The Case of Literature Arne Höcker, 2020-06-15 In The Case of Literature Arne Höcker offers a radical reassessment of the modern European literary canon His reinterpretations of Goethe Schiller Büchner Döblin Musil and Kafka show how literary and scientific narratives have determined each other over the past three centuries and he argues that modern literature not only contributed to the development of the human sciences but also established itself as the privileged medium for a modern style of case based reasoning The Case of Literature deftly traces the role of narrative fiction in relation to the scientific knowledge of the individual from eighteenth century psychology and pedagogy to nineteenth century sexology and criminology to twentieth century psychoanalysis Höcker demonstrates how modern authors consciously engaged casuistic forms of writing to arrive at new understandings of literary discourse that correspond to major historical transformations in the function of fiction He argues for the centrality of literature to changes in the conceptions of psychological knowledge production around 1800 legal responsibility and institutionalized forms of decision making throughout the nineteenth century and literature s own realist demands in the early twentieth century

Beware of the Other Side(s) Heike Schwarz, 2014-03-15 This interdisciplinary study examines the still vivid phenomenon of the most controversial psychiatric diagnosis in the United States multiple personality disorder now called dissociative identity disorder This syndrome comprehends the occurrence of two or more distinct identities that take control of a person s behavior paired with an inexplicable memory loss Synthesizing the fields of psychiatry and the dynamics of the disorder with its influential representation in American fiction the study researches how psychiatry and fiction mutually shaped a mysterious syndrome and how this reciprocal process created a genre fiction of its own that persists until today in a very distinct self referential mode

Insights in cardiovascular imaging: 2022 Christos Bourantas,Sebastian Kelle,Grigorios Korosoglou,2023-07-21 The History of German Literature on Film Christiane Schönfeld,2023-06-15 A 2024 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE This book tells the story of German language literature on film beginning with pioneering motion picture adaptations of Faust in 1897 and early debates focused on high art as mass culture It explores analyzes and contextualizes the so called golden age of silent cinema in the 1920s the impact of sound on adaptation practices the abuse of literary heritage by Nazi filmmakers and traces the role of German language literature in exile and postwar films across ideological boundaries in divided Germany in New German Cinema and in remakes and movies for cinema as well as television and streaming services in the 21st century Having provided the narrative core to thousands of films since the late 19th century many of German cinema s most influential masterpieces were inspired by canonical texts popular plays and even children s literature Not being restricted to German adaptations however this book also traces the role of literature originally written in German in international film productions which sheds light on the interrelation between cinema and key historical events It outlines how processes of adaptation are shaped by global catastrophes and the emergence of nations by materialist conditions liberal economies and capitalist imperatives political agendas the mobility of individuals and sometimes by the desire to create reflective surfaces and perhaps even art Commercial cinema s adaptation practices have foregrounded economic interest but numerous filmmakers throughout cinema history have turned to German language literature not simply to entertain but as a creative contribution to the public sphere marking adaptation practice at least potentially as a form of active citizenship
