Packer, 2000-03-07 James I Packer says of the devotional life To rush to God randomly babbling about what is on our mind at the moment with no pause to realize his greatness and grace and our own sinfulness and smallness is at once to dishonor him and to make shallow our own fellowship with him Dr Packer has taught generations of Christians how to know God better Now he helps us draw closer to God each day with insightful readings Focusing on what it means to be a part of the family of God these meditations will lead you into the Father's presence through Scripture prayer and practical wisdom Worship Matters (Foreword by Paul Baloché) Bob Kauflin, 2008-03-26 Nothing is more essential than knowing how to worship the God who created us This book focuses readers on the essentials of God honoring worship combining biblical foundations with practical application in a way that works in the real world The author a pastor and noted songwriter skillfully instructs pastors musicians and church leaders so that they can root their congregational worship in unchanging scriptural principles not divisive cultural trends Bob Kauflin covers a variety of topics such as the devastating effects of worshiping the wrong things how to base our worship on God's self revelation rather than our assumptions the fuel of worship the community of worship and the ways that eternity's worship should affect our earthly worship Appropriate for Christians from varied backgrounds and for various denominations

Power, 2008-07-29 This study has two aims The first is to relate studies on symbolism and its modes to an understanding of the liturgy The second is to relate these studies to the renewal of the liturgy in a time of crisis Since the first aim is affected by the second it may be well to say something about the nature of the crisis at this point The crisis as it touches on liturgy is twofold First there is a crisis of vision and second a crisis of hope The churches are forced to ask how well the vision of reality or the world view projected in liturgical celebration expresses a sense of being in time and a sense of the holy that are pertinent to contemporary fact and contemporary models of reality This is the crisis of vision At the same time the churches are part of a humanity which lives in a time of disintegration and destruction a humanity continually compelled to consider whether there are any hopes by which it is possible to face the future The despair of the age is represented in the twofold holocaust of the century There is the holocaust of the Jewish people under the Nazi regime and there is the imminent nuclear holocaust which threatens the entire world Can those who profess faith in Jesus Christ profess it in such an age from the Introduction      Good Fruit: The Evidence of True Discipleship Rev.
