad at the Crossroads Insights into Latinx identity in the Twenty First Century Gerke and González Rodríguez provide flashing glimpses into the ways in which Latinas/os struggle to forge their multiracial and multicultural identities within their own communities and in mainstream U.S. society. This volume encompasses an interdisciplinary perspective on the complex range of latinidades that confronts stereotypical connotations and simultaneously advocates a more flexible redefinition that may overcome static collective representations of identity, ethnicity and belonging. Well positioned in the current political context, the notion of latinidad is examined as a complex sociological phenomenon of identity construction which is affected by outside influences and is used as a powerful linguistic, cultural and ideological weapon to denounce oppression and deconstruct stereotypes. Including chapters from foundational and influential scholars, this collection moves towards a dynamic exploration of how Latinx are remapping their identity positions in twenty-first century America. Contributors: Francisco A. Lomelí, Jos Antonio Gurpegui, Esther Ivarez, Lpez Ylce Irizarry, Luisa Mar, a González Rodríguez, Ewa Antoszek, Fernando Aquino.

Performing La Mestiza Ellen M. Gil-Gomez, 2017-10-06 This book, first published in 2000, explores the intersections of race, gender and gay identities in writings by contemporary American lesbians of colour in order to show how this subject is sometimes ignored, sometimes brutalised and is very rarely able to survive on her own terms by constructing her own identity acts of cultural revision. The author places the lesbian of colour in the context of current identity theories, showing the ever-present blind spots within current theoretical paradigms. She then reads a variety of writings by lesbians of colour describing the possibilities that exist for these subjects in textual and social realities. The author shows the varied communities that threaten the existence of this subject as well as the limits that dictate the subject's ability to create her self. By bridging Judith Butler's Gender Trouble and Gloria Anzaldúa's New Mestiza, she describes how lesbians of colour can survive numerous sites of hostility by constructing a positive identity within her home community through revising cultural traditions and history. After considering the power of these acts of revision, the author calls for the empowered performance of the mestiza state, the state of contradiction wherein the lesbian of colour finds herself. This book is the first to analyse creative and theoretical works by African American, Asian American, Latina and Native American communities and writers through the lens of lesbian studies. Authors include recognised figures such as Audre Lorde, Ana Castillo and Paula Gunn Allen, as well as lesser-known authors like Best Brant.

Natashia Lopez and Willyce Kim It provides a corrective to Butler's empowering but essentially white vision of performing identity so that lesbians of colour can claim their identities and remain tied to their own cultural traditions Ultimately the author asks for a reconsideration of the value of identity studies that articulate monolithic identities and whose analyses perpetuate what they seek to disrupt Hispanic-American Writers Allison Amend, 2010 Profiles notable Hispanic Americans and their work in the field of literature including Sandra Cisneros Julia Alvarez and Junot Diaz AfroLatinas and LatiNegras Concetta Bondi, Rosita Scerbo, 2022-11-28 AfroLatinas as a subject of scholarship are woefully underrepresented and this edited volume AfroLatinas and LatiNegras Culture Identity and Struggle from an Intersectional Perspective offers an important and timely intervention The consistent attention to AfroLatinas agency across all the chapters is empowering and attentive to the difficult circumstances of asserting that agency and to the tremendous breadth of what agency can look like The authors argue for the analytical power of the concept of Intersectionality while considering the hegemonic pressures on AfroLatinidad and the essentializing moves that an intersectional approach enables evading overthrowing and resisting systems of power Through the study of multiple cultural expressions of Blackness such as photography colonial inquisition records dance music fiction non fiction poetic memoir and religious expression and throughout different regions of the Americas the chapter contributors of this book consider the relationship that social and historical processes such as sovereignty and colonialism have on narrative and cultural production Rosita Scerbo Concetta Bondi and the contributors acknowledge that racial and gender equity cannot exist without Intersectionality and the inclusion of activist voices broadens this volume's reach and links theory to praxis The Cambridge History of Latina/o American Literature John Morán González, Laura Lomas, 2018-02-22 The Cambridge History of Latina/o American Literature emphasizes the importance of understanding Latina/o literature not simply as a US ethnic phenomenon but more broadly as an important element of a trans American literary imagination Engaging with the dynamics of migration linguistic and cultural translation and the uneven distribution of resources across the Americas that characterize Latina/o literature the essays in this History provide a critical overview of key texts authors themes and contexts as discussed by leading scholars in the field This book demonstrates the relevance of Latina/o literature for a world defined by the migration of people commodities and cultural expressions
