Shrinking Dollars, Vanishing Jobs Dick Cluster, Nancy Rutter, 1980 Cluster, Nancy Rutter, 1980-01-01 Becoming Free William L. Ewens, 1984 To find more information about Rowman and Littlefield titles please visit www.rowmanlittlefield.com Politics of Education Susan Gushee O'Malley, 1990-07-05 This book brings together thirty of the best essays from Radical Teacher The journal is devoted to feminist and socialist approaches to teaching to showing teachers how to democratize the classroom and empower students The articles included here have been chosen for their continuing usefulness to school and college teachers with emphasis on critical pedagogy as well as radical course content These essays provide not only a wealth of ideas for teachers already involved in radical education but also an accessible readable and wide ranging introduction for those new to it Home Businesses Judith Eichler Weber, 1978 Critical Perspectives in Public Health Judith Green, Ronald Labonté, 2007-10 Combining analytical introductory chapters edited versions of influential articles from the journal Critical Public Health and specially commissioned review articles this volume examines the contemporary roles of critical voices in public health research and practice from a range of disciplines and contexts Monthly Labor Review , 1980 Publishes in depth articles on labor subjects current labor statistics information about current labor contracts and book reviews Small Business Bibliography , 1962 Women, Medicine, Ethics and the Law Susan Sherwin, Barbara Parish, 2020-09-10 This title was first published in 2002 A collection of articles focused on women within a general study of medicine ethics and the law Topics covered include areas where the institutions of medicine ethics and the law intersect in women s reproductive and sexual lives the impact of legal policies and dominant ethical beliefs on many aspects of women s health and the health practices and policies of bioethics and health law The editors recognise that it is important not to lose sight of social differences other than gender such as race ethnicity class age sexuality religion level of physical and mental ability and family relationships In their approach they seek to consider the lives and experiences of women as primary Hence they focus on the question of how women s encounters with the health care system are structured by gender and other socially significant dimensions of their lives rather than the question of how women differ from the male norm Dollars & Sense , 1998 Economics Selections , 1980 Trade Wars Against America William J. Gill, 1990 Unique in its breadth and scope this volume provides a comprehensive history of U S trade and monetary policy from colonial times to the present Gill examines the origins of the traditional protectionist policies that prevailed from the beginning of the Republic until 1913 and explores in detail America s experience with trade in the years from the end of World War I to the present day Case histories of the experience of several U S industries in attempting to get the government to implement trade laws are drawn from the author s extensive involvement as a trade consultant Gill asserts that U S economic might was built upon sound money and the overt protection of its industrial and economic base and that when protectionist policies have been abandoned as in the Wilson and Reagan

years our economic position in the world has suffered He calls for an end to the free trade zeitgeist of the 1980s arguing instead for a renewed commitment to rational protection Trade Wars Against America is chronological in approach It begins by examining the protectionist policies of the early Republic the War of 1812 as the first trade war after the Republic s founding Andrew Jackson s struggle with the banking community over the conduct of trade and monetary policy and the rise of protectionism after the Civil War and its culmination in the McKinley presidency an era of unparalleled prosperity Gill goes on to discuss the assault on the protectionist system by Woodrow Wilson and Edward House the creation of the Federal Reserve Bank the Trade Act of 1934 and its role in the Depression and the supranational movement that culminated at Bretton Woods and resulted in the creation of the World Bank the International Monetary Fund and the GATT the Geneva based organization implementing the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade Finally Gill looks at the period since World War II concluding that trade wars are being waged against the United States primarily with the subsidies foreign governments give their industries to increase exports Privately owned U S firms Gill asserts cannot effectively compete against government owned or subsidized industries abroad
